Lacan, Discourse, Event: New

Psychoanalytic Approaches to Textual Indeterminacy Ian Parker,David Pavón-Cuéllar,2013-10-30 Lacan Discourse Event New

Psychoanalytic Approaches to Textual Indeterminacy is an introduction to the emerging field of Lacanian Discourse Analysis. It includes key papers that lay the foundations for this research and worked examples from analysts working with a range of different texts. The editors Ian Parker and David Pav n Cu llar begin with an introduction which reviews the key themes in discourse analysis and the problems faced by researchers in that field of work including an overview of the development of discourse analysis in different disciplines: psychology, sociology, cultural studies and political and social theory. They also set out the conceptual and methodological principles of Lacan's work insofar as it applies to the field of discourse. Ian Parker and David Pav n Cu llar have divided the book into three main sections. The first section comprises previously published papers, some not yet available in English, which set out the foundations for Lacanian Discourse Analysis. The chapters establish the first lines of research and illustrate how Lacanian psychoanalysis is transformed into a distinctive approach to interpreting text when it is taken out of the clinical domain. The second and third parts of the book comprise commissioned papers in which leading researchers from across the social sciences from the English speaking world and from continental Europe and Latin America show how Lacanian Discourse Analysis works in practice.

Lacan Discourse Event New Psychoanalytic Approaches to Textual Indeterminacy is intended to be a definitive volume bringing together writing from the leaders in the field of Lacanian Discourse Analysis working in the English speaking world and in countries where Lacanian psychoanalysis is part of mainstream clinical practice and social theory. It will be of particular interest to psychoanalysts of different traditions, to post graduate and undergraduate researchers in psycho social studies, cultural studies, sociology and social anthropology.

Performing Left Populism Goran Petrovic Lotina, Théo Aiolfi, 2023-06-15. This interdisciplinary volume offers new insights into the connections between populism and performance. As a driving force of the contemporary left, the populist logic offers a way for progressive politics to radicalize actions against the elite, fostering greater democratization of societies at a time of socio political and environmental crisis. Exploring the populist roots of a number of performances, the contributors to this study analyze the potentials and limits of the new forms of left populism for more democratic ways of living together. Combining performance studies and political theory, Performing Left Populism demonstrates how various performance practices give rise to populism. It shows how both civic performances including grassroots civil movements, political speeches, state policies and media campaigns, and artistic performances such as theatre, dance, music and artistic activism contribute to these processes. By these means, the book examines the processes of constructing a people through both the real civic and imaginary artistic perspectives. Offering scholars and practitioners a thought provoking analysis of the ways in which performance can be viewed politically as a social practice capable of mobilizing alternative ways of living and invigorating democracy, this study expands the debate about left populism towards strategies of mobilization, collectivism and democratic politics.

Epistemological Bias in the Physical & Social Sciences Abdelwahab M. Elmessiri, 2006-01-01. The question of bias in methodology and terminology is a problem that faces researchers east, west, north and south; however, it faces Third World intellectuals with special keenness For although they write in a cultural environment that has its own specific conceptual and cultural paradigms they nevertheless encounter a foreign paradigm which attempts to impose itself upon their society and upon their very imagination and thoughts When the term developmental psychology for instance is used in the West Arab scholars also say developmental psychology when applied psychology is mentioned they hurry to use the same term etc Why not establish a new science with its own mechanisms methodologies and points of reference to deal with epistemological biases and open up the gate of ijtiḥād with respect to them This collection of papers aims to discover some of the biases latent in our terminology methodologies research tools and conceptual principles and to propose alternative ones marked by a greater degree of independence and neutrality This is not to belittle the human value of the West's creative contributions but to emphasize the danger of making it the ultimate point of reference and then trying to continuously play catch up with it Twenty-First-Century Readings of E. M. Forster's 'Maurice' Emma Sutton, Tsung-Han Tsai, 2020-03-26

This is the first book length study of Forster's posthumously published novel Nine essays focus exclusively on Maurice and its dynamic afterlives in literature film and new media during the twentieth and twenty first centuries Begun in 1913 and revised over almost fifty years Maurice became a defining text in Forster's work and a canonical example of queer fiction Yet the critical tendency to read Maurice primarily as a revelation of Forster's homosexuality has obscured important biographical political and aesthetic contexts for this novel This collection places Maurice among early twentieth century debates about politics philosophy religion gender Aestheticism and allegory Essays explore how the novel interacts with literary predecessors and contemporaries including John Bunyan Oscar Wilde Havelock Ellis and Edward Carpenter and how it was shaped by personal relationships such as Forster's friendship with Florence Barger They close read the textual variants of Forster's manuscripts and examine the novel's genesis and revisions They consider the volatility of its reception analysing how it galvanizes subsequent generations of writers and artists including Christopher Isherwood Alan Hollinghurst Damon Galgut James Ivory and twenty first century online fanfiction writers What emerges from the volume is the complexity of the novel as a text and as a cultural phenomenon Modern Persian Literature in Afghanistan Wali

Ahmadi, 2008-03-05 This book charts the development of Afghan literature in the modern era covering both poetry and prose and relating it to social economic and political change in that country Winner of the Iranian World Prize for Book of the Year in Islamic Studies 2009 The literary history of Afghanistan in the 20th century has received little attention so far The process of transmission and reception of modernity itself is one of the many lacunae in our knowledge of the cultural setting in Afghanistan Wali Ahmadi's account of the development of modern Persian literature stands as a first noteworthy step towards rectifying this situation In his citation laden introduction he makes it clear that he considers the dissemination of modernity in Afghanistan to have been at once a selective and an active process This book provides a useful introduction to and a selective overview of the literary history of Afghanistan in the 20th century Wali Ahmadi is to be commended for

Into Our Labours Neil Lazarus, 2022-04-15 Into our Labours explores the literary representation of work across the globe since 1850 setting out to show that the literature of modernity is best understood in the light of the worlding of capitalism The book proposes that a determinative relation exists between changing modes of work and changes in the forms genres and aesthetic strategies of the writing that bears witness to them Two aspects of the worlding of modernity especially are emphasised First an inaugural experience of capitalist social relations whose literary registration sometimes makes itself known through a crisis of representation as the forms of space and time consciousness demanded by life in contexts in which market oriented commodity production has become the dominant form of social labour are counterposed with inherited ways of seeing and knowing now under acute pressure if not already obsolete Second a moment corresponding to the consolidation regularisation and global dispersal of capitalist development Into Our Labours focuses on the naturalisation of capitalist social relations forms of sociality and solidarity ideologies of familialism individualism and work relations between the sexes and the generations Arguing that the only plausible term for the vast body of literary work engendered by the worlding of capitalist social relations is modernist the book proposes that it is then important to challenge the still entrenched Eurocentric understandings of modernism Modernism is neither originally nor paradigmatically Western in provenance and its temporal parameters are much broader than are usually assumed in modernist studies extending both backward and forward in time Stories of women Elleke Boehmer, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Elleke Boehmer's work on the crucial intersections between independence nationalism and gender has already proved canonical in the field Stories of women combines her keynote essays on the mother figure and the postcolonial nation with incisive new work on male autobiography daughter writers the colonial body the trauma of the post colony and the nation in a transnational context Focusing on Africa as well as South Asia and sexuality as well as gender Boehmer offers fine close readings of writers ranging from Achebe Okri and Mandela to Arundhati Roy and Yvonne Vera shaping these into a critical engagement with theorists of the nation like Fredric Jameson and Partha Chatterjee This edition will be of interest to readers and researchers of postcolonial international and women's writing of nation theory colonial history and historiography of Indian African migrant and diasporic literatures and is likely to prove a landmark study in the field

Mapping the Secular Mind Haggag Ali, 2013 The secular mind had a grand plan to establish an earthly paradise a utopia of the here and now a modern civilization governed by human reason rationality and the triumph of progress Whilst ideals are one thing the means to realize them is something else Away from the hype emancipating humanity from the shackles of God and religion has proved no easy matter Mapping the Secular Mind critically examines issues of reason rationality and secular materialism to explore how these mental perceptions or ways of mapping the world have affected human interaction and sociological development Plotting the Reading Experience Paulette M. Rothbauer, Kjell Ivar Skjerdingsstad, Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie, Knut Oterholm, 2016-06-30 This book is about the experience of reading what reading feels like how it makes people feel how people read and under what conditions what drives people to read and conversely what halts the individual in the pursuit of the pleasures of reading The authors consider reading in all of its richness as they explore readers relationships with diverse textual and digital forms This edited volume is divided into three sections Theory Practice and Politics The first provides insights into ways of seeing thinking and conceptualizing the experience of reading The second features a variety of individual and social practices of reading The third explores the political and ethical aspects of the reading experience raising questions about the role that reading plays in democracy and civic participation With contributions from multidisciplinary scholars from around the world this book provides provocative insights into what it means to be a reader reading in and across various social cultural and political contexts Its unifying theme of the reader s experience of reading is put into dialogue with theories practices and politics making this a rewarding read for graduate students faculty researchers and librarians working across a range of academic fields Poverty and Protest as Public Discourse during the Cotton Crisis Rachel Broady, 2024-12-16 This book constitutes the first book length study of journalistic responses to poverty and protest during the Lancashire cotton crisis The cotton crisis of 1861 1865 is a popular subject in history culture and education Workers voices are comprehensively studied in terms of newspapers publishing fiction and poetry and the broader political response to the crisis the American Civil War and British workers support of Lincoln s Emancipation Proclamation They are though overlooked in terms of journalistic representation of workers Ironically discussions of the cotton crisis including where efforts are made to assess the workers experience have consistently relied upon journalism as primary sources and the first witness of history without assessing the news copy s political unconscious This lack of attention is especially apparent when considering workers challenging poverty through dedicated protest Amid the celebrated workers opposition to slavery and their sublime heroism as noted by American President Abraham Lincoln there were less studied local struggles for financial help for education and for the vote
