amazing but all too often the Christian life can be more about keeping stuffy rules than enjoying a relationship with Christ. The tendency to add works to salvation has been a thorny problem since the gospel was first preached. Legalism, the doctrine of salvation by works, robs the Christian of the grace-filled life. The book of Galatians is like an emancipation proclamation that says, "If the Son has set you free, then you are free at last." The liberating message of Galatians says believers are free from sin, regulations, and guilt. Free from the need to measure up. Free to be loved by Christ and changed by his grace. Galatians is a guide for recovering Pharisees and in Free at Last, Derrick McCarson takes us on a verse-by-verse journey through Paul's bondage-busting manifesto. You may be surprised to learn that Paul's message of grace is still as relevant today as it was centuries ago. While the culture has changed much in those intervening years, mankind's inherent desire for performance-based religion has not. This book is a timely reminder to Christians everywhere that if we aren't living by grace, then we have succumbed to spiritual slavery.

Teaching U.S. History Through Children's Literature Wanda Miller, 1998-11-15

Similar to U.S. History Through Children's Literature: From the Colonial Period to World War II in format and approach, historical fiction and nonfiction are integrated into modern U.S. History. For each of these topics, Miller suggests two or more titles, one for use with the entire class and one for use with small reading groups. Summaries of the books, author information, activities, and topics for discussion are supplemented with vocabulary lists and ideas for research topics and further reading. This integrated approach makes history more meaningful to students and helps them retain historical details and facts by immersing them in stories surrounding historical events. A well-researched and thorough resource.

Martin Luther King, Jr. David A. Adler, 1986-01-01. A biography of the Baptist minister who worked unceasingly for his dream of a world without hate, prejudice, or violence and was assassinated in the attempt.

Let Nobody Turn Us Around Manning Marable, 2003. One of America's most prominent historians and a noted feminist bring together the most important political writings and testimonials from African Americans over three centuries.

Hooray for Heroes! Dennis Denenberg, Lorraine Roscoe, 1994. Combines creative activities with a comprehensive list of biographies written for children. Organized by age group: pre-school, ages 3-5, primary 6-8, intermediate 9-11, and young people 12-14.

Experiencing God's Story of Life and Hope J. Scott Duvall. Intended for college and seminary courses on spiritual formation, the workbook consists of twelve chapters with three parts each: believing, behaving, and becoming. That is, what virtues to possess. Thus, the thirty-six lessons are holistic, showing that the process of becoming like Christ involves our entire being.
