New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Why France? Laura Lee Downs,Stephane Gerson,2011-11-11
France has long attracted the attention of many of America s most accomplished historians The field of French history has been vastly influential in American thought both within the academy and beyond regardless of France s standing among U S political and cultural elites Even though other countries from Britain to China may have had a greater impact on American history none has exerted quite the same hold on the American historical imagination particularly in the post 1945 era To gain a fresh perspective on this passionate relationship Laura Lee Downs and St phane Gerson commissioned a diverse array of historians to write autobiographical essays in which they explore their intellectual political and personal engagements with France and its past In addition to the essays Why France includes a lengthy introduction by the editors and an afterword by one of France s most distinguished historians Roger Chartier Taken together these essays provide a rich and thought provoking portrait of France the Franco American relationship and a half century of American intellectual life viewed through the lens of the best scholarship on France
