The Free Church in Victorian Canada, 1844-1861 Richard W. Vaudry, 2006-01-01 Drawing on a wide range of church records pamphlets private papers and periodicals Richard Vaudry has written an authoritative study of the formation and development of the Free Church in mid Victorian Canada He traces the institutional development of the denomination its intellectual life and its attitudes to contemporary political and social questions and describes another subjects missionary activity theological education worship and the denomination s union with the United Presbyterian Synod in 1861 This important work depicts a progressive church where men such as George Brown Isaac Buchanan and John Redpath could all find a home The author argues that undergirding the life of the Free Church was an evangelical Calvinist world view which determined the shape and direction of its activities His book illuminates an important facet of the religious and intellectual relationship between Scotland and Canada and should be of interest to students and scholars of Canadian and Church history perceptions of what constitutes history and who should write that history This anthology shows how instead of being intimidated or defeated by their marginalization women developed new and interesting ideas about what constituted history The final essay in the volume assesses the impact the burgeoning of feminist history in the 1970s had on the academy and examines the connection between feminist activism and women s history This original and lively book highlights the pioneering efforts of women in developing alternate paths to historical expression It makes an important contribution both to Canadian historical studies and to women s and gender history in the West and will appeal to scholars interested in Canadian history women s studies literature and historiography Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches

George Leslie Mackay 1844 1901 the famous Canadian Presbyterian missionary who came to northern Formosa Taiwan in 1872 and preached specifically with aborigines in mind is the subject of an interdisciplinary study by seven independent scholars interested in the nineteenth century imperial project and Christian mission to China Importantly Mackay s mission defies such binary opposites as East and West the missionary a conduit of an earlier Scottish Canadian spirituality adapted to Taiwan that allowed converts to appropriate the Presbyterian faith on their own terms the mission field in which he operated a biculture of foreign initiative and aboriginal agency working hand in hand Mackay s ordination of aboriginal ministers giving us the Northern Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Taiwan PCT was a bold departure from the imperial Anglo
