Our Ways Armando Molina, 2021-11-15 This book develops a remarkable axiological characterology of healthy personality types, distortions, and styles of sexual attachment. It synthesizes the author's profound understanding of human nature, recent psychological interpretations of the ancient Enneagram, and insights into connections between values and psychology drawn from Robert S. Hartman's formal theory of value. It shows how personalities are differentiated by the ways they manifest Hartman's three dimensions of value: intrinsic, extrinsic, and systemic. It shows how these correlate with nine personality types identified by the Enneagram interpreters. Human personalities differ with respect to the ways in which intrinsic, extrinsic, and systemic values are developed or not developed and ordered as dominant or subordinate within individuals by nature and/or nurture. The book shows how personality distortions are grounded in perversions of value orientation. It shows how a value-based approach to character disorders can be linked to moral vices and to many familiar diagnostic and therapeutic psychological categories like obsession, hysteria, schizophrenia, neurosis, and various addictions. It explains the many ways in which value orientations are expressed in sexual attitudes and relations and how value-based character traits that dominate the non-sexual areas of our lives are carried over into the sexual areas.

Fire and Ink Frances Payne Adler, Debra Busman, Diana Garc'a, 2009 Fire and Ink is a powerful and impassioned anthology of stories, poems, interviews, and essays that confront some of the most pressing social issues of our day. Designed to inspire and inform, this collection embodies the concepts of breaking silence, bearing witness, resistance, and resilience. Beyond students and teachers, the book will appeal to all readers with a commitment to social justice. Fire and Ink brings together for the first time in one volume politically engaged writing by poets, fiction writers, and essayists. Including many of our finest writers: Mart'n Espada, Adrienne Rich, June Jordan, Patricia Smith, Gloria Anzald'a, Sharon Olds, Arundhati Roy, Sonia Sanchez, Carolyn Forché, Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni, Alice Walker, Linda Hogan, Gary Soto, Kim Blaese, Minnie Bruce Pratt, Li Young Lee, and Jimmy Santiago Baca, among others, this is an indispensable collection. This groundbreaking anthology marks the emergence of social action writing as a distinct field within creative writing and literature. Featuring never before published pieces as well as reprinted material, Fire and Ink is divided into ten sections focused on significant social issues including identity, sexuality, and gender; the environment; social justice; work; war and peace. The pieces can often be gripping, such as Frame in which Adrienne Rich confronts government and police brutality, or Ode to Joy in which Chris Abani documents great courage in the face of mortal danger. Fire and Ink serves as a wonderful reader for a wide range of courses from composition and rhetoric classes to courses in ethnic studies, gender studies, American studies, and even political science by facing a past that was often accompanied by injustice and suffering.
