The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Emotions in Classical Indian Philosophy Maria Heim,Chakravarthi Ram-Prasad,Roy Tzohar,2021-04-08 Drawing on a rich variety of premodern Indian texts across multiple traditions genres and languages this collection explores how emotional experience is framed evoked and theorized in order to offer compelling insights into human subjectivity Rather than approaching emotion through the prism of Western theory a team of leading scholars of Indian traditions showcases the literary texture philosophical reflections and theoretical paradigms that classical Indian sources provide in their own right The focus is on how the texts themselves approach those dimensions of the human condition we may intuitively think of as being about emotion without pre judging what that might be The result is a collection that reveals the range and diversity of phenomena that benefit from being gathered under the formal term emotion but which in fact open up what such theorisation representation and expression might contribute to a cross cultural understanding of this term In doing so these chapters contribute to a cosmopolitan comparative and pluralistic conception of human experience Adopting a broad phenomenological methodology this handbook reframes debates on emotion within classical Indian thought and is an invaluable resource for researchers and students seeking to understand the field beyond the Western tradition

Emotions in Rituals and Performances Axel Michaels, Christoph Wulf, 2020-11-29

Challenging the idea that rituals are static and emotions irrational the volume explores the manifold qualities of emotions in ritual practices Focusing explicitly on the relationship between emotions and rituals it poses two central questions First how and to what extent do emotions shape rituals Second in what way are emotions ritualized in and beyond rituals Strong emotions are generally considered to be more spontaneous and uncontrolled whereas ritual behaviour is regarded as planned formalized and stereotyped and hence less emotional However as the volume demonstrates rituals often reveal strong emotions among participants are motivated by feelings or are intended to generate them The essays discuss the motivation for rituals the healing function of emotions the creation of new emotions through new media the aspect of mimesis in the generation of feelings individual collective and non human emotions the importance of trance and possession staged emotions and emotions on stage emotions in the context of martyrdom emotions in Indian and Western dance traditions emotions of love sorrow fear aggression and devotion Furthermore aesthetic and sensory dimensions as well as emic concepts of emotions in rituals are underscored as relevant in understanding social practice
