Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda, Jennie Germann Molz, 2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism. Attuning to affect and emotion, this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places. Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words. For this reason, as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume, studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis. From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes, self-love and travelling mittens, and across socio-spatial theories of emotions, decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics, this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism. Along with the contributors to this volume, the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated, shaping tourism encounters in and with places. That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies.

Emotions in Midwifery and Reproduction Billie Hunter, Ruth Deery, 2008-10-28. With contributions from a range of leading international authors, this stop and make you think book explores the many contemporary issues surrounding emotion work in reproductive healthcare. The editors, forerunners in their field, have brought together both theoretical and clinical aspects to challenge readers to consider the significance of this important topic in their day-to-day work. Using examples of maternity care and infertility settings from the UK and beyond, and with an emphasis on personal reflection throughout, the book explores the subjects of Emotional well-being, Client/practitioner relationships, Infertility, Loss, Breast feeding, Motherhood, Emotions in Midwifery and Reproduction, underlining the importance of emotions and how they are managed, experienced and negotiated in clinical settings, addressing issues that are frequently overlooked in the drive for efficiency and effectiveness in the health service. It is stimulating reading for all midwifery and nursing students and practitioners looking to understand their patients and their own emotional needs.

Engaging with Emotion Cynthia Whissell, 2023-01-01. This work informs by encouraging the reader to interact with the text itself and with the literature in the area. It is a learning tool rather than an encyclopaedic presentation of its topic. The writing style is personal, direct and accessible. Citations are employed but always for specific purposes. Cited materials are made accessible whenever possible by the provision of URLs. Readers learn about emotion and its relationship to brain/body, cognition, memory and appraisal. They are also introduced to the role of emotion in language and in the fine arts. Readers of Engaging with Emotion will likely be students within the first two years of university or college taking a related course or those who are interested in learning more about emotion. This book is ideal for adaptation to an online course format as it includes exercises and learning guides. The book uses straightforward and helpful language and examples to avoid frustrating or confusing students but instead to keep them actively involved with the material in the book and to help motivated learners learn.

Individual, Relational, and Contextual Dynamics of Emotions Laura

Petitta, Charmine E. J. Härtel, Neal M. Ashkanasy, Wilfred Zerbe, 2018-09-24 This volume contributes to the ongoing study of the forces that shape the functioning of individual interpersonal workplace relationships and it demonstrates the complex interplay between emotion cognitive processes brain functioning and contextual factors at multiple levels of workplace life

Methods of Exploring Emotions Helena Flam, Jochen Kleres, 2015-03-24 Gathering scholars from different disciplines this book is the first on how to study emotions using sociological historical linguistic anthropological psychological cultural and mixed approaches Bringing together the emerging lines of inquiry it lays foundations for an overdue methodological debate The volume offers entrancing short essays richly illustrated with examples and anecdotes that provide basic knowledge about how to pursue emotions in texts interviews observations spoken language visuals historical documents and surveys The contributors are respectful of those being researched and are mindful of the effects of their own feelings on the conclusions The book thus touches upon the ethics of research in vivid first person accounts Methods are notoriously difficult to teach this collection fills the gap between dry methods books and students need to know more about the actual research practice
