Empathy In The Treatment Of Trauma And Ptsd:

Empathy in the Treatment of Trauma and PTSD John P. Wilson, Ph.D., Rhiannon Brywnn Thomas, Ph.D., 2004-11-23

Empathy in the Treatment of Trauma and PTSD examines how professionals are psychologically impacted by their work with trauma clients. A national research study provides empirical evidence documenting the struggle for professionals to maintain therapeutic equilibrium and empathic attunement with their trauma clients. Among the many important findings of this study, all participants reported being emotionally and psychologically affected by the work, often quite profoundly, leading to changes in worldview, beliefs about the nature of humankind, and the meaning of life. John P. Wilson and Rhiannon Thomas set out to understand how to heal those who experience empathic strain in the course of their professional specialization. The data included in the book allows for the development of conceptual dynamic models of effective management of empathic strain, which may cause vicarious traumatization, burnout, and serious countertransference processes.

Empathy in the Treatment of Trauma and PTSD Wilson, John Preston Wilson, 2004

Cross-Cultural Assessment of Psychological Trauma and PTSD John P. Wilson, Catherine C. So-Kum Tang, 2007-07-17 This work is a vital set of insights and guidelines that will contribute to more aware and meaningful practice for mental health professionals. Focusing equally on theoretical concepts, culturally valid assessment methods, and cultural adaptation in trauma and resilience, an array of experts present the cutting edge of research and strategies. Trauma, Culture, and Metaphor John P. Wilson, Jacob D. Lindy, 2013-08-15 In Trauma, Culture, and Metaphor, John Wilson and Jacob Lindy explore the language of both individual and collective trauma in an era dominated by globalization and interconnectedness. Through lucid, careful discussion, this important book builds a bridge between the etymology of trauma-related terms commonly used in Western cultures and those of other cultures, such as the Burundi/Rwandan ihahamuka. It also provides the clinician with a framework for working with trauma survivors using a cross-cultural vocabulary, one often based in metaphor, to fully address the experienced trauma and to begin work on reconnection and self-reinvention.

Trauma and Countertrauma, Resilience and Counterresilience Richard B. Gartner, 2016-11-18 Treating traumatized patients takes its toll on the treating clinician, giving rise over time to what Richard B. Gartner terms countertrauma in the psychoanalyst or therapist. Paradoxically, a clinician may also be imbued with a sense of optimism or counterresilience after learning how often the human spirit can triumph over heartbreakingly tragic experiences. Trauma and Countertrauma: Resilience and Counterresilience brings together a distinguished group of seasoned clinicians, both trauma specialists and psychoanalysts. Their personal reflections show what clinicians all too rarely dare to reveal: their personal traumatic material. They then discuss how they develop models for acknowledging, articulating, and synthesizing the countertrauma that arises from long-term exposure to patients' often harrowing trauma. Writing openly using viscerally affecting language, the contributors to this exceptional collection share subjective and sometimes intimate material shedding light on the inner lives of people who work to heal the wounds of psychic trauma By the same token many of these clinicians describe how working intimately with traumatized individuals can affect the listener positively recounting how patients resilience evokes counterresilience in the therapist allowing the clinician to benefit from ongoing contact with patients who deal bravely with horrific adversity Paradoxically a clinician may be imbued with a sense of optimism after learning how often the human spirit can triumph over heartbreakingly tragic experiences Trauma and Countertrauma Resilience and Counterresilience will appeal to psychoanalysts psychoanalytic psychotherapists and trauma experts offering a valuable resource to those beginning their careers in mental health work to teachers and supervisors of trauma therapists to experienced clinicians struggling with burnout and to anyone who wants to understand the psychotherapeutic process or indeed the human condition Essential Papers on Post Traumatic Stress Disorder Mardi Jon Horowitz,1999 A collection of the most important writings on understanding and treating PTSD Essential Papers on Post Traumatic Stress Disorder collects the most important writings on the comprehension and treatment of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder Editor Mardi J Horowitz provides a concise and illuminating introductory essay on the evolution of our understanding of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and establishes the conceptual framework and terminology necessary to understand the disorder The collected essays which follow provide a rich and comprehensive take on the complexity of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder illuminating such issues as the variety of individual and cultural responses the roles of pre and post traumatic causative forces and the fluctuating complexities of diagnostic categories Divided into sections addressing the broad topics of diagnosis etiology and treatment Essential Papers on Post Traumatic Stress Disorder combines classic essays with more challenging and controversial approaches Contributors include Sigmund Freud Erich Lindemann Leo Eitinger Carol C Nadelson Malkah T Notman Hannah Zackson Janet Gornick Bonnie L Green Mary C Grace Jacob D Lindy James L Titchener Joanne G Lindy Lenore C Terr Rosemarie Galante Dario Foa Edna B Foa Barbara Olasov Rothbaum David S Riggs Tamara B Murdock James H Shore Ellie L Tatum William M Vollmer Roger K Pittman Scott P Orr Dennis F Forgue Bruce Altman Jacob B de Jong Lawrence R Herz Judith Lewis Herman Rachel Yehuda Alexander McFarlane Frank W Putnam Robert Jay Lifton Eric Olson Nancy Wilner Nancy Kaltrider William Alvarez Michael R Trimble Epstein Terence M Keane Rose T Zinering Juesta M Caddell John H Krystal Thomas R Kosten Steven Southwick John W Mason Bruce D Perry Earl L Giller David Spiegel Thurman Hunt Harvey E Dondershire Bessel A van der Kolk Peter J Lang Robert S Pynoos Spencer Eth Matthew J Friedman Francine Shapiro John P Wilson Jacob D Lindy I Lisa McCann and Laurie Anne Pearlman The Posttraumatic Self John P.
