Leadership in Empowered Schools Paula M. Short, John T. Greer, 1997 Appropriate for courses in Introduction to Educational Administration Principalship Educational Leadership and Supervision This scholarly new text by well known researchers explores leadership as it relates to today's trends toward school restructuring and the creation of environments that are empowering for both teachers and their students Uniquely based on two studies of leadership in schools the book presents a historical view of restructuring as a context for understanding the findings of actual in school research conducted in twenty six schools over a six year period

Empowering Ourselves and Transforming Schools Judith W. Irwin, 1996-09-12 In this readable and ground breaking text Irwin examines the forces that keep educators and students from feeling fully empowered She defines empowerment as gaining the power to self actualize and to facilitate this for others Grounding her arguments in feminist and critical examinations of domination Irwin begins by defining empowerment as fundamentally opposed to domination She then examines the implications of this definition for our educational system This book encourages the reader to consider new directions for educational reform and synthesizes current innovations under the umbrella philosophy of empowerment suggesting how the change from the patriarchal paradigm to one based on cooperation and connection might revolutionize the organization of schools and their classrooms The reader is challenged to develop his or her own philosophy and agenda for change through a series of reflective activities A comparative case study of five empowered teachers is included to demonstrate that empowerment is an individual as well as a collective process

Racialized Schools Jesse A. Brinson, Shannon D. Smith, 2014-01-03 While racism continues to be a persistent and pervasive issue in our schools nationwide the professionals charged with creating safe and nurturing educational environments have few resources available to address racism directly Racialized Schools is on the leading edge of books that do just that and includes the latest research and praxis to help school personnel confront racism in a professional manner A national qualitative survey of students school counselors teachers and administrators sets the stage by providing readers with a 360 degree picture of today s schools and the many ways racism creeps into the lives of our students The authors present a number of different models and perspectives on understanding and addressing racism beginning with their own personal and professional experiences Significant attention is also given to empowering school personnel and students to become racially aware sensitive and competent to address racism and racial conflicts in schools Racialized Schools is not only a comprehensive look at racism within our schools it is also a practical tool for use by teachers school counselors administrators etc for implementing preventative measures to combat racism directly
