Empty Lap One Couples Journey To Parenthood:

An Empty Lap Jill Smolowe, 1997-11-01 An Empty Lap Jill Smolowe, 2013-12-10 Joe and I had been forthright about children I was pretty sure I wanted them Joe was pretty sure he didn't Since we each perceived in the other some room for movement the difference didn't worry us Then priorities shifted needs changed In her late thirties journalist Jill Smolowe's life and career at Time magazine was on track Her husband Joe was still her most trusted confidante and best friend And now that she and Joe had decided finally to have a child Jill assumed the pregnancy that had come so easily to all the women in her family would be her own next chapter But nature had a different script in mind As her quest for a child swerved from the roller coaster of infertility procedures toward the baffling maze of adoption options Jill's desperation deepened while Joe's resistance to children only hardened In the fog of depression disappointments and dead ends their marriage began to founder Then halfway around the world in Yangzhou China she encountered a future she'd never imagined might be hers Honest and intimate An Empty Lap is as much a window on a marriage as on a high stakes baby chase Compelling beautifully told and as insightful as a novel it's filled with emotions that anyone who has yearned for a child will recognize The Globalization of Motherhood Wendy Chavkin, Jane Maree Maher, 2010-09-13 Brings together research from the Global North and the Global South to illuminate how contemporary motherhood is changed by the processes of globalization A Love Like No Other Pamela Kruger, Jill Smolowe, 2006-09-26 Drawn from personal experience these stories offer vivid and beautifully rendered snapshots of the adoptive parenting experience Featuring Marcelle Clements Laura Shaine Cunningham Christina Frank Jesse Green Melissa Fay Greene Doug Hood Pamela Kruger Jenifer Levin Antoinette Martin Jacquelyn Mitchard Adam Pertman Emily Prager Amy Rackear Bonnie Miller Rubin Dan Savage Bob Shacocchis Jill Smolowe Sheila Steinbeck Joe Treen and Jana Wolf Resiliency and Success Encarnacion Garza, Enrique T. Trueba, Pedro Reyes, 2015-12-03 This book elucidates the amazing life journeys of academically successful migrant students Offering vivid case studies of successful students this book helps teachers education students and researchers understand the factors that lead to success by minority language children The authors develop the lessons of student success stories into recommendations for schools and for educational policy Readers gain from this book the stories of real students the challenges they faced and the means by which students and schools may overcome language and cultural barriers to educational success The Waiting Child Cindy Champnella, 2013-07-16 The inspiring true story of a four year old Chinese orphan who convinces her adoptive American family to return to China to rescue the little boy she couldn't forget Adopted by an American family at age four Jaclyn traveled to her new home with a great burden Her new family had to leave behind a little boy who had been under her charge at the Chinese orphanage where Jaclyn fought the odds against abandonment institutionalization and hunger not for herself but on behalf of this even smaller child whom she regarded as her responsibility Jaclyn's saga spans oceans and cultures The Waiting Child is an extraordinary story of human resilience in the face of profound loss and suffering and a testament to the ability of a loving heart to prevail over great adversity Jaclyn's unshakable determination to bring to her new life the child she had cared for in the institution the one she believed with all her heart was her baby will change all assumptions made about the human spirit In the end this moving story affirms everything that is good and hopeful in life when after a two year effort the little boy is brought to this country as the adopted son of Jaclyn's American aunt and uncle Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1997 Adopting after Infertility Rachel Balen, Marilyn Crawshaw, 2011-01-15 Adopting after Infertility is an informative interdisciplinary book that addresses the issues that professionals and adopters themselves face when going through the adoption process and the impact of infertility on their experiences The book includes chapters on the effects of infertility why people choose adoption and the assessment process The Adoption Decision Laura Christianson, 2007 In North America more and more families are adding members through adoption And there are more ways to adopt and kinds of adoption than ever This quick start resource will help prospective parents consider key emotional and spiritual issues up front before they plunge into the near overwhelming mass of details and start to run into roadblocks even dead ends Laura Christianson an adoption educator and mentor and an adoptive mom herself brings her experience and knowledge to address unspoken but crucial questions about loving an adopted child extended family's reaction expenses openness in adoption the role of birth parents physical disabilities emotional behavioral challenges racial and cultural prejudices Recounting real life miracles and mishaps of adoptive families the author will help prospective parents and their friends and family members think through adoption's challenges and joys and confidently move forward from a firm emotional and spiritual footing Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore, Tracey A. Laszloffy, 2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies Four Funerals and a Wedding Jill Smolowe, 2005-07-30 When journalist Jill Smolowe buried her husband sister mother and mother in law in the space of seventeen months she assumed that it was only a matter of time before she fell apart That's what all the movies and memoirs say will happen after all But when she never lost it and when friends began to insist that her strength was amazing and unusual she began to think there might be something freakish about her way of grieving so she did what any self respecting journalist would she researched it In Four Funerals and a Wedding Smolowe jostles preconceptions about caregiving defies clichés about losing loved ones and reveals a stunning bottom line far from being uncommon resilience like hers is the norm among the recently bereaved With humor and quiet wisdom and with a lens firmly trained on what helped her tolerate so much sorrow and rebound from so much loss in her own life she offers answers to questions we all confront in the face of loss and ultimately reminds us all that grief is not only about endings it s about new beginnings
