culture Americanized Spanish Culture Christopher J. Castañeda, Miquel Bota, 2022-06-16 Americanized Spanish Culture explores the intricate transcultural dialogue between Spain and the United States since the late 19th century. The term Americanized reflects the influence of American cultural traits, ideas, and tendencies on individuals, institutions, and creative works that have moved back and forth between Spain and the United States. Although it is often defined narrowly as the result of a process of cultural imperialism, colonization, assimilation, and erasure, this book uses the term more expansively to explore representations of the transcultural mixing of Spanish and American culture in which the American influence might seem dominant but may also be the one that is shaped. The chapters in this volume highlight the lives of fascinating individuals, ideologies, and artistry that represent important themes in this transnational relationship of dislocated empires. The contributors represent a wide array of perspectives and life experiences, giving breadth, depth, and realism to their observations and analysis. Organized in two parts of five chapters each, this volume offers a unique perspective on the intermixing and intermingling of Spanish and American social, cultural, and literary traits and characteristics. This book will be of interest to students of United States and Spanish history, Iberian and Hispanic American studies, and cultural studies.

Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1975 The Continuum Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Bernice E. Cullinan, Diane Goetz Person, 2005-01-01 Provides articles covering children's literature from around the world as well as biographical and critical reviews of authors including Avi, C. S. Lewis, J. K. Rowling, and Anno Mitsumasa Postcolonialism and Migration in French Comics Mark McKinney, 2021-01-14 Profound analysis of French comics through a postcolonial lens. Postcolonialism and migration are major themes in contemporary French comics and have roots in the Algerian War (1954-62), antiracist struggle, and mass migration to France. This volume studies comics from the end of the formal dismantling of French colonial empire in 1962 up to the present. French cartoonists of ethnic minority and immigrant heritage are a major focus, including Zeina Abirached (Lebanon), Yvan Alagbé (Benin), Baru (Italy), Enki Bilal (former Yugoslavia), Farid Boudjellal (Algeria), and Armenia Jos Jover (Spain). Larbi Mechkour (Algeria) and Roland Monpierre (Guadeloupe). The author analyzes comics representing a gamut of perspectives on immigration and postcolonial ethnic minorities, ranging from staunch defense to violent rejection. Individual chapters are dedicated to specific artists, artistic collectives, comics, or themes, including avant-gardism, undocumented migrants in comics, and racism in far-right comics War Memory and East Asian Conflicts, 1930-1945 Eveline Buchheim, Jennifer Coates, 2023-06-29 This book explores how narratives, exhibitions, media representations, and cultural heritage sites that communicate memories of conflicts in East Asia between 1930 and 1945 spread, interact, and are re-packaged for post-war audiences across national divisions. The contributors examine individual case studies of grassroots engagement with war memory and collectively demonstrate the necessity of remaining aware of the researcher as participating in another kind of engagement with war memory. Contributions showcase a number of ways of doing research on war memory alongside case studies from diverse regions of the world. Taken together, they bring a fresh perspective to scholarship on war memory which has tended to focus on space text exhibition or personal narrative rather than bringing these elements into dialogue with one another Tintin Michael Farr,2002 Explores the sources in real life of all the Tintin adventures Tintin in the Land of Fervour Alain Bernard Marchand,2003-09-15 This nostalgic essay interweaves commentaries on Herges Tintin series with reminiscences of a life that has been strongly influenced by the intrepid hero and his adventures As a child Alain Bernard Marchand was transported in his imagination to the ends of the earth with Tintin learning about the world but more importantly about himself As an adult he brought his childhood imaginings to life through his travels around the world particularly to Asia and in the process discovered the desire to create worlds of his own through his writing British Books in Print ,1985 Waterstone's Guide to Books ,1989
