Post-War British Women Novelists and the Canon Nick Turner,2010-02-11 With the increasing number of books on contemporary fiction there is a need for a work that examines whom we value and why These questions lie at the heart of this book which by focusing on four novelists literary and popular interrogates the canon over the last fifty years The argument unfolds to demonstrate that academic trends increasingly control canonicity as do the demands of genre the increasing commercialisation of literature and the power of the literary prize Turner argues that literary excellence demonstrated by style and imaginative power is often missing in many works that have become modern classics and makes a case for the value of the universal in literature Written in a jargon free style with reference to many supporting writers the book raises a number of significant cultural questions about the arts fashions and literary reputations of interest to readers in contemporary literary studies

Iris Murdoch and the Others Paul S. Fiddes, 2021-12-02 The others examined by Fiddes are mainly those with whom Murdoch entered into explicit dialogue in her novels and philosophical writing including Immanuel Kant Simone Weil Dietrich Bonhoeffer Rudolph Bultmann Paul Tillich Don Cupitt Donald Mackinnon and Jacques Derrida This historic dialogue is however placed within a wider dialogue between literature and theology being conducted by the author and others are brought into relation with Murdoch in order to illuminate this more extensive conversation notably the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins and the feminist philosopher Julia Kristeva The book demonstrates that characteristic themes in Murdoch's novels and philosophy the love of the Good the death of the ego illusory consolations the death of God the modifying of the will by waiting the sublime and the beautiful and attention to other things and persons all take on a greater meaning when placed in the context of her life long conversation with theology The exploration of this context is deepened in this volume by reference to annotations and notes that Murdoch made in a number of theological books in her personal library

Iris Murdoch and Elias Canetti Elaine Morley, 2017-12-02 Since the revelation of Iris Murdoch's 1919-1999 affair with Elias Canetti 1905-1994 scholarship on their relationship has been largely biographical focusing in particular on Canetti's alleged role as the real life model for some of Murdoch's most invidious protagonists Little research however has been done on the extensive common ground between the two writers literary projects In this groundbreaking comparative study Elaine Morley conducts a careful philological comparison of Murdoch's and Canetti's works from their literary themes and theories to their idiosyncratic stylistic practices Morley demonstrates that these authors were preoccupied with a common philosophical problem and that they were in fact not only personally close but also more intellectually allied than has been previously thought Elaine Morley is Lecturer in German and Comparative Literature at Queen Mary University of London where she convenes the MA in Anglo German Cultural Relations
