Flo Goes To Canberra:

We'll Show the World Jackie Ryan, 2018-04-26 How did one long and expensive party change a city forever World Expo 88 was the largest longest and loudest of Australia's bicentennial events A shiny 1980s amalgam of cultural precinct shopping mall theme park travelogue and rock concert Expo 88 is commonly credited as the catalyst for Brisbane's coming of age So how did an elaborate and expensive party change a city forever We'll Show the World explores the shifting social and political environment of Expo 88 shaped as much by Queensland's controversial premier Sir Joh Bjelke Petersen as it was by those who reacted against him It shows how something initially greeted with outrage scepticism and indifference came to mean so much to so many how a state better known for eliciting insults enchanted much of the nation and how to Brisbane Expo was personal

The Ayes Have It John Wanna, Tracey Arklay, 2010-07-01 The Ayes Have It is a fascinating account of the Queensland Parliament during three decades of high drama politics It examines in detail the Queensland Parliament from the days of the Labor split in the 1950s through the conservative governments of Frank Nicklin John Bjelke Petersen and Mike Ahern to the fall of the Nationals government led briefly by Russell Cooper in December 1989 The volume traces the rough and tumble of parliamentary politics in the frontier state The authors focus on parliament as a political forum on the representatives and personalities that made up the institution over this period on the priorities and political agendas that were pursued and the increasingly contentious practices used to control parliamentary proceedings Throughout the entire history are woven other controversies that repeatedly recur controversies over state economic development the provision of government services industrial disputation and government reactions electoral zoning and disputes over malapportionment the impost of taxation in the low tax state encroachments on civil liberties and political protests the perennial topic of censorship as well as the emerging issues of integrity concerns about conflicts of interest and the slide towards corruption There are fights with the federal government especially with the Whitlam government and internal fights within the governing coalition which eventually leads to its collapse in 1983 after which the Nationals manage to govern alone for two very tumultuous terms On the non government side the bitterness of the 1950s split was reflected in the early parliaments of this period and while the Australian Labor Party eventually saw off its rivalrous offshoot the QLP DLP it then began to implode through waves of internal factional discord No Job for a Woman Sallyanne Atkinson, 2016-09-28 A true trailblazer for her generation Sallyanne Atkinson was the first female Lord Mayor of Brisbane the first female senior trade commissioner to Paris and has been a leader in business and corporate life for over four decades No Job for a Woman takes us from her wartime childhood in Sri Lanka through her early career as a journalist and TV personality into her life in politics For the first time Sallyanne Atkinson offers a behind the scenes look at her dynamic and colourful life including her involvement in three Olympics bids A trailblazer for working mothers Sallyanne shares the challenges and the triumphs of raising five children while forging a high profile career With her characteristic warmth and humour she shows how she defied the expectations of a generation
