From time immemorial few narrative genres have had the power to so stir the emotions or captivate the imagination as the true account of a lone adventurer's triumph over the titanic forces of nature. Among the handful of such tales to emerge in the twentieth century, one of the most enduring surely must be Sir Francis Chichester's account of his solitary nine-month journey around the world in his 53-foot ketch Gipsy Moth IV. The story of how the sixty-five-year-old navigator singlehandedly circumnavigated the globe, the whole way battling hostile seas as well as his boat's numerous design flaws, is a tale of superhuman tenacity and endurance to be read and reread by sailors and armchair adventurers alike. First published in 1967, just months after the completion of Chichester's historic journey, Gipsy Moth Circles the World was an instant international best-seller. It inspired the first solo around the world race and remains a timeless testament to the spirit of adventure. Francis Chichester's 1967 singlehanded circumnavigation set a blazing record for speed. He completed the voyage with just one stop and 226 days at sea. It was an amazing performance that he, at sixty-five years old, made it the more so. Chichester then sat down to write one of the great narratives of modern voyaging. A remarkable feat, a moving story of conquest by the unquenchable human spirit, a determined old man's gesture of defiance at the modern world. Such was the voyage; his book is a fine account of it with nothing left out. Alan Villiers Saturday Review Francis Chichester Anita Leslie, 1975 Atlantic Adventure Francis Chichester, 2015-11-01

In June 1962, Francis Chichester set out from Plymouth once again to cross the Atlantic single-handed in his 13-ton yacht Gipsy Moth III in an attempt to beat the 40-day record he set up himself in 1960. He succeeded and knocked nearly a week off his previous time. Chichester also made history on his voyage by keeping in daily contact with Britain by means of a small battery-operated radio telephone, which enabled The Guardian, the sponsors of the voyage, to publish daily extracts from his log. Edited by The Guardian's Yachting Editor J. R. L. Anderson, this book, Chichester's own day-by-day narrative of that adventurous journey threatened by gales, icebergs, and fog, is the drama of one man fighting his way alone across the North Atlantic. It is one of the great stories of the sea, a magnificent achievement. Guardian hard to put down. Times Literary Supplement good-natured, informal, and totally unpretentious book. Observer Alone Over the Tasman Sea Francis Chichester, 2016-07-14

I had no money, could get no floats, my navigation was uncertain, plane inadequate. A true story filled with danger, adventure, and achievement. Alone Over the Tasman Sea is Sir Francis Chichester's telling of his 1931 seaplane solo flight over the Tasman Sea from New Zealand to Australia, the first of its kind. Told with dry wit and humour, Chichester recounts his perilous journey across uncharted sea and between remote islands and how he overcame the many obstacles along the way During an era when flight was still in its dangerous infancy Chichester's pure reliance on his friends Instinct and Reason make this a fascinating tale of risk taking perseverance and courage
