Francis Bacon And The Making Of An Immortal:

Francis Bacon and the Making of an Immortal Alfred Dodd, 2005-12-01 Selected Plays of George Moore and Edward Martyn George Moore, 1995 Best known as a novelist and man of letters George Moore 1852 1933 is the author of such works as Esther Waters A Drama in Muslin The Untilled Field The Brook Kerith and his masterpiece Hail and Farewell Edward Martyn 1859 1923 was a distant cousin of Moore's and for a time the two were close friends Martyn a man of considerable wealth devoted his energies to a wide variety of activities particularly the Church and political activism His interest in playwriting like Moore's was of a secondary nature Nevertheless the two pooled and concentrated their talents to make important contributions at a critical juncture of the Irish literary renaissance In 1899 aiming to provide a platform for the work of serious native dramatists Martyn W B Yeats and Lady Gregory together founded the Irish Literary Theatre Martyn soon brought Moore on board to lend his experience and notoriety to the venture The great success of the Theatre's first season was Martyn's The Heather Field republished here which later enjoyed brief revivals in England Germany and the United States Top billing in the second season was to have gone to Martyn's fast paced caustic satire The Tale of the Town but Yeats thought the play crude and not at all suitable for a serious literary theater When Moore reluctantly agreed Martyn turned the play over to them to do with as they wished Moore then rewrote it as The Bending of the Bough Here the plays are published together for the first time This volume also includes Moore's The Strike at Arlingford The Passing of the Essenes and The Coming of Gabrielle This last is based on his correspondence with an Austrian countess he never met and much of the dialogue in the play is taken directly from her letters Martyn's Maeve written for the Irish Literary Theatre and An Enchanted Sea a short lyrical play first produced in 1904 are also found here The plays in this volume were selected by David B Eakin and Michael Case who have contributed a critical introduction Helpful bibliographical checklists of Moore's and Martyn's works both published and unpublished are also included Francis Bacon's Personal Life-story Alfred Dodd, 1949 personage Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1928 The Making of Neoclassical Economics (Routledge Revivals) John F. Henry, 2012-07-26 First published in 1990 this unique explanation of the rise of neoclassical economics views social change as an engine promoting change in theory It attempts to develop a theory of the origins consolidation and rise to dominance of the neoclassical school of thought In so doing it addresses the contest between the labour and utility theories of value both are placed in historical context and reasons are offered for the relative success of each in particular historical periods It is argued that the eventual dominance of neoclassicism a theory based on the social changes then taking place resulted not from its scientific superiority but from its non social perspective which ignores the social order upon which it depends

Theology and Science in the Thought of Francis Bacon Steven

Matthews,2017-11-22 This study re evaluates the religious beliefs of Francis Bacon and the role which his theology played in the development of his program for the reform of learning and the natural sciences the Great Instauration Bacon s Instauration writings are saturated with theological statements and Biblical references which inform and explain his program yet this aspect of his writings has received little attention Previous considerations of Bacon s religion have been drawn from a fairly short list of his published writings Consequently Bacon has been portrayed as everything from an atheist to a Puritan scholarly consensus is lacking This book argues that by considering the historical context of Bacon s society and his conversion from Puritanism to anti Calvinism as a young man his own theology can be brought into clearer focus and his philosophy more properly understood After leaving his mother s household Bacon underwent a transformation of belief which led him away from his mother s Calvinism and toward the writings of the ancient Church Fathers particularly Irenaeus of Lyon Bacon s theology increasingly came to reflect the theological interests of his friend and editor Lancelot Andrewes The patristic turn of Bacon s belief in the last two decades of the reign of Elizabeth significantly affected the development of his philosophical program which was produced in the first two decades of the Stuart era This study then examines the theology present in the Instauration writings themselves and concludes with a consideration of the effect which Bacon s theology had on the subsequent direction of empirical science and natural theology in the English context In so doing it not only offers a new perspective on Bacon but will serve as a contribution toward a better understanding of the religious context of and motivations behind empirical science in early modern England
