Francophone Studies A Glossary:

Francophone Studies Margaret A. Majumdar,2002 This glossary offers an introduction to Francophone Studies and a route map to further study Designed specifically with undergraduates in mind it contains concise and accessible explanations of the key words events figures and concepts in Francophone Studies since 1945 From Afropessimisme and Brazzaville Declaration to Setif Uprising and Wilaya it gives an interdisciplinary overview of Francophone Studies and offers directions for further reading Covering politics popular culture private life cultural institutions and significant events the entries are fully cross referenced and assume no prior knowledge making this an essential reference for students of Francophone Studies in the Humanities and Social Sciences    Routledge Handbook of Francophone Africa Tony Chafer,Margaret A. Majumdar,2023-11-02

The Routledge Handbook of Francophone Africa brings together a multidisciplinary team of international experts to reflect on the history politics societies and cultures of French speaking parts of Africa Consisting of approximately 35% of Africa's territory Francophone Africa is a shifting concept with its roots in French and Belgian colonial rule This handbook develops and problematizes the term with thematic sections covering Colonial and post colonial ties between France and sub Saharan Africa Belgium Belgian colonialism and Africa The Maghreb African Francophones in France Francophone African literature and film Francophone and Anglophone Africa Beyond national boundaries and colonial partners The chapters demonstrate the evolution of Francophone Africa into a multi dimensional construct with both a material and an imagined reality Materially it defines a regional territorial space that coexists with other conceptualisations of African space and borders Conceptually Francophone Africa constitutes a shared linguistic and cultural space within which collective memories are shared not least through their connection to the French imperial imagination Overall the Handbook demonstrates that as global power structures and relations evolve African agency is increasingly assertive in shaping French African relations Bringing this important debate together into a single volume this Handbook will be an essential resource for students and scholars interested in Francophone Africa    The African Studies Companion Hans Zell,2021-11-15

Published in dual print and electronic formats this is a new edition of a much acclaimed reference source that brings together a wide range of sources of information in the African studies field covering both print and electronic sources It evaluates the best online resources the major general reference tools in print format current bibliographies and indexing services biographical cartographic statistical and economic resources as well as film and video resources Additionally there are separate sections on African studies library collections and repositories throughout the world a directory of over 250 African studies journals listings of news sources profiles of publishers active in the African studies field dealers and distributors of African studies materials African studies societies and associations major African and international organizations donor agencies and foundations awards and prizes in African studies electronic mailing lists and discussion forums and more    Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi,2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa the Caribbean and South Asia regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken Francophone literatures tend to deal with a similar spread of issues This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a comparative project in which post colonial Francophone cultures and the specific alterity of these cultures emerge as inextricable from and essential to an understanding of modern France The volume is organized by region with an international roster of contributions and includes summaries of selected creative and critical works and a guide to selected terms and figures

French Studies, 2000    Transnational French Studies Charles Forsdick,Claire Launchbury,2023-10-01 The contributors to Transnational French Studies situate this disciplinary subfield of Modern Languages in actively transnational frameworks The key objective of the volume is to define the core set of skills and methodologies that constitute the study of French culture as a transnational transcultural and translingual phenomenon Written by leading scholars within the field chapters demonstrate the type of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities both material and non material that are integral to what is referred to as French culture The book considers the transnational dimensions of being human in the world by focussing on four key practices which constitute the object of study for students of French language and multilingualism the construction of transcultural places and the corresponding sense of space the experience of time and transnational subjectivities The underlying premise of the volume is that the transnational is present and has long been present throughout what we define as French history and culture Chapters address instances and phenomena associated with the transnational from prehistory to the present opening up the geopolitical map of French studies beyond France and including sites where communities identified as French have formed    Eastern Voyages, Western Visions Margaret Topping,2004 This collection of interdisciplinary essays explores the range of French and francophone encounters with the East from the medieval period to the present day book cover

Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly,2005-01-01 In Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly examines four accomplished Francophone North African writers Mouland Feroan Assia Djebar Albert Memmi and Abdelkeacute bir Khatibi to illuminate the complex relationship of a writer s work to cultural and national histories The legacies of colonialism and the difficulties of nationalism run throughout all four writers works yet in their striking individuality the four demonstrate the ways in which such heritages are refracted through a writer s personal history This book will be of interest to students of Francophone literature colonialism and African history and culture    Achille Mbembe Oliver Coates,2024-12-23 Achille Mbembe is a key thinker in contemporary African philosophy who has been influential in literary and cultural theory African literature and postcolonial studies Oliver Coates introduces key concepts within Mbembe s thought in relation to African history literature and philosophy This accessible guide Considers examples from African literature in Arabic English French and Yoruba and shows the relevance of Mbembe s thought beyond Anglophone writing Explores how Mbembe s work relates to contemporary global events and charts Mbembe

s intellectual development between Cameroon France and the USA Discusses core concepts from across Mbembe's career including the positioning of Africa within Western and Afro diasporic thought the colony postcolonial necropolitics decolonization Afropolitanism technology and the environment Reveals Mbembe's engagement with key global events including the RhodesMustFall and BlackLivesMatter movements and the call for the restitution of African objects in Western museums Offering a clear and accessible route into what can be a complex area this book shows the significance of Mbembe's thought across literature history postcolonial studies gender studies and critical theory

The End of the French Exception?

T. Chafer,E. Godin,2010-06-01 Analyzes the notion of the French exception and the ways in which it has informed both academic analysis and political commentary on France today Adopting a comparative and interdisciplinary approach it examines the resilience of the notion of French exceptionalism and evaluates its relevance in a changing domestic and global context

Postcoloniality

Margaret A. Majumdar,2007 Postcolonial theory is one of the key issues of scholarly debates worldwide debates so the author argues which are rather sterile and characterized by a repetitive reworking of old hackneyed issues focussing on cultural questions of language and identity in particular She explores the divergent responses to the debates on globalization

Women's writing in contemporary France

Gill Rye,Michael Worton,2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women's writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writers coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Regine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leila Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up to date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts The editors incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature

The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel

Michael Sollars,Arbolina Llamas Jennings,2008

Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature

Leslie Barnes,2014-12-01 Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature explores an aspect of modern French literature that has been consistently overlooked in literary histories the relationship between the colonies their cultures languages and people and formal shifts in French literary production Starting from the premise that neither cultural identity nor cultural production can be pure or homogenous Leslie Barnes initiates a new discourse on the French literary canon by examining the work of three iconic French writers with personal connections to Vietnam Andr Malraux Marguerite Duras and Linda L In a thorough investigation of the authors linguistic metaphysical and textual experiences of colonialism Barnes articulates a new way of reading French literature not as an inward looking homogenous monolingual tradition but rather as a tradition of intersecting and interdependent peoples cultures and experiences One of the few books to focus on Vietnam s position within francophone literary scholarship Barnes challenges traditional concepts of French cultural identity and offers a new perspective on canonicity and the division between French and francophone literature

Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Anna H. Perrault Ph.D.,Elizabeth S. Aversa,Sonia Ramírez Wohlmuth,Cynthia J. Miller,Cynthia F. Algeria in Transition Ahmed Aghrout,Redha. M Bougherira,2004-08-02 This book by providing an up to date systematic analytical account on transformations in Algeria makes a valuable contribution to the literature on this country that has not yet received much attention in the Anglo American academy Its distinctive feature is that it entirely focuses on Algeria thus departing from existing studies dealing with the entire geographical area of North Africa or the Maghreb

An Annotated Bibliography and Guide to Alexis Studies (la Vie de Saint Alexis) Christopher Storey,1987

What Women Lose María Cristina Rodríguez,2005 This book examines novels by women from the anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean that focus on marginalized female characters who migrate to metropolitan centers The novels studied require cultural historical sociological anthropological and geographic readings to fully explore the complexity of the characters as they confront the varied and changing challenges hardships and pleasures of the diaspora The critical approach focuses on the characters attempts to hold on to acceptable realities by assuming the appropriate interpersonal social and cultural masks that allow them to find a sense of significance in their interior domestic and community lives

Diversity and Decolonization in French Studies Siham Bouamer,Loïc Bourdeau,2022-04-04 This edited volume presents new and original approaches to teaching the French foreign language curriculum reconceptualizing the French classroom through a more inclusive lens The volume engages with a broad range of scholars to facilitate an understanding of the process of French de colonization as well as its reverberations into the postcolonial era and a deeper engagement with the global interconnectedness of these processes Chapters in Part I revisit the concept of the francophonie to center the field from metropolitan or hexagonal and white France and underline how current teaching materials reproduce epistemic and colonial violence Part II adopts an intersectional approach to address topics of gender inclusivity trans affirming teaching queer materials and ableism Finally Part III presents new ways to transform the discipline by affirming our commitment to social justice and making sure that our classrooms are representative of our students enriching diversity

Yale French Studies, Number 134 Jessica Devos, Bruce Hayes, 2018-01-01 This new volume of Yale French Studies both honors and adds to Edwin M Duval's scholarship on the history and development of French Renaissance literature Edwin Ned M Duval's scholarship focuses on teasing out hidden structures and symmetries in the poetry and prose of the French Renaissance a period when literature underwent radical changes In honor of Duval's literary sleuthing the contributors in this issue explore the symmetries as well as the dissymmetries the fragility ambiguities and contradictions of French Renaissance literary production This volume addresses evolving literary practices innovations in genre and intellectual developments in sixteenth century France
