Frank Applegate Of Santa Fe Artist And Preservationist:

Frank Applegate of Santa Fe Daria Labinsky, Stan Hieronymus, 2001 A Contested Art Stephanie Lewthwaite, 2015-10

When New Mexico became an alternative cultural frontier for avant garde Anglo American writers and artists in the early twentieth century the region was still largely populated by Spanish speaking Hispanos Anglos who came in search of new personal and aesthetic freedoms found inspiration for their modernist ventures in Hispano art forms Yet when these arrivistes elevated a particular model of Spanish colonial art through their preservationist endeavors and the marketplace practicing Hispano artists found themselves working under a new set of patronage relationships and under new aesthetic expectations that tied their art to a static vision of the Spanish colonial past In A Contested Art historian Stephanie Lewthwaite examines the complex Hispano response to these aesthetic dictates and suggests that cultural encounters and appropriation produced not only conflict and loss but also new transformations in Hispano art as the artists experimented with colonial art forms and modernist trends in painting photography and sculpture Drawing on native and non native sources of inspiration they generated alternative lines of modernist innovation and mestizo creativity These lines expressed Hispanos cultural and ethnic affiliations with local Native peoples and with Mexico and presented a vision of New Mexico as a place shaped by the fissures of modernity and the dynamics of cultural conflict and exchange A richly illustrated work of cultural history this first book length treatment explores the important yet neglected role Hispano artists played in shaping the world of modernism in twentieth century New Mexico A Contested Art places Hispano artists at the center of narratives about modernism while bringing Hispano art into dialogue with the cultural experiences of Mexicans Chicanas/os and Native Americans In doing so it rewrites a chapter in the history of both modernism and Hispano art Published in cooperation with The William P Clements Center for Southwest Studies Southern Methodist University Mary Austin and the American West Susan Goodman, Carl Dawson, 2009-01-07 Mary Austin 1868-1934 eccentric independent and unstoppable was twenty years old when her mother moved the family west Austin's first look at her new home glimpsed from California's Tejon Pass reset the course of her life changed her horizons and marked the beginning of her understanding not only about who she was but where she needed to be At a time when Frederick Jackson Turner had announced the closing of the frontier Mary Austin became the voice of the American West In 1903 she published her first book The Land of Little Rain a wholly original look at the West's desert and its ethnically diverse peoples Defined in a sense by the places she lived Austin also defined the places themselves whether Bishop in the Sierra Nevada Carmel with its itinerant community of western writers or Santa Fe where she lived the last ten years of her life By the time of her death in 1934 Austin had published over thirty books and counted as friends the leading literary and artistic lights of her day In this rich new biography Susan Goodman and Carl Dawson explore Austin's life and achievement with unprecedented resonance depth and understanding By focusing on one extraordinary woman's life Mary Austin and the American West tells the larger story of the emerging importance of California and the
