Remington, 1993-08-10      Federal Probation ,1994      Legal Realism to Law in Action William Clune,2021-12-16 This is a book of papers and interviews about innovative law school courses developed by faculty of the Wisconsin Law School from 1950 to 1970 that forged a path from legal realism to law and social science These courses took a law in action approach to the study of law which became a signature feature of the school s tradition from that time to the present day The Legal Realists of the 1920s and 30s taught that the law that mattered was the law in action as applied by ordinary officials and experienced by ordinary people But they mostly failed to get their program adopted as part of professional education alongside the study of appellate cases Only at Wisconsin thanks to a cluster of great scholar teachers in Willard Hurst Frank Remington Herman Goldstein Stewart Macaulay Bill Whitford and their collaborators has the Realist vision been fully and splendidly realized in law teaching This is the story of that thrilling experiment Robert W Gordon Professor of Law Emeritus Stanford University Chancellor Kent Professor Emeritus of Law and Legal History Yale Law School This book is a must read for anyone interested in the history of the law and society movement and the unique role that the University of Wisconsin Law School has played in that tradition In a series of essays by and interviews of current and former Wisconsin law teachers the creativity of Wisconsin s challenge to the traditional legal academy comes alive Lauren Edelman Agnes Roddy Robb Professor of Law and Professor of Sociology University of California Berkeley In a time when an increasing number of law schools characterize themselves as bastions of law in action this volume provides a bracing reminder of a more precise vision That vision was rooted in the legal realist tradition during an earlier golden age of sociolegal thought at the University of Wisconsin Law School In this important book we hear vivid accounts of the innovative law teaching during that time which took realist discoveries seriously in Contracts Legal Process Legal History and Criminal Law Elizabeth Mertz Research Professor American Bar Foundation John and Rylla Bosshard Professor Emerita UW Madison Law School      The AALS Directory of Law Teachers ,2003      Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the District of Columbia United States.
