Frank Lloyd Wright And Folk Architecture:

Frank Lloyd Wright and folk architecture Susan E. Wydick, 1987 Frank Lloyd Wright, Architect Frank Lloyd Wright, Terence Riley, Anthony Alofsin, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, 1994 From the turn of the century until his death in 1959 Frank Lloyd Wright produced projects that defined and redefined the American architectural vision This book accompanying a major exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art New York is the most comprehensive appraisal of his achievements ever assembled 466 illustrations 190 in full color Truth Against the World Frank Lloyd Wright, 1987 This is a unique and comprehensive collection of the significant speeches of Frank Lloyd Wright The speeches presented spanning nearly six decades touch on Wright's ideas on organic architecture the machine improving the human condition honor education democracy city planning and his Broadacre City in particular and government Profusely illustrated with over 300 photographs and drawings most of which have never been published A companion volume to the author's collection of conversations and interviews with Wright The Master Architect The Architecture of Historic Hungary Pál Lővei, 1998 The first comprehensive survey in English of Hungarian architecture from prehistoric settlements to contemporary experiments Perhaps most revealing to Western readers are the illustrations and line drawings which document one of the most neglected but fascinating architectural traditions of Europe 305 illustrations 12 in color Frank Lloyd Wright--the Lost Years, 1910-1922 Anthony Alofsin, 1993 New definition to the little known work Wright produced during this period which he describes as Wright's primitivist phase He traces this influence in his art through Wright's explorations of primitivist sources innovations in sculpture and an intensification of the architect's use of ornament Less tangible but as important was Wright's view of himself his art and society and Alofsin uncovers the European impact on the architect's image of himself as a Pfeiffer Country Sherry Laymon, 2009 Paul Pfeiffer left his comfortable life in Saint Louis Missouri He left his prosperous business along the mighty Mississippi the information super highway of his day Fancy restaurants would no longer be a part of his life He would no longer entertain the elite of a great metropolis He left all of that behind when he moved to the bottomlands of Eastern Arkansas in 1902 If he did so to make a difference in the lives of thousands of poor farmers then he made the mark he intended Pfeiffer came to own much of Clay County Arkansas He joined a much disliked strata of American society landowners whose sharecroppers were often helpless to improve their lot or that of their children But Paul Pfeiffer did make a difference in the lives of those who paid him in kind to work his land He eschewed the usual cycle of poverty for his workers eventually giving them the land they worked He was a soul who lived and fashioned the lives of others several generations ahead of his time Back cover Architecture in Nineteenth-Century Photographs Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Revealing that nineteenth century photography goes beyond the functional to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time this study proposes that each photographic image of architecture be studied both as a primary visual document and an object of aesthetic inquiry This multi faceted approach drives Architecture in Nineteenth Century Photographs Essays on Reading a Collection Despite three decades of post colonial post structuralist and gender conscious criticism the study of architectural photography continues to privilege technical virtuosity This volume offers a thematic exploration of the material and a socio historical examination that allows consideration of questions that have not been addressed comprehensively before in a single publication Themes include exoticism and armchair tourism the absence of women from architectural photography the role of photographs as commodities vernacular architecture and the picturesque and historic preservation urban renewal and nationalism Micheline Nilsen analyzes photographs from France and England the two countries where photography was invented and from around the world representing a corpus of over 10 000 photographs from the Janos Scholz Collection of Nineteenth Century Photographs of the Snite Museum of Art at the University of Notre Dame The Art Teacher's Book of Lists, Grades K-12 Helen D. Hume,2010-11-30 A revised and updated edition of the best selling resource for art teachers This time tested book is written for teachers who need accurate and updated information about the world of art artists and art movements including the arts of Africa Asia Native America and other diverse cultures The book is filled with tools resources and ideas for creating art in multiple media Written by an experienced artist and art instructor the book is filled with vital facts data readings and other references Each of the book s lists has been updated and the includes some 100 new lists Contains new information on contemporary artists artwork art movements museum holdings art websites and more Offers ideas for dynamic art projects and lessons Diverse in its content the book covers topics such as architecture drawing painting graphic arts photography digital arts and much more Frank Lloyd Wright Kuan-Chu Wei,1996 "Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940 " Alla Myzelev,2017-07-05 Toronto the largest and one of the most multicultural cities in Canada boasts an equally interesting and diverse architectural heritage Architecture Design and Craft in Toronto 1900 1940 tells a story of the significant changes in domestic life in the first 40 years of the twentieth century Adopting a multidisciplinary approach to studies of residential spaces the author examines how questions of modernity and modern living influenced not only architectural designs but also interior furnishings modes of transportation and ways to spend leisure time The book discusses several case studies some of which are known both locally and internationally for example Casa Loma while others such as Guild of All Arts or Sherwood have been virtually unstudied by historians of visual culture The overall goal of the book is to put Toronto on the map of scholars of urban design and architecture and to uncover previously unknown histories of design craft and domesticity in Toronto This study will be of interest not only to the academic community namely architects designers craftspeople and scholars of these disciplines along with social historians but also the general public interested in local history and or visual culture Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclope dia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries Vernacular Architecture and Regional Design Kingston Wm Heath, 2009 Defines a set of strategies for understanding the complexities of a regional setting and through a series of international case studies examines how architects and designers have applied a variety of tactics to achieve culturally and environmentally appropriate design solutions The Visual Dictionary of American Domestic Architecture Rachel Carley, 1997-03-15 Visual presentation of the many types of houses built in America from the earliest Indian dwellings to designs for futuristic homes Creating Old World Wisconsin John D. Krugler, 2013-07-19 Visionaries researchers curators and volunteers launched a massive preservation initiative to salvage fast disappearing immigrant and migrant architecture Dozens of historic buildings in the 1970s were transported from various locations throughout the state to the Kettle Moraine State Forest These buildings created a backdrop against which twenty first century interpreters demonstrate nineteenth and early twentieth century agricultural techniques and artisanal craftsmanship Back cover New Architecture and Technology Gyula Sebestyen, Christopher Pollington, 2007-06-07 Many books have covered the topics of architecture materials and technology New Architecture and Technology is the first to explore the interrelation between these three subjects It illustrates the impact of modern technology and materials on architecture The book explores the technical progress of building showing how developments both past and present are influenced by design methods It provides a survey of contemporary architecture as affected by construction technology It also explores aspects of building technology within the context of general industrial social and economic developments The reader will acquire a vocabulary covering the entire range of structure types and learn a new approach to understanding the development of design

Encyclopedia of American Folk Art Gerard C. Wertkin, 2004-08-02 For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of American Folk Art web site This is the first comprehensive scholarly study of a most fascinating aspect of American history and culture Generously illustrated with both black and white and full color photos this A Z encyclopedia covers every aspect of American folk art encompassing not only painting but also sculpture basketry ceramics quilts furniture toys beadwork and more including both famous and lesser known genres Containing more than 600 articles this unique reference considers individual artists schools artistic ethnic and religious traditions and heroes who have inspired folk art An incomparable resource for general readers students and specialists it will become essential for anyone researching American art culture and social history Innovations in Hospital Architecture Stephen Verderber, 2010-03-31 Captures key developments in the field of sustainable hospital architecture Taking Shape: A New Contract Between Architecture and Nature Susannah Hagan, 2007-08-22 Taking Shape explores the evolution of scientific and academic theories that have resulted in the concept of sustainability Susannah Hagan uses this as a basis to argue for developments in the future and argues that these theories are not just an intellectual and aesthetic regression as they are often perceived to be By focusing on the impact of the new theories of sustainable technology and new materials in architecture Hagan moves the discourse and practice of environmental sustainability within architecture towards a greater degree of awareness of both its cultural significance and cultural potential In short it demonstrates the capacity of sustainable architecture to embrace cultural and technical innovation
