The Boys of

Shakespeare's School in the Second World War Richard Pearson,2013-06-19 The story of the King Edward VI grammar school in Stratford upon Avon and its sacrifice in the Second World War a heavy price for just one school War History Online Like the Great War generation before them the Old Boys of King Edward VI School Stratford upon Avon known as Shakespeare s School answered the Nations call to arms in 1939 Over the next six years no less than fifty two of these young men fought and died for their Country This evocative and carefully researched book tells each one s story The author paints a picture of the character of the individual concerned along with his family background his contribution to the School and most importantly his war service and the circumstances of his death Some perished in lonely cockpits during the Battle of Britain and the Bombing campaign Others fought and died at sea whether on Atlantic convoys the Mediterranean campaign or in the Far East The soldiers among them fell in the glare of the Western Desert fighting the Germans and Italians and in the unforgiving jungles of Burma repulsing the Japanese In one case death came in a German concentration camp Who can tell what influence the strong ethos of this small grammar school with its enduring values of decency and comradeship had played during the years of hostilities on both those who made the supreme sacrifice and others who were fortunate enough to survive What is certain is that the example set by those former members of Shakespeare s School whose stories are told in this book must never be forgotten by their successors The Philosophy of Science: A-M Sahotra Sarkar,Jessica
