Frank Sobey The Man And The Empire:

Frank Sobey Harry Bruce, 1985 The Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, 1754-2004 Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History, 2004-01-01 Editors Philip Girard Jim Phillips and Barry Cahill have put together the first complete history of any Canadian provincial superior court All of the essays are original and many offer new interpretations of familiar themes in Canadian legal history The Maritimes George Peabody, Carolyn MacGregor, Richard Thorne, 1987-01-01 The Maritimes Tradition Challenge Change is a high school textbook used to teach students about the social conditions of the Maritimes Every major aspect of the region is included its natural resources and economy its changing social and political life and its unique cultural expressions Often these come alive through the experiences of the diverse array of Maritimers from all walks of life and from all parts of the region that appear in these pages The Maritimes Tradition Challenge Change is a unique picture of a region with a strong sense of tradition facing many challenges and undergoing change in every area of life

Seven Days in Halifax Robert Ashe, 2025-10-07 Halifax today lives with the results of bad decisions made decades ago A container port accessible only through narrow downtown streets A park bridge and port on the spot where Africville was demolished A mega interchange going nowhere finally torn down The thoughtless power brokers who made these decisions are long gone but Haligonians still live now with the choices they made Yet for seven days in 1970 Nova Scotians saw a brilliant spotlight shone on the city's power structure exposing incompetence ignorance racism and lies In Seven Days in Halifax Robert Ashe presents this forgotten event in the city's life Twelve highly qualified outsiders including a passionate Black pastor a feisty Canadian labour leader and a no holds barred journalist spent a week in a public investigation of the city and how it worked Each evening Nova Scotians were glued to live television broadcasts where the 12 experts grilled local authorities The event called Encounter was a one off But it showed how a local power structure can fail a city's citizens and face no consequences Robert Ashe's story of Encounter explains much about Halifax's recent history and offers timely lessons on the importance of accountability on the part of those in the city's power structure today Canadian History:

Confederation to the present Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover I Know that Name! Mark Kearney, Randy Ray, 2002-09

Full of fun facts intriguing trivia and engrossing explorations of more than 100 Canadians who beat the odds to become household names Frank Manning Covert Frank Manning Covert, 2005 Annotation Fifty Years in the Practice of Law is the engrossing autobiography of a public citizen who worked almost non stop at a career he both loved and cherished A power often behind the scenes in big business high finance and Liberal Party politics Frank Manning Covert advised Pierre Trudeau to seek the leadership of the federal Liberal Party He was the brains behind Sun Life's head office move from Montreal to Toronto introduced labour relations as a practice area for corporate lawyers and reorganized two universities A member of what Peter Newman christened the Munitions and Supply Gang in World War II Ottawa Covert was a protege of the legendary minister of everything C D Howe for whom he later helped create the post of chancellor of Dalhousie University Appointed an officer of the Order of Canada in 1982 Covert's citation noted that he had given generously of his counsel and leadership to universities hospitals and charitable organizations An understatement typical of the man who believed that successful work was its own best reward Based in part on diaries that he kept and carefully preserved for some sixty years Fifty Years in the Practice of Law provides a significant primary source for the history of the Canadian legal profession in the twentieth century The Urge to Splurge Laura Byrne Paquet,2003-10-31 Tracing the cultural evolution of shopping from outdoor bazaars to suburban malls this brazen look at the history and psychology of one of humankind's oldest pursuits considers the variety of reasons and excuses that drive the impulse to buy An opulent collection of shopping places are described including ancient markets covered arcades of 18th century France galleries of 19th century Italy and megamalls of 1950s America Examples from literature and other sources explore the historically conflicted attitudes about shopping it seems that fashionistas have always fought over the trendiest hemlines and hats The development of buying options is detailed from mail order catalogs and Internet stores to retail districts and massive supermarkets Quest of the Folk, CLS Edition Ian McKay,2009-05-01 The popular conception of Nova Scotians as a pure simple idyllic people is false argues Ian McKay In The Quest of the Folk he shows how the province's tourism industry and cultural producers manipulated and refashioned the cultural identity of the region and its people to project traditional folk values McKay offers an in depth analysis of the infusion of a folk ideology into the art and literature of the region and the use of the idea of the Simple Life in tourism promotion He examines how Nova Scotia's cultural history was rewritten to erase evidence of an urban capitalist society class and ethnic differences and women's emancipation In doing so he sheds new light on the roles of Helen Creighton the Maritime region's most famous folklorist and Mary Black an influential handicrafts revivalist in creating this false identity Quest of the Folk Ian McKay,2009-05 Debunking the myth of Nova Scotians as simple folk Inside the Law Carol Wilton,1996-12-15 Law firms are important economic institutions in this country they collect hundreds of millions of dollars annually in fees they order the affairs of businesses and of many government agencies and their members include some of the most influential Canadians Some firms have a history stretching back nearly two hundred years and many are over a century old Yet the history of law firms in Canada has remained largely unknown This collection of essays Volume VII in the Osgoode Society's series of Essays in the History of Canadian Law is the first focused study of a variety of law firms and how they have evolved over a century and a half from the golden age of the sole practitioner in the pre industrial era to the recent rise of the mega firm The volume as a whole is an exploration of the impact of economic and social change on law firm culture and organization The introduction by Carol Wilton provides a chronological overview of Canadian law firm evolution and emphasizes the distinctiveness of Canadian law firm history In the Shadow of Detroit David

Roberts,2006 Roberts intertwines McGregor s corporate civic and personal lives to trace his pioneering role in the automobile industry Some themes from McGregor s career that are considered here include company growth the technical and cultural concept of the automobile the impact of automotive transportation technological reliance on Detroit parent branch relations the effects of border proximity industrial and political lobbying labor relations secondary manufacturing public involvement and the Great War In addition Roberts probes McGregor s often subservient relationship with the enigmatic Henry Ford and examines how McGregor drew praise and political ire in calling for regional governance in the Border Cities opposite Detroit In the years before his premature death McGregor and his company dominated and defined the growing automotive industry in Windsor Detroit and their story deserves to be more widely known Coal Black Heart

John Demont,2010-04-06 A major new work of history told through the stories of a teeming cast of characters The history of coal is the story of the last two centuries of the industrialized world Coal has powered that world and controlled the destinies of millions And nowhere has that influence run more deeply than in Nova Scotia where the industry s rise and decline has transformed society twice Coal Black Heart is a global history that centres unapologetically on one province and the generations of people whose lives there have been shaped by this dominating industry There are the miners There are the moonshiners and brooding social reformers and charismatic preachers who gave the mining towns their particular feel and flair And there are the profiteers whose greed led to disaster This is history as great storytelling enthralling involving deeply moving and it is a very personal narrative A brilliant reporter journalist and author who has spent most of his career examining Nova Scotia s weave of land people and history and who grew up listening to its stories John DeMont was born to write this book The Global Politics of Poverty in Canada

Will Langford,2021-01-16 In the 1960s and 1970s in the midst of the Cold War and an international decolonization movement development advocates believed that poverty could be ended at home and abroad The Global Politics of Poverty in Canada explores the relationship between poverty democracy and development during this remarkable period Will Langford analyzes three Canadian development programs that unfolded on local regional and international scales He reveals the interconnections of anti poverty activism carried out by the Company of Young Canadians among M tis in northern Alberta and francophones in Montreal by the Cape Breton Development Corporation and by Canadian University Service Overseas in Tanzania In dialogue with the New Left liberal reformers committed to development programs they believed would empower the poor to confront their own poverty and thereby foster a more meaningful democracy However democracy and development proved to be fundamentally contested and development programs stopped short of amending capitalist social relations and the inequalities they engendered The Global Politics of Poverty in Canada explores how Canadians engaged in informal and formal politics in the course of their everyday lives locally and transnationally Langford provides an enduring record of otherwise fleeting anti poverty programs and their effects the lived activism and opinions of development workers and ordinary people The Thousandth Man Barry

Cahill, 2000-12-15 James McGregor Stewart 1889 1955 was perhaps the foremost Canadian corporate lawyer of his day He was also an appellate counsel venture capitalist Conservative Party fundraiser bibliographer of Rudyard Kipling and sometime university teacher of classics A leader of the bar in the inter war period he was the first Maritimer to serve as president of the Canadian Bar Association He distinguished himself mainly in constitutional cases before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council During his career Stewart was also head of the leading law firm in eastern Canada now Stewart McKelvey Stirling Scales director and vice president of the Royal Bank of Canada and senior counsel to the Royal Commission on Dominion Provincial Relations Above all Stewart was committed to the idea of law as a truly learned profession and to the bar as the most important legal institution To this day no lawyer has held such prestige and power both within and outside Atlantic Canada in his time he was the only Maritime lawyer who gained full acceptance by every branch of the Canadian establishment Thematic rather than chronological in approach this fascinating legal biography provides both a history of a uniquely Canadian career and an interpretation of its significance for Stewart's time and ours Something about the Author Diane Telgen, 1994 Series covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs Acadiensis, 1991 CA Magazine, 2007 The Canadian Who's who, 1998 Essays in the History of Canadian Law Osgoode Society, 1981 Delves into the evolution of Canadian law firms over the past 150 years from the golden age of the sole practitioner in the pre industrial era to the recent rise of the mega firm After a chronological overview of Canadian law firm development essays explore the impact of economic and social change
