Frankly My Dear:

Frankly, My Dear Sandra Hill, 2014-02-18 Lost in the Bayou Selene has always had three great passions men food and Gone With the Wind Still the glamorous model always seems to be starving for both nourishment and affection Weary of the petty world of high fashion she heads to New Orleans for one last shoot before she chucks it all and begins a whole new life But she doesn't realize that thanks to an errant voodoo spell her new life will happen 150 years in the past and in the company of a dark and brooding gentleman who could give Rhett Butler a run for his money An alarmingly handsome Southern planter James Baptiste may not have Rhett's cavalier spirit and his plantation is certainly no Tara But it's clear as crystal that this virile Creole is a lover worth giving a damn about And with God as her witness Selene vows she will never go hungry for this man again "Frankly My Dear-- " Herb Bridges, 1995 Glimpses into the soul of a people and a nation

Frankly, My Dear Clara Kristi Ann Hunter, 2024-11-12 Every little boy grows up imagining he will one day be called upon to save the damsel in distress but Mr Hugh Lockhart is certain the enemy in his imagination has never been a kite He knows that support from a wealthy aristocrat is all he needs to get his own clock making shop but rescuing Viscount Eversly's cousin from a child's toy isn't how he thought he would gain that attention Miss Clara Woodbury knows she should be thankful her aunt is willing to sponsor her for a London season but she doesn't want to have any part of the decadence and dissolution of London Knowing she must marry and wanting to please her family she sets her sights on a younger son bound for the church As life continues to throw Clara and Hugh into each other's paths their conversations begin to challenge everything they thought they knew about what they wanted in life When they finally discover that what they need is each other will it be too late to change decisions already put into motion The Etymologicon Mark Forsyth, 2012-10-02 This

Clorinda Matto de Turner was the first Peruvian novelist to command an international reputation and the first to dramatize the exploitation of indigenous Latin American people She believed the task of the novel was to be the photograph that captures the vices and virtues of a people censuring the former with the appropriate moral lesson and paying its homage of admiration to the latter In this tragic tale Clorinda Matto de Turner explores the relationship between the landed gentry and the indigenous peoples of the Andean mountain communities While unfolding as a love story rife with secrets and dashed hopes Torn from the Nest in fact reveals a deep and destructive class disparity and criticizes the Catholic clergy for blatant corruption When Lucia and Don Fernando Marin settle in the small hamlet of Killac the young couple become advocates for the local Indians who are being exploited and oppressed by their priest and governor and by the gentry allied with these two Considered meddling outsiders the couple meet violent resistance from the village leaders who orchestrate an assault on their house and pursue devious and unfair schemes to keep the Indians subjugated As a romance blossoms between the a member of the gentry and the peasant girl that Lucia and Don Fernando have adopted a dreadful secret prevents their marriage and brings to a climax the novel s exposure of degradation they share the same father a parish priest Torn from the Nest was first published in Peru in 1889 amidst much enthusiasm and outrage This fresh translation the first since 1904 preserves one of Peru s most distinctive and compelling voices
