Franko B:

Because of Love Franko B, 2018-04-20      Franko B Franko B., 2006 Edited by Dominic Johnson Text by Franko B Achille Bonito Oliva Vaginal Davis Amelia Jones Ron Athey      Performing Identity and Gender in Literature, Theatre and the Visual Arts Panayiota Chrysochou, 2017-03-07 This volume presents a compelling range of chapters focusing on the myriad ways in which performance and gender are inextricably bound to identity It shows how gender performance and identity play themselves out in various ways contexts and genres in order to illumine the very instability and fluidity of identity as a static category As such it is a must read for anyone interested in gender studies identity politics and literature in general

Eroticism and Death in Theatre and Performance Karoline Gritzner, 2010 The essays brought together in this collection offer new perspectives on the eros death relation in a wide selection of dramatic texts theatrical practices and cultural performances      Facing Our Darkness: Manifestations of Fear, Horror and Terror Laura Colmenero-Chilberg, Ferenc Mújdricza, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 Fear Horror Terror The very words cause us to tingle with both anticipation and unease Sitting in the movie theatre waiting for the murderer to jump out and kill the clueless teenager we are both repulsed and excited about the impending death We yell He s behind the tree knowing our reminders are pointless but unable to restrain ourselves when caught up in the panic of the moment Humans have a fascination with fear horror and terror Why Whatever the reason it both fascinates and often disgusts us All of these emotional phenomena fear horror terror are infected by our fear of death In the end all three phenomena test our courage Yet this courage is not only heroic each and every optimistic trusting self confident and faithful person permanently has it in spite of all the fears horrors and terrors with which the state of human existence threatens us since the dawn of self awareness This book is about some of these threats      Double Exposures Manuel Vason, 2015-01-01 A new collaborative venture between Manuel Vason and forty of the most visually arresting artists working with performance in the United Kingdom Double Exposures brings together newly commissioned images and essays to explore new ways of bridging performance and photography Ten years after Vason s first book Exposures this ambitious project draws into sharp focus the body the diptych documentation the photobook identity mediation collaborative practices and the relationship between photography and performance With essays by leading critics academics and practitioners this collection solidifies Vason s centrality to the photography of performance Copublished with the Live Art Development Agency LADA Published with the support of Arts Council England      The Body in Performance Patrick Campbell, 2014-04-08 Lively yet intriguing The Body in Performance is a varied collection of essays about this much discussed area Posing the question Why this current preoccupation with the performed body the collection of specially commissioned essays from both academics and practitioners in some cases one and the same person considers such cutting edge topics as the abject body and performance censorship and live art the presentation of violence on stage carnal art and the vexed issue of mimesis in the theatre Drawing variously on the work of Franko B Orlan Annie Sprinkle Karen Finley and Forced Entertainment it concludes with a creative piece about a Famous New York Performance Artist Contributors include Rebecca Schneider whose book The Explicit Body in Performance is a key text in this area and Joan Lipkin director and writer Histories and Practices of Live Art Deirdre Heddon, Jennie Klein, 2012-12-07 In this dynamic collection a team of experts map the development of Live Art culturally thematically and historically Supported with examples from around the world the text engages with a number of key practices asking what these practices do and how they can be contextualised and understood Revisiting Sexualities in the 21st Century Constantinos N. Phellas, 2015-04-01 Sexual interactions are socially constructed within a historical social and cultural milieu and are continually defined and redefined accordingly depending on the surrounding economic political moral and religious social forces Although the human capacity for sexual expression spans a wide range of variations and permutations it is nonetheless seriously confined limited and restricted to only a few acceptable forms Western style sexual acceptability is in turn determined by the prevailing white heterosexual standards of patriarchy perpetuated through childhood masculine socialization and adolescent and adult machismo practices Revisiting Sexualities in the 21st Century examines a whole set of explanatory and definitional issues from the very outset particularly regarding what may be rightly included and excluded from its provenance and coverage The contributors to this book are brought together from three different methodological spheres qualitative quantitative and historical comparative Each author lays out the traditional parameters of the methodology used in their perspectives of social science research and openly discusses how they have been applied to the study of hetero sexuality non heterosexuality and the ways in which their theory and methodology may be improved Their contributions outline some of the major theoretical and methodological problems that still confront the study of modern sexualities while also presenting a selection of theoretical and methodological issues of interest to both new and experienced researchers This anthology identifies the need in contemporary social and cultural studies for more elaborate understandings of the relations of various masculinities and femininities to power nation empire violence race class and embodiment and in doing so brings together an eclectic multidisciplinary and wide ranging collection of essays The various contributions to this book will appeal to social scientists especially sociologists psychologists and sexologists biomedical scientists health professionals and other academic and professional audiences and students researchers and instructors of sexuality studies Undoubtedly with this collection sexuality studies comes of age as an academic field Embodiment and Disembodiment in Live Art Ke Shi, 2019-12-06 Liveness is a pivotal issue for performance theorists and artists As live art covers both embodiment and disembodiment many scholars have emphasized the former and interpreted the latter as the opposite side of liveness In this book the author demonstrates that disembodiment is also an inextricable part of liveness and presence in performance from both practical and theoretical perspectives By applying phenomenological theory to live performance the author investigates the possible realisation of aesthetic dynamics in live art via re engagement with the notions of embodiment especially in the sense provided by philosophers such as Gabriel Marcel and Morris Merleau Ponty Creative practices from leading performance artists such as Franko B Ron Athey Manuel Vason and others as well as experimental ensembles such as Goat Island La Pocha Nostra Forced Entertainment and the New Youth are discussed offering a new perspective to re frame human human relationships such as the one between actor and spectator and collaborations in live genres In addition the author presents a new interpretation model for the human material in live genres helping to bridge the aesthetic gaps between performance art and experimental theatre and providing an ecological paradigm for performance art experimental theatre and live art Live Art in the UK Maria Chatzichristodoulou, 2020-02-06 Since entering the performance lexicon in the 1970s the term Live Art has been used to describe a diverse but interrelated array of performance practices and approaches This volume offers a contextual and critical introduction to the scene of contemporary Live Art in Britain Focusing on key artists whose prolific body of work has been vital to the development of contemporary practice this collection studies the landscape of Live Art in the UK today and illuminates its origins as well as particular concerns and aesthetics The introduction to the volume situates Live Art in relation to other areas of artistic practice and explores the form as a British phenomenon It considers questions of cultural specificity financial and institutional support and social engagement by tracing the work and impact of key organizations on the UK scene the Live Art Development Agency SPILL Festival of Performance and Compass Live Art Across three sections leading scholars offer case studies exploring the practice of key artists Tim Etchells Marisa Carnesky Marcia Farquhar Franko B Martin O'Brien Oreet Ashery David Hoyle Jordan McKenzie and Cosey Fanni Tutti The Phenomenology of Blood in Performance Art T. J. Bacon, Chelsea Coon, 2025-02-28 The Phenomenology of Blood in Performance Art is a major new publication that expands the philosophical contextualisation of blood its presence and absence across the practice of performance art from a phenomenological perspective Edited by T J Bacon she they and Chelsea Coon she her this book moves through an established canon of artists and beyond to ensure an inclusive representation of practices from a wider range of practitioners First hand interviews and conversations have been gathered from both canonical names as well as individuals who are prevalent in their communities and or respective subcultures but less represented within the frameworks of scholarly discourse Each offers the opportunity to examine their experiences creating artworks and in turn contributes to the context of phenomenological examination within this publication through complementary scholarly texts from leading thinkers who frame phenomenological application to both visual art and transdisciplinary context Featuring artists through new exclusive interviews and contributions including Marina Abramovi Jelili Atiku Ron Athey Franko B Niya B Marisa Carnesky Chelsea Coon Victor Martinez Diaz Rufus Elliot Ernst Fischer Louis Fleischauer Poppy Jackson Mirabelle Jones Andrei Molodkin Hermann Nitsch ORLAN Mike Parr Greta Sharp tjb and Paola Paz Yee and reference to many more Alongside new scholarly insight by leading phenomenological and interdisciplinary art scholars and philosophers including T

J Bacon Chelsea Coon Stuart Grant Kelly Jordan Lynn Lu Roberta Mock Amber Musser and Raegan Truax Together they represent a significant exploration of intricate and dynamic responses to the cultural fabric of contemporary lived experiences across space and time through the medium of blood in performance art This incredible analysis of this performance art will be of huge interest to students and practitioners of live art performance art phenomenology and performance philosophy

Information Arts Stephen Wilson, 2003-02-28 An introduction to the work and ideas of artists who use and even influence science and technology A new breed of contemporary artist engages science and technology not just to adopt the vocabulary and gizmos but to explore and comment on the content agendas and possibilities Indeed proposes Stephen Wilson the role of the artist is not only to interpret and to spread scientific knowledge but to be an active partner in determining the direction of research Years ago C P Snow wrote about the two cultures of science and the humanities these developments may finally help to change the outlook of those who view science and technology as separate from the general culture In this rich compendium Wilson offers the first comprehensive survey of international artists who incorporate concepts and research from mathematics the physical sciences biology kinetics telecommunications and experimental digital systems such as artificial intelligence and ubiquitous computing In addition to visual documentation and statements by the artists Wilson examines relevant art theoretical writings and explores emerging scientific and technological research likely to be culturally significant in the future He also provides lists of resources including organizations publications conferences museums research centers and Web sites

Performance, Masculinity, and Self-Injury Lucy Weir, 2024-08-20 This book is an ambitious and expansive examination of the visual language of self injury in performance art from the 1960s to the present Inspired by the gendered nature of discussion around self harm the book challenges established readings of risk taking and self injury in global performance practice The interdisciplinary methodology draws from art history and sociology to provide a new critical analysis of the relationship between masculinity and self inflicted injury Based upon interviews with a range of artists around the world it offers an innovative understanding of the diverse meanings behind self injury in performance and delves into the gendered coding of self harming bodies Individual chapters examine the work of Ron Athey G nter Brus Wafaa Bilal Franko B Andr Stitt Pyotr Pavlensky and Yang Zhichao offering a new perspective on the forms and functions of self injury in performance art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history performance studies gender studies and cultural studies

Hold It Against Me Jennifer Doyle, 2013-04 Examining the relationship between emotional intensity and difficulty in works of avant garde art Jennifer Doyle seeks to develop a critical language for understanding affectively charged contemporary art

Performing the Matrix Meike Wagner, Wolf-Dieter Ernst, 2008 Performing the Matrix Mediating Cultural Performances presents a collection of case studies and analyses dealing with performances of the matrix that take up questions of identities and social thinking visualization and perception the discursive power of texts and historiographic paradigms and artistic strategies of political intervention Since 1999 The Matrix has become a popular catchword through the homonymous Wachowski brothers movie As both a traditional concept and a popular phenomenon matrix can take on a new value when reconsidered in the light of performance studies A behind the scenes look at theatre performance political activism and events may reveal a productive mediating structure that can metaphorically be described as a matrix This mediating structure and its materializations are fundamentally reshaping modern culture Accordingly politics of visibility media networking telepresence and liveness are considered to be understood as performances of the matrix If so how does this understanding of cultural performances as always already mediatized influence contemporary concepts of performance and media

Queer exceptions Stephen Greer, 2018-11-23 Queer exceptions is a study of contemporary solo performance in the UK and Western Europe that explores the contentious relationship between identity individuality and neoliberalism With diverse case studies featuring the work of La Ribot David Hoyle Oreet Ashery Bridget Christie Tanja Ostojic Adrian Howells and Nassim Soleimanpour the book examines the role of singular or exceptional subjects in constructing and challenging assumed notions of communal sociability and togetherness while drawing fresh insight from the fields of sociology gender studies and political philosophy to reconsider theatre's attachment to singular lives and experiences Framed by a detailed exploration of arts festivals as encapsulating the material entrepreneurial circumstances of contemporary performance making this is the first major critical study of solo work since the millennium

Is this a Culture of Trauma? An Interdisciplinary Perspective Jessica Aliaga Lavrijsen, Michael Bick, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The 20th century has been characterised by an unprecedented violence that seems to have left an imprint in contemporary societies from the two World Wars or the terrorist attack of 9 11 to natural catastrophes or sexual abuse All of these terrible experiences have been collected represented and communicated by many different people especially in the last few decades as seen in the high number of books and films dealing with traumatic experiences As a result an interdisciplinary trauma studies field has emerged At the 2nd Global Conference Trauma Theory and Practice an interdisciplinary conference hosted in Prague in the spring of 2012 academics and professionals met to explore and debate issues surrounding the experience of individual and collective traumas their representations in art and some theoretical approaches to trauma This book is a collection of the papers presented at the conference a snapshot of the current work in the field of trauma studies

A Dance Alexander Barabanov, 2012-03-31 Alexander Barabanov a key figure in the Russian dance world has sifted through many thousands of photographs of dance to accumulate an extraordinary collection of pictures ranging from historical ballet photographs to shocking avant garde imagery This work has been collected and edited to form an astonishing sequence Rather than being assembled as an anthology the sequence has in fact been choreographed so the book is constructed to form a dance in ten movements It begins with creation myths follows erotic engagements and leads to a series of mass movements in the modern age It includes such gems as the young Nureyev's first performance with the Kirov and Baryshnikov's debut as well as images with brutal reference to Abu Ghraib or the march of fascism      Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity Jaye Early, 2025-01-23 This is the first book of its kind to examine the development of the confessional subject in video art and demonstrate how it can provide a vital platform for navigating the politics of self subjectivity and resistance in society In doing so it reframes video art the most ubiquitous and yet most understudied art form of recent decades as an urgent socio political tool that is increasingly popular among contemporary artists as a means of exploring a broad range of social issues from politics and identity to the body and technologies of self representation Analysing a diverse selection of case studies from the 1960s up to the present day covering the work of Yoko Ono Gillian Wearing Ryan Trecartin Tracey Emin Anatasia Klose and Heath Franco among others the book brings together theory and practice to look afresh at contemporary video art through a Foucauldian lens It also brings the analysis of video art up to date by showing how social media and digital self representation has informed and further politicized time based art practices Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity shows how forms of confessional discourse not only play an important function in the construction of subjectivity but also open spaces for personal resistance and agency within contemporary video art As a result it offers researchers of contemporary art practice and media and cultural studies an updated framework through which to view this constantly evolving genre and a deeper understanding of wider contemporary video practices
