Power and Religion in Merovingian Gaul Yaniv Fox, 2014-09-18 This study is the first to attempt a thorough investigation of the activities of the Columbanian congregation which played a significant role in the development of Western monasticism This was a new form of rural monasticism which suited the needs and aspirations of a Christian elite eager to express its power and prestige in religious terms Contrary to earlier studies which viewed Columbanus and his disciples primarily as religious innovators this book focuses on the political economic and familial implications of monastic patronage and on the benefits elite patrons stood to reap While founding families were in a privileged position to court royal favour monastic patronage also exposed them to violent reprisals from competing factions Columbanian monasteries were not serene havens of contemplation but rather active foci of power and wealth and quickly became integral elements of early medieval statecraft Archaeology of Frankish Church Councils, AD 511-768 Gregory I. Halfond, 2010 Despite growing scepticism concerning the evidentiary value of normative legal sources scholars continue to mine the legislative acts of ecclesiastical councils for insight into political religious and quotidian life in Frankish Gaul Between the reigns of Clovis and Charlemagne AD 511 768 at least eighty councils assembled often on royal command to discuss issues of concern to the episcopal and clerical attendees Their published canons were intended to communicate ecclesiastical policy in the Frankish regnum However scholars have paid comparatively slight attention to the institution responsible for this body of legislation This book remedies this lacuna by delineating the functions and modus operandi of the Frankish church council as an administrative body

Tools, Weapons and Ornaments Herbert Schutz, 2021-10-11 This illustrated book continues themes in Central European cultural history treated elsewhere with the intention of presenting an interdisciplinary study of early medieval socio cultural developments A continuation of the preceding books this volume examines the archeological evidence of the groups who settled Central Europe It aims to amplify the information recorded during the late Roman Empire about societies social dynamics and ethnological contexts by examining their material culture The language of significant objects complements the literature of significant texts The three parts of the book inform of the historical and archeological evidence elaborate the socio cultural conclusions provided by archeology examine the system of values as reflected in the forms of artistic expression The study of objects helps clarify the contours of the Germanic populations of pre Carolingian Central Europe

Leadership, Social Cohesion, and Identity in Late Antique Spain and Gaul (500-700) Dolores Castro,Fernando Ruchesi,2025-10-01 The replacement of the Roman Empire in the West with emerging kingdoms like Visigothic Spain and Merovingian Gaul resulted in new societies but without major population displacement Societies changed because identities shifted and new points of cohesion formed under different leaders and leadership structures This volume examines two kingdoms in the post Roman west to understand how this process took shape Though exhibiting striking continuities with the Roman past Gaul and Spain emerged as distinctive but not isolated political entities that forged different strategies and drew upon different resources to strengthen their unity shape social ties and consolidate their political status

Empires of Faith Peter Sarris,2011-10-27 A panoramic account of the history of Europe the Mediterranean and the Near East from the fall of Rome to the rise of Islam

Warfare and Society in the Barbarian West 450-900 Guy Halsall,2008-01-28 Guy Halsall relates warfare to many aspects of medieval life economy society and politics This book recovers its distinctiveness looking at warfare in a rounded context in the British Isles and Western Europe between the end of the Roman Empire and the break up of the Carolingian Empire Examining the raising and organization of early medieval armies and looks at the conduct of campaigns the survey also includes a study of the equipment of warriors and the horrific experience of battle as well as an analysis of medieval fortifications and siege warfare Warfare and Society in the Barbarian West uses historical and archaeological evidence in a rigorous and sophisticated fashion It stresses regional variations but also places Anglo Saxon England in the mainstream of the military developments in this era and in the process provides an outstanding resource for students of all levels

Social Mobility in Late Antique Gaul Allen E. Jones,2009-07-20 In Social Mobility in Late Antique Gaul Allen Jones explores the situation of the non elite living in Gaul during the late fifth and sixth centuries Drawing especially on evidence from Gregory of Tours writings he formulates a social model based on people of all ranks who were acting in ways that were socially advantageous to them such as combining resources serving at court and participating in ostentatious religious pursuits such as building churches Viewing the society as a whole and taking into account specific social groups such as impoverished prisoners paupers active at churches physicians and wonder working enchanters Jones creates an image of Barbarian Gaul as an honor driven brutal and flexible society defined by social mobility His work also addresses topics such as social engineering and competition magic and religion and the cult of saints Race and Ethnicity in Anglo-Saxon Literature Stephen Harris, 2004-06-01 What makes English literature English This question inspires Stephen Harris's wide ranging study of Old English literature From Bede in the eighth century to Geoffrey of Monmouth in the twelfth Harris explores the intersections of race and literature before the rise of imagined communities Harris examines possible configurations of communities illustrating dominant literary metaphors of race from Old English to its nineteenth century critical reception Literary voices in the England of Bede understood the limits of community primarily as racial or tribal in keeping with the perceived divine division of peoples after their languages and the extension of Christianity to Bede's Germanic neighbours was effected in part through metaphors of family and race Harris demonstrates how King Alfred adapted Bede in the ninth century how both exerted an effect on Archbishop Wulfstan in the eleventh and how Old English poetry speaks to images of race Human Ecology Holger Schutkowski, 2006-02-28 This book explores the relationship between cultural strategies and their biological outcomes combining for the first time an ecosystems approach with cultural anthropological archaeological and evolutionary behavioural concepts Beginning with resource use and food procurement behaviour the text examines major subsistence modes the circumstances and dynamics of large scale subsistence change the effect of social differentiation on resource use and the effects of subsistence behaviour on population development and regulation Regna and Gentes Hans-Werner Goetz, Jörg Jarnut, Walter Pohl, 2003 This book is the first comprehensive and comparative study of the difficult relationship between ethnic identities and political organisation in the post Roman and early medieval kingdoms 16 authors historians archaeologists and linguists deal with ten important kingdoms of this period and with its political and legal context

Mediterranean Families in Antiquity Sabine R. Huebner, Geoffrey Nathan, 2016-10-17 This comprehensive study of families in the Mediterranean world spans the Bronze Age through Late Antiquity and looks at families and households in various ancient societies inhabiting the regions around the Mediterranean Sea in an attempt to break down artificial boundaries between academic disciplines A Companion to Late Antiquity Philip Rousseau, 2012-01-25 An accessible and authoritative overview capturing the vitality and diversity of scholarship that exists on the transformative time period known as late antiquity Provides an essential overview of current scholarship on late antiquity from between the accession of Diocletian in AD 284 and the end of Roman rule in the Mediterranean Comprises 39 essays from some of the world's foremost scholars of the era Presents this once neglected period as an age of powerful transformation that shaped the modern world Emphasizes the central importance of religion and its connection with economic social and political life Winner of the 2009 Single Volume Reference Humanities Social Sciences PROSE award granted by the Association of American Publishers The New Cambridge Medieval History: Volume 1, C.500-c.700 Paul Fouracre, Rosamond McKitterick, David Abulafia, 1995 Sample Text Landscape with Two Saints Lisa M. Bitel, 2009-05-19 Lisa Bitel uses the history of two unique holy women Genovefa of Paris ca 420-509 and Brigit of Kildare ca 452-524 to reveal how ordinary

Europeans lived through Christianization at the dawn of the Middle Ages Most converts did not have a sudden epiphany Bitel argues Instead they learned and lived their new religion in continuous conversation with preachers saints rulers and neighbors Together they built their faith over many years brick by brick into their churches and shrines cemeteries houses and even their markets and farms

Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 David Rollason,2018-03-29 Early Medieval Europe 300 1050 A Guide for Studying and Teaching empowers students by providing them with the conceptual and methodological tools to investigate the period Throughout the book major research questions and historiographical debates are identified and guidance is given on how to engage with and evaluate key documentary sources as well as artistic and archaeological evidence The book s aim is to engender confidence in creative and independent historical thought This second edition has been fully revised and expanded and now includes coverage of both Islamic and Byzantine history surveying and critically examining the often radically different scholarly interpretations relating to them Also new to this edition is an extensively updated and closely integrated companion website which has been carefully designed to provide practical guidance to teachers and students offering a wealth of reference materials and aids to mastering the period and lighting the way for further exploration of written and non written sources Accessibly written and containing over 70 carefully selected maps and images Early Medieval Europe 300 1050 is an essential resource for students studying this period for the first time as well as an invaluable aid to university teachers devising and delivering courses and modules on the period

The Construction of Communities in the Early Middle Ages Richard Corradini,Maximilian Diesenberger,Helmut Reimitz,2003 This volume provides a complex discussion of the variety of social efforts which were undertaken to create meaningful communities in the process of the formation of the early medieval gentes and kingdoms in the post Roman west

From Roman Provinces to Medieval Kingdoms Thomas F.X. Noble,2006-04-07 This is a prestigious collection of revisionist thinking on the key question of how did the middle ages begin Including a wealth of material on the origins of the Barbarian people and their tribes and a clear introduction to each section this is an invaluable student reference
