Frantz Fanon Anthony C. Alessandrini, 1998-12-17 Frantz Fanon was a fearless critic of colonialism and a key figure in Algeria's struggle for independence Frantz Fanon Critical Perspectives addresses Fanon's extraordinary often controversial writings and examines the ways in which his work can shed light on contemporary issues in cultural politics Embracing feminist theory cultural studies and postcolonialism Frantz Fanon Critical Perspectives offers new directions for cultural and political thought in the postcolonial era

Frantz Fanon and the Future of Cultural Politics Anthony C. Alessandrini, 2014-07-01 This book focuses on a reading of Frantz Fanon's work and life asking how the work of a revolutionary writer such as Fanon might be best appropriated for contemporary political and cultural issues Separate chapters introduce Fanon's life and examine the question of Fanon as our contemporary review the field of Fanon studies that has grown up around his work bring Fanon into conversation with the critical contemporary figures Edward Said Michel Foucault Jamaica Kincaid and Paul Gilroy and turn to Fanon's work to think through the contemporary popular uprisings that have come to be known as the Arab Spring The book concludes by arguing that a reevaluation of Fanon's life and work can provide us with a particular set of lessons about solidarity lessons that are crucial for the contemporary political struggles that face us today and that will continue to confront us in the future Finding Something Different Frantz Fanon and the Future of Cultural Politics is inspired by Fanon's unsparing struggle against the depredations of racism and colonialism and his lifelong commitment to finding something different

Critical Perspectives on Decoloniality Dorothy Takyiakwa, Sifre Makoni, Inviolata Vicky Khasandi-Telewa, Alissa J. Hartig, 2025-08-05 This book is both a deep dive into and a critique of foundational decolonial concepts and epistemologies engaging both historical theoretical analyses of social issues and conditions and standpoints from activism The chapters are situated within multiple plural and shifting force fields within the academy and present a pathway to critically engage political or academic practices within and outside the university The authors specifically engage contestations and harmonies in approaches of decoloniality epistemic injustices Southern epistemologies and epistemologies of the Souths Alongside the theoretical chapters sit interventions on self liberation healing reconstitution of human life embracing interdependence and defying boundaries The book represents a critical intervention in the development of decolonial theories and methodologies and will be of interest to scholars students and activists within and outside of academia

Frantz Fanon Alejandro J. De Oto, 2022-02-04 Focusing on the contributions of Frantz Fanon's writing to the construction of a theory of the postcolonial subject this book engages post structuralist discussions on subjectivity and explores the most important readings and discussions of Fanon's work. Problems such as historicity, contingency, and the positions of the subject in postcolonial contexts receive special attention together with phenomenological approaches to Fanonian writing. The central idea is to give Fanon a privileged place in social, political, and cultural analysis. The objectives of the book are to insert Fanon's texts in contemporary critical theory on modernity and coloniality and to incorporate Fanon in the epistemological and conceptual context of the academy. This innovative work allows us to understand Fanon's writing as key to linking the experiences and critical developments between the global south and the global north.

Critical Perspectives on Mental Health Vicki Coppock, John Hopton, 2002-01-04 Over the last forty years there have been numerous attempts to critique the theory and practice of mental health care. Taking its lead from anti-psychiatry, Critical Perspectives on Mental Health seeks to explore and evaluate the claims of mainstream mental health ideologies and to establish what implications the critiques of these perspectives have for practice. This text will be essential reading for students and those working in the social work and mental health care professions.

Fanon, Psychoanalysis, and Critical Decolonial Psychology Derek Hook, 2025-04-08 This groundbreaking book examines the psychological dimension of decolonial thought in reference to foundational texts. Previously published as A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial, this new edition foregrounds the central role of Fanon's psychology. Highlighting the contributions of anti-colonial authors to the theorization of racism and oppression, the book demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial and decolonial thought for critical social psychology and psychoanalysis via an investigation of a series of key topics. It explores the psychology of embodiment and racialization, resistance strategies to oppression, extra-discursive facets of racism, the phobic and sexual dimensions of anti-Blackness, and the roles of desire, fantasy, and the unconscious in ideologies of racism. The book makes a distinctive contribution through discussing the work of authors drawn from anti-apartheid, psychoanalytic, and critical social theory traditions, including Steve Biko, J. M. Coetzee, Frantz Fanon, Julia Kristeva, Chabani Manganyi, and Slavoj Žižek. This second edition continues to showcase a crucial set of critical resources for an anti-racist decolonial agenda and is fully updated with new discussion, references, and images, with a new chapter on desire, fantasy, and apartheid ideology to strengthen the book's engagement with apartheid racism. This is an invaluable text not only for students of critical social psychology, psychoanalysis, and sociology but for students enrolled in courses on race, racism, or decolonial studies. It will also appeal to postgraduates, academics, and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues.

An Analysis of Frantz Fanon's Black Skin, White Masks Rachele Dini, 2017-07-05 Frantz Fanon's explosive Black Skin White Masks is a merciless exposé of the psychological damage done by colonial rule across the world. Using Fanon's incisive analytical abilities to expose the consequences of colonialism on the psyches of colonized peoples, it is both a crucial text in postcolonial theory and a lesson in the power of analytical skills to reveal the realities that hide beneath the surface of things. Fanon was himself part of a colonized nation, Martinique, and grew up with the values and beliefs of French culture imposed upon him while remaining relegated to an inferior status in society Qualifying as a psychiatrist in France before working in Algeria a French colony subject to brutal repression his own experiences granted him a sharp insight into the psychological problems associated with colonial rule Like any good analytical thinker Fanon s particular skill was in breaking things down and joining dots His analysis of colonial rule exposed its implicit assumptions and how they were replicated in colonised populations allowing Fanon to unpick the hidden reasons behind his own conflicted psychological make up and those of his patients Unflinchingly clear sighted in doing so Black Skin White Masks remains a shocking read today The Postcolonial Unconscious Neil Lazarus,2011-06-30 The Postcolonial Unconscious is a major attempt to reconstruct the whole field of postcolonial studies In this magisterial and at times polemical study Neil Lazarus argues that the key critical concepts that form the very foundation of the field need to be re assessed and questioned Drawing on a vast range of literary sources Lazarus investigates works and authors from Latin America and the Caribbean Africa and the Arab world South Southeast and East Asia to reconsider them from a postcolonial perspective Alongside this he offers bold new readings of some of the most influential figures in the field Fredric Jameson Edward Said and Frantz Fanon A tour de force of postcolonial studies this book will set the agenda for the future probing how the field has come to develop in the directions it has and why and how it can grow further

Romance, Diaspora, and Black Atlantic Literature Yogita Goyal,2010-04-22 Romance Diaspora and Black Atlantic Literature offers a rich interdisciplinary treatment of modern black literature and cultural history showing how debates over Africa in the works of major black writers generated productive models for imagining political agency Yogita Goyal analyzes the tensions between romance and realism in the literature of the African diaspora examining a remarkably diverse group of twentieth century authors including W E B Du Bois Chinua Achebe Richard Wright Ama Ata Aidoo and Caryl Phillips Shifting the center of black diaspora studies by considering Africa as constitutive of black modernity rather than its forgotten past Goyal argues that it is through the figure of romance that the possibility of diaspora is imagined across time and space Drawing on literature political history and postcolonial theory this significant addition to the cross cultural study of literatures will be of interest to scholars of African American studies African studies and American literary studies

Disciplinary Decadence Lewis R. Gordon,2015-12-03 In this book philosopher and social critic Lewis Gordon explores the ossification of disciplines which he calls disciplinary decadence In response he offers a theory of what he calls a teleological suspension of disciplinarity in which he encourages scholars and lay intellectuals to pay attention to the openness of ideas and purposes on which their disciplines were born Gordon builds his case through discussions of philosophy of education problems of secularization in religious thought obligations across generations notions of invention in the study of ideas decadence in development colonial epistemologies and the quest for a genuine postcolonial language These topics are examined with the underlying diagnosis of the present political and academic environment as one in which it is indecent to think

Martial Frindéthi, 2014-12-03 This work explores the limits and prospects of Afro Caribbean Francophone writers in reshaping or producing action oriented literature It shows how Francophone literatures have followed a hegemonic discourse that leaves little room for thinking outside of traditional cultural and ideological conventions Part One explores the origins of Afro Caribbean Francophone literature and what the author terms griotism a shared heritage of awareness of biological differences a sense of the black hero as black messiah and black people as chosen and the promise of a common racial history Part Two discusses the formidable grip of griotism on Fanon Mudimbe the champions of Creolity Bernabe Chamoiseau and Confiant and well read African women writers Aminata Sow Fall and Mariama Ba Part Three seeks to subvert the discourse of griotism in order to propose a new autonomy for Francophone African writers Extravagant Abjection Darieck Scott, 2010-07-01 Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series 2011 Winner of the Alan Bray Memorial

Book Award presented by the Modern Language Association Challenging the conception of empowerment associated with the Black Power Movement and its political and intellectual legacies in the present Darieck Scott contends that power can be found not only in martial resistance but surprisingly where the black body has been inflicted with harm or humiliation Theorizing the relation between blackness and abjection by foregrounding often neglected depictions of the sexual exploitation and humiliation of men in works by James Weldon Johnson Toni Morrison Amiri Baraka and Samuel R Delany Extravagant Abjection asks If we re racialized through domination and abjection what is the political personal and psychological potential in racialization through abjection Using the figure of male rape as a lens through which to examine this question Scott argues that blackness in relation to abjection endows its inheritors with a form of counter intuitive power indeed what can be thought of as a revised notion of black power This power is found at the point at which ego identity body race and nation seem to reveal themselves as utterly penetrated and compromised without defensible boundary Yet in Extravagant Abjection power assumes an unexpected and paradoxical form In arguing that blackness endows its inheritors with a surprising form of counter intuitive power as a resource for the political present found at the very point of violation Extravagant Abjection enriches our understanding of the construction of black male identity Subterranean Fanon Gavin Arnall, 2020-08-18 The problem of change recurs across Frantz Fanon s writings As a philosopher psychiatrist and revolutionary Fanon was deeply committed to theorizing and instigating change in all of its facets Change is the thread that ties together his critical dialogue with Hegel Marx Freud and Nietzsche and his intellectual exchange with C saire Koj ve and Sartre It informs his analysis of racism and colonialism n gritude and the veil language and culture disalienation and decolonization and it underpins his reflections on Martinique Algeria the Caribbean Africa the Third World and the world at large Gavin Arnall traces an internal division throughout Fanon s work between two distinct modes of thinking about change He contends that there are two Fanons a dominant Fanon who conceives of change as a dialectical process of becoming and a subterranean Fanon who experiments with an even more explosive underground theory of transformation Arnall offers close readings of Fanon s entire oeuvre from canonical works like Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth to his psychiatric papers and recently published materials including his play Parallel Hands Speaking both to scholars and to the continued vitality of Fanon s ideas among today s social movements this book offers a rigorous and profoundly original engagement with Fanon that affirms his importance in the effort to bring about radical change Tempest in the Caribbean Jonathan Goldberg, Shakespeare s The Tempest has long been claimed by colonials and postcolonial thinkers alike as the dramatic work that most enables them to confront their entangled history recognized as early modernity s most extensive engagement with the vexing issues of colonialism race dispossession language European displacement and occupation disregard for native culture Tempest in the Caribbean reads some of the classic anticolonial texts by Aime Cesaire Roberto Fernandez Retamar George Lamming and Frantz Fanon for instance through the lens of feminist and queer analysis exemplified by the theoretical essays of Sylvia Wynter and the work of Michelle Cliff Extending the Tempest plot Goldberg considers recent works by Caribbean authors and social theorists among them Patricia Powell Jamaica Kincaid and Hilton Als These rewritings he suggests and the lived conditions to which they testify present alternatives to the masculinist and heterosexual bias of the legacy that has been derived from The Tempest By placing gender and sexuality at the center of the debate about the uses of Shakespeare for anticolonial purposes Goldberg s work points to new possibilities that might be articulated through the nexus of race and sexuality Place sexuality at the center of Caribbean responses to Shakespeare s play Whither Fanon? David Marriott,2018-06-05 Frantz Fanon may be most known for his more obviously political writings but in the first instance he was a clinician a black Caribbean psychiatrist who had the improbable task of treating disturbed and traumatized North African patients during the wars of decolonization Investigating and foregrounding the clinical system that Fanon devised in an attempt to intervene against negrophobia and anti blackness this book rereads his clinical and political work together arguing that the two are mutually imbricated For the first time Fanon s therapeutic innovations are considered along with his more overtly political and cultural writings to ask how the crises of war affected his practice informed his politics and shaped his subsequent ideas As David Marriott suggests this combination of the clinical and political involves a psychopolitics that is by definition complex difficult and perpetually challenging He details this psychopolitics from two points of view focusing first on Fanon s sociotherapy its diagnostic methods and concepts and second on Fanon s cultural theory more generally In our present climate of fear and terror over black presence and the violence to which it gives rise Whither Fanon reminds us of Fanon s scandalous actuality and of the continued urgency of his message

Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought (set) Gregory Claeys,2013-08-20 This groundbreaking new work explores modern and contemporary political thought since 1750 looking at the thinkers concepts debates issues and national traditions that have shaped political thought from the Enlightenment to post modernism and post structuralism Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought is two volume A to Z reference that provides historical context to the philosophical issues and debates that have shaped attitudes toward democracy citizenship rights property duties justice equality community law power gender race and legitimacy over the last three centuries It profiles major and minor political thinkers and the national traditions both Western and non Western which continue to shape and divide political thought More than 200 scholars from leading international research institutions and organizations have provided signed entries that offer comprehensive coverage of Thought of regions and countries including African political thought American political thought Australasian political thought Australian and New Zealand Chinese political thought Indian political thought Islamic political Thought Japanese political thought and more Thought regarding contemporary issues such as abortion affirmative action animal rights European integration feminism humanitarian intervention international law race and racism and more The ideological spectrum from Marxism to neoconservatism including anarchism conservatism Darwinism and Social Darwinism Engels

fascism the Frankfurt School Lenin and Leninism socialism and more Connections of political thought to key areas of politics and other disciplines such as economics psychology law and religion Notable time periods of political thought since 1750 Concepts including class democratic theory liberalism nationalism natural and human rights and theories of the state Theorists and political intellectuals both Western and non Western including John Adams Edmund Burke Mohandas Gandhi Immanuel Kant Ayatollah Khomeini Ernst Friedrich Schumacher George Washington and Mary Wollstonecraft World Bank Literature Amitava Kumar, 2003 World Bank literature is more than a concept it is a provocation a call to arms It is intended to prompt questions about each word to probe globalization political economy and the role of literary and cultural studies As asserted in this major work it signals a radical rewriting of academic debates a rigorous analysis of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund IMF and a consideration of literature that deals with new global realities Made more relevant than ever by momentous antiglobalization demonstrations in Seattle and Genoa World Bank Literature brings together essays by a distinguished group of economists cultural and literary critics social scientists and public policy analysts to ask how to understand the influence of the World Bank IMF on global economic power relations and cultural production The authors attack this question in myriad ways examining World Bank IMF documents as literature their impact on developing nations the relationship between literature and globalization the connection between the academy and the global economy and the emergence of coalitions confronting the new power World Bank Literature shows above all the multifarious and sometimes nefarious ways that abstract academic debates play themselves out concretely in social policy and cultural mores that reinforce traditional power structures
