Franz Fuhmann Innovation Authenticity:

Franz Fühmann: Innovation and Authenticity Dennis Tate, 2023-12-18 This is the first full length study of the life and works of Franz F hmann 1922 1984 to be published in English It provides a complete reassessment of his importance as a prose writer informed by the extensive corpus of F hmann's writing which has only appeared posthumously or is now accessible in the archives of the Akademie der K nste in East Berlin Dennis Tate argues that from the middle 1950s onwards F hmann's prose writing is both stylistically innovative and committed to the authentic representation of his experience thereby challenging the conventional wisdom that little writing of international significance could be produced in the ideological context of the GDR until Honecker introduced his no taboos cultural policy in 1971 F hmann s widely praised later texts ranging from the autobiographical Zweiundzwanzig Tage oder Die H lfte des Lebens and Vor Feuerschl nden to mythical and satirical short stories such as Marsyas and Drei nackte M nner can now be seen as the culmination of an impressive creative development rather than as the result of a late conversion to literary truthfulness. The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of post 1945 German literature as well as to general readers aware of the vitality of Central European culture throughout the period of East West ideological division Shifting Perspectives Dennis Tate, 2007 Tate provides a detailed account of subjective authenticity in German literature its origins in the 1930s exile debates its evolution during the GDR s lifespan and its manifestations in the work of five East German authors Brigitte Reinmann Franz F hmann Stefan Heym G nter de Bruyn and Christa Wolf Volker Braun in Perspective, 2016-08-29 On the occasion of Volker Braun s 65th and GDR German Monitor s 25th birthday an attempt is made to re evaluate Braun s contribution to 20th and 21st century German literature The seventeen essays of the collection written by a truly international set of scholars demonstrate the unique quality and breadth of Braun's writing spanning all literary genres But not only that they also reveal the diversity of interpretative perspectives which Braun's oeuvre productively stimulates They showcase an author who refuses to indulge complacently in past achievements and an opus that defies all attempts at labelling Braun's texts so the verdict of the contributors are driven by an insatiable thirst for the whole story the depth beneath the superficial the complex truth of our human predicament for the precise expression which is not caught up in the limitations of the dominant ideology whatever it might be The Writers' State Stephen Brockmann, 2015 Examines the literature produced from the very beginnings of what became the GDR through the 1950s redressing a tendency of literary scholarship to focus on the later GDR

Retrospect and Review Robert Atkins, Martin Kane, 2023-12-18 In Retrospect and Review an international team of scholars explore East German literature and the circumstances of its production in the last phase of the German Democratic Republic s existence The provocative claim of the novelist playwright and essayist Christoph Hein Ich nehme au erdem f r mich in Anspruch elfmal das Ende der DDR beschrieben zu haben serves as the starting point for the twenty three contributors to the volume who consider the many and varied ways in which Hein and his fellow writers signalled and diagnosed the demise of the GDR The fraught relationship between the state and its intellectuals inevitably forms a consistent theme in the studies of writers as diverse as Anna Seghers and Kito Lorenc Christa Wolf and Jurek Becker or Irmtraud Morgner and Heiner M ller However the process of retrospect and review also reveals the innovative and independent minded character of the culture of the GDR s later years Several contributors trace the emergence of a strong and distinctive women s writing which increasingly and subversively imposed itself on the hitherho patriarchal literary landscape of the GDR And in the literature of the 1970s and 1980s experimental narrative strategies take on a political role as a counter discourse to a stubbornly inflexible political order What Kind of Island in What Kind of Sea? Franz Fühmann, 2021-12-22 The dignity of cognitively disabled people and the ethics of representing their lives are at the heart of an extraordinary yet little known book first published in the former German Democratic Republic Was freine Insel in was fr einem Meer or What Kind of Island in What Kind of Sea Rostock Hinstorff 1986 depicts residents of a church run institution for people with cognitive disabilities in astonishing black and white photographs by Dietmar Riemann and in a probing poignant essay by esteemed German writer Franz F hmann This important text which moved from a medical model to a historical and cultural view of disability as an aspect of human identity and experience is translated into English for the first time by Elizabeth Hamilton and includes reflections on the book and its impact As fuller global histories of disability are now being written What Kind of Island in What Kind of Sea opens an essential window onto a formerly shuttered world demonstrating the power of the arts to hone our capacity to perceive and appreciate human difference The Skin of the System Benjamin Robinson, 2009-09-28 The Skin of the System objects to the idea that there is only one modernity that of liberal capitalism Starting from the simple conviction that whatever else East German socialism was it was real this book focuses on what made historical socialism different from social systems in the West In this way the study elicits the general question what must we think in order to think an other system at all To approach this question Robinson turns to the remarkable writer Franz F hmann the East German who most single mindedly dedicated himself to understanding what it means to transform from fascism to socialism F hmann s own serial loyalties to Hitler and Stalin inform his existential meditations on change and difference By placing F hmann's politically alert and intensely personal literary inventions in the context of an inquiry into radical social rupture The Skin of the System wrests the brutal materiality of twentieth century socialism from attempts to provincialize both its desires and its failures as antimodern ideological follies Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture Brigid Haines, Stephen R. Parker, Colin Riordan, 2010 The papers were delivered at a conference Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture which was held in honour of Professor Rhys W Williams the conference took place from 31 August to 2 September 2008 at the University of Wales Conference Centre Gregynog Hall Screening Art Seán Allan, 2019-02-18 With internationalist aspirations and wide ranging historical Foreword perspectives East German films about artists and their work became hotly contested spaces in which filmmakers could look beyond the GDR and debate the impact of contemporary cultural policy on the reception of their pre war cultural heritage Spanning newsreels documentaries and feature films Screening Art is the first full length investigation into a genre that has been largely overlooked in studies of DEFA the state owned Eastern German film studio As it shows artist films played an essential role in the development of new paradigms of socialist art in postwar Europe Twenty Years on Renate Rechtien, Dennis Tate, 2011 Twenty years on from the dramatic events that led to the opening of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of the GDR the subjective dimension of German unification is still far from complete The nature of the East German state remains a matter of cultural as well as political debate This volume of new research focuses on competing memories of the GDR and the ways they have evolved in the mass media literature and film since 1989 90 Taking as its point of departure the impact of iconic visual images of the fall of the Wall on our understanding of the historical GDR the volume first considers the decade of cultural conflict that followed unification and then the emergence of a more complex and diverse textual memory of the GDR since the Berlin Republic was established in 1999 It highlights competing generational perspectives on the GDR era and the unexpected afterlife of the GDR in recent publications The volume as a whole shows the vitality of eastern German culture two decades after the demise of the GDR and the centrality of these memory debates to the success of Germany's unification process The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on The Portrayal of Jews in GDR Prose Fiction Paul O'Doherty, 2023-04-12 This volume is the first the most influential writers comprehensive single study of Jewish themes in any of the post 1945 German literatures It presents literature on Jewish themes by Jewish and non Jewish authors in the cultural social and political context of the Soviet Zone GDR during the entire 45 years of its history from 1945 to 1990 It offers a brief history of Jews in the GDR before looking in four chronologically ordered chapters at the history of publishing on Jewish themes in the GDR Some 28 texts by 19 different authors including Anna Seghers Stephan Hermlin Arnold Zweig Franz F hmann Johannes Bobrowski Jurek Becker Stefan Heym G nter Kunert Christa Wolf and Helga K nigsdorf are then singled out for closer analysis Such themes as historical anti Semitism the Holocaust Jewish resistance Jewish assimilation Heine Marx Moses Mendelssohn Jewish survival and Jews in the GDR are all discussed in the book The volume also offers evidence of the political influences on publishing on Jewish themes at various stages in the GDR s history In addition a structured bibliography of some 1100 items is offered approximately 750 of which were published in the GDR with a Jewish content or theme The study should be of interest to students of contemporary

German literature and politics the GDR and of Jewish studies in the wider context Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture John Sandford, 2013-04-03 With more than 1 100 entries written by an international group of over 150 contributors the Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture brings together myriad strands of social political and cultural life in the post 1945 German speaking world With a unique structure and format an inclusive treatment of the concept of culture and coverage of East West and post unification Germany as well as Austria and Switzerland the Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture is the first reference work of its kind Containing longer overviews of up to 2 000 words as well as shorter factual entries cross referencing to other relevant articles useful further reading suggestions and extensive indexing this highly useable volume provides the scholar teacher student or non specialist with an astonishing breadth and depth of information In the Party Spirit, 2022-03-28 Neighbours and Strangers ,2016-08-09 The 15 essays collected here focus on literary and cultural relations between Germany or Austria on the one hand and the neighbouring countries of eastern and southern Europe on the other with particular reference to the period since the Wende but also with a glance back to the period of German division Topics include the overarching theme of psychological political historical and geographical boundaries and the perspective offered by German writers from both East and West on Poland Russia and neighbouring countries Equally important to the contributors are specific authors who have crossed national and cultural borders such as Libu e Mon kov Irena Bre na Richard Wagner and Hans Bergel The role of memory Vergangenheit time and space are examined in the context of works by Anna Mitgutsch W G Sebald Christoph Ransmayr and Elisabeth Reichart and the reception of the theories of Pierre Nora in the German speaking countries. The re-emergence of the Right in politics drama and film forms a further dimension explored in these essays Neighbours and Strangers will be of interest to students and scholars working on contemporary German and Austrian culture European Memories of the Second World War Helmut Peitsch, Charles Burdett, Claire Gorrara, 2006-03-01 During the fifty years since the end of hostilities European literary memories of the war have undergone considerable change influenced by the personal experiences of writers as well as changing political social and cultural factors This volume examines changing ways of remembering the war in the literatures of France Germany and Italy changes in the subject of memory and in the relations between fiction autobiography and documentary with the focus being on the extent to which shared European memories of the war have been constructed

German Writers and the Politics of Culture Paul Cooke, Andrew Plowman, 2003-12-09 Before the fall of the Berlin Wall many East German writers were praised in the Western world as dissident voices of truth bravely struggling with the draconian constraints of living under the GDR s communist regime However since unification Germany has been rocked by scandals showing the level to which the Stasi the East German Secret Police controlled these same writers This is the first study in English to systematically explore how the writers have responded to the challenge of dealing with the Stasi from the 1950s to the present day

culture of the German Democratic Republic GDR as a historical entity but also to trace the afterlife of East Germany in the decades since the fall of the Berlin Wall An international team of outstanding scholars offers essential and thought provoking essays combining a chronological and genre based overview from the beginning of the GDR in 1949 to the unification in 1990 and beyond with in depth analysis of individual works A final chapter traces the resonance of the GDR in the years since its demise and analyses the fascination it engenders. The volume provides a rereading of East Germany and its legacy as a cultural phenomenon free from the prejudices that prevailed while it existed offering English translations throughout a guide to further reading and a chronology Phantom Images Catherine Smale, 2013 Ghosts have made an unexpected reappearance in German literature since 1989 Catherine Smale reads this as symptomatic of writers attempts to renegotiate their personal and collective identity in the wake of German reunification Focusing on two major authors from the former GDR Christa Wolf and Irina Liebmann Smale examines the ways in which their work adopts notions of haunting in its creative engagement with the double legacy of Socialism and National Socialism The ghost has long been regarded as a vehicle for making manifest taboo or unauthorized memories However Smale goes further demonstrating how the human subject is destabilized by the return of the phantom and is itself rendered insecure and spectral Drawing on a wide range of theoretical reference from the psychoanalytic concept of intergenerational phantoms to Derridean hauntology Smale's study highlights the particular challenge which Wolf and Liebmann pose to the familiar understanding of how German writers have confronted their country's troublesome past Catherine Smale is Lecturer in German at King's College London Germany in the 1990s H.
