Franz Rosenzweigs Philosophy Of Existence:

Franz Rosenzweig's Philosophy of Existence E.R. Freund, 2013-04-17 The Star of Redemption which presents Franz Rosenzweig's system of philosophy begins with the sentence from death vom Tode from the fear of death originates all cognition of the All and concludes with the words into life This beginning and this conclusion of the book signify more than the first and last words of philosophical books usually do Taken together from death into life they comprise the entire meaning of Rosenzweig's philosophy The leitmotif of this philosophy is the life and death of the human being and not the I of philosophical idealism where man ultimately signifies for ethics no more than a point to which it ethics relates its problems as for science also he man is only a particular case of its general laws I Rosenzweig deals with the individual's actual existence that which is terminated by death he speaks of the individual's hic et nunc of his actions and decisions in the realm of concrete reality This philosophy is not an exposition of theoretical principles It is not concerned with man in general in abstract time but rather with the individual human being designated by a proper name living in his particular time Human existence in its finiteness and temporalness forms the focus in which Rosenzweig's motif can be gathered together Franz Rosenzweig's Philosophy of Existence Else Freund, 1979 Franz Rosenzweig's Philosophy of Existence P. R. Freund E. R. Mendes-Flohr, 2014-01-15 Franz Rosenzweig Franz Rosenzweig, Nahum Norbert Glatzer, 1998-01-01 Franz Rosenzweig was a prominent figure in the development of Jewish existentialism and a major influence on the work Emil Fackenheim amongst others This work offers an array of significant texts and presents Rosenzweig's life in an informative way The Philosophy of Franz Rosenzweig Paul R. Mendes-Flohr, 1988 This volume of essays pays tribute to the philosophical legacy of Franz Rosenzweig 1886-1929 a German Jew who is now celebrated as perhaps the most creative Jewish religious thinker of the twentieth century Despite his brief life he died two weeks shy of his forty third birthday after a heroic struggle to overcome a terrible disease Rosenzweig served to inspire a veritable spiritual and religious renaissance of German Jewry From the midst of assimilation and indeed from the threshold of baptism Rosenzweig affirmed Judaism as a living faith that he deemed to be of urgent relevance to the modern individual Based on the centrality of divine revelation as a historical fact and an existential possibility Rosenzweig's theology led him to abandon his erstwhile pursuit of an academic career as he himself put it one perfectly eligible for a university lectureship and devote himself exclusively to the community of his fellow Jews New Directions in Jewish Philosophy Aaron W. Hughes, Elliot R. Wolfson, 2010 Breaking with strictly historical or textual perspectives this book explores Jewish philosophy as philosophy Often regarded as too technical for Judaic studies and too religious for philosophy departments Jewish philosophy has had an ambiguous position in the academy These provocative essays propose new models for the study of Jewish philosophy that embrace wider intellectual arenas including linguistics poetics aesthetics and visual culture as a path toward understanding the particular philosophic concerns of Judaism As they reread classic Jewish texts the essays articulate a new set of questions and demonstrate the vitality and originality of Jewish philosophy Hegel and the State Franz Rosenzweig, 2023-11-30 Franz Rosenzweig 1886 1929 is one of the most significant German Jewish philosophers of the twentieth century Published in German in 1920 and now finally available in English for the first time Hegel and the State is a major contribution to the understanding of Hegel's political and social thought and a profound analysis of the intellectual currents that shaped the German state in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Through careful readings of Hegel's early handwritten manuscripts Rosenzweig shows that Hegel was wrestling with the problem of how to reconcile the subjectivity and freedom of the individual within a community and ultimately the political state According to Rosenzweig the route out of this conundrum chosen by Hegel shaped his mature political philosophy where he saw the relationship between the individual and the state as reciprocal At a deeper level the significance of Hegel and the State lies in the way that Rosenzweig explains the failure of Hegel's quasi communitarian view of the state to emerge due to the authoritarian direction of the newly unified German state under Bismarck Anticipating the political and moral disaster that was to follow Rosenzweig concludes by questioning the very viability of any theory of the state that relies on the pillars of bureaucratic militarism and a government supported capitalist business culture With the inclusion of a Foreword by Myriam Bienenstock and a substantial Afterword by Axel Honneth Hegel and the State is a ground breaking work of early twentieth century philosophical and political thought It is essential reading for students of Hegel German Idealism Jewish philosophy and the origins of critical theory It will also be of interest to those in related subjects such as the history of sociology and German and intellectual history The Star of Redemption Franz Rosenzweig, 2005-03-15 The Star of Redemption is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding religion and philosophy in the twentieth century Fusing philosophy and theology the book assigns both Judaism and Christianity distinct but equally important roles in the spiritual structure of the world Franz Rosenzweig finds in both biblical religions approaches to a comprehension of reality The major themes and motifs of The Star the birth life death and the immortality of the soul Eastern philosophies and Jewish mysticism the relationship between God world and humanity over time and revelation as the real biblical miracle of faith and path to redemption resonate meaningfully Franz Rosenzweig's Conversions Benjamin Pollock, 2014-08-12 Franz Rosenzweig's near conversion to Christianity in the summer of 1913 and his subsequent decision three months later to recommit himself to Judaism is one of the foundational narratives of modern Jewish thought In this new account of events Benjamin Pollock suggests that what lay at the heart of Rosenzweig's religious crisis was not a struggle between faith and reason but skepticism about the world and hope for personal salvation A close examination of this important time in Rosenzweig's life the book also sheds light on the full trajectory of his philosophical development Giving Beyond the Gift Elliot R. Wolfson, 2014-02-03 This book explores the co dependency of monotheism and idolatry by examining the thought of several prominent twentieth century Jewish philosophers Cohen Buber Rosenzweig and Levinas While all of these thinkers were keenly aware of the pitfalls of scriptural theism to differing degrees they each succumbed to the temptation to personify transcendence even as they tried either to circumvent or to restrain it by apophatically purging kataphatic descriptions of the deity Derrida and Wyschogrod by contrast carried the project of denegation one step further embarking on a path that culminated in the aporetic suspension of belief and the consequent removal of all images from God a move that seriously compromises the viability of devotional piety The inquiry into apophasis transcendence and immanence in these Jewish thinkers is symptomatic of a larger question Recent attempts to harness the apophatic tradition to construct a viable postmodern negative theology a religion without religion are not radical enough Not only are these philosophies of transcendence guilty of a turn to theology that defies the phenomenological presupposition of an immanent phenomenality but they fall short on their own terms inasmuch as they persist in employing metaphorical language that personalizes transcendence and thereby runs the risk of undermining the irreducible alterity and invisibility attributed to the transcendent other The logic of apophasis if permitted to run its course fully would exceed the need to posit some form of transcendence that is not ultimately a facet of immanence Apophatic theologies accordingly must be supplanted by a more far reaching apophasis that surpasses the theolatrous impulse lying coiled at the crux of theism an apophasis of apophasis based on accepting an absolute nothingness to be distinguished from the nothingness of an absolute that does not signify the unknowable One but rather the manifold that is the pleromatic abyss at being's core Hence the much celebrated metaphor of the gift must give way to the more neutral and less theologically charged notion of an unconditional givenness in which the distinction between giver and given collapses To think givenness in its most elemental phenomenological sense is to allow the apparent to appear as given without presuming a causal agency that would turn that given into a gift

Yale Companion to Jewish Writing and Thought in German Culture, 1096-1996 Sander L. Gilman, 1997-01-01 This work provides a history of Jewish writing and thought in the German speaking world Written by 118 scholars in the field the book is arranged chronologically moving from the 11th century to the present Throughout it depicts the contribution that Jewish writers have made to German culture and at the same time explores what it means to the other within that mainstream culture

Franz Rosenzweig and Jehuda Halevi Barbara Ellen Galli, Franz Rosenzweig, 1995 Franz Rosenzweig 1886-1929 one of the most daunting modern Jewish thinkers exercises a profound influence on contemporary philosophy and modern Jewish thought In this seminal study Barbara Galli provides the first English translation of Franz Rosenzweig's Jehuda Halevi Zweiundneunzig Hymnen und Gedichte a German translation of the poems of the great medieval Jewish poet Jehuda Halevi followed by a lively interpretive response Galli's primary aim is to explore Rosenzweig's statement that his Notes to Halevi's poems exemplify a practical application of the philosophic system he set out in The Star of Redemption Through an extended multifaceted investigation of Rosenzweig's thought Galli uncovers his philosophy of translation out of which she determines and unravels his philosophic conclusion and his belief that there is only one language In the final chapters she concentrates on the Notes to the poems and in doing so attempts to philosophize according to Rosenzweig's

Alef, Mem, Tau Elliot Wolfson, 2006-04-05 This highly original provocative and poetic work explores the nexus of time truth and death in the symbolic world of medieval kabbalah Demonstrating that the historical and theoretical relationship between kabbalah and western philosophy is far more intimate and extensive than any previous scholar has ever suggested Elliot R Wolfson draws an extraordinary range of thinkers such as Frederic Jameson Martin Heidegger Franz Rosenzweig William Blake Julia Kristeva Friedrich Schelling and a host of kabbalistic figures into deep conversation with one another Alef Mem Tau also discusses Islamic mysticism and Buddhist thought in relation to the Jewish esoteric tradition as it opens the possibility of a temporal triumph of temporality and the conquering of time through time The framework for Wolfson s examination is the rabbinic teaching that the word emet truth comprises the first middle and last letters of the Hebrew alphabet alef mem and tau which serve in turn as semiotic signposts for the three tenses of time past present and future By heeding the letters of emet we discern the truth of time manifestly concealed in the time of truth the beginning that cannot begin if it is to be the beginning the middle that re marks the place of origin and destiny and the end that is the figuration of the impossible disclosing the impossibility of figuration the finitude of death that facilitates the possibility of rebirth The time of death does not mark the death of time but time immortal the moment of truth that bestows on the truth of the moment an endless beginning of a beginningless end the truth of death encountered incessantly in retracing steps of time yet to be taken between before beyond
