Freadu Three Case Histories:

Three Case Histories Sigmund Freud, 2008-06-30 These histories reveal not only the working of the unconscious in paranoid and neurotic cases but also the agility of Freud's own mind and his method for treating the disorders Notes upon a case of obsessional neurosis 1909 Psychoanalytic notes upon an autobiographical account of a case of paranoia dementia paranoides 1911 From the history of an infantile neurosis 1918 Child Abuse in Freud's Vienna Larry Wolff, 1995 On the cusp of the twentieth century in the most cosmopolitan city in the world there a sensation that entranced the city's populace as nothing had before a sensation that cast a great and disturbing shadow over the city and then vanished leaving no more trace than a shadow would Child Abuse in Freud's Vienna is the story of that forgotten sensation in this fabled city In the autumn of 1899 Vienna's attention was focused not on its extraordinary cultural life but on child abuse specifically two cases of child murder and two of abuse While Sigmund Freud was anxiously awaiting the publication of The Interpretation of Dreams in which he first theorized about the Oedipal hostilities between parents and children every day's headlines proclaimed the ugly reality of child abuse Focusing on the four cases that dominated the pages of the newspapers Larry Wolff's riveting narrative paints a picture of a great city enthralled by a spectacle it desperately wished to ignore A Case of Hysteria Sigmund Freud, 2013-04-11 A Case of Hysteria reveals how Freud dealt with patients and interpreted their statements A crucial text in the development of his theories it is famous for its literary qualities and the story of Dora and her unhappy family is as dramatic as a modern novel This new translation includes a fascinating introduction to the work

Freud and the History of Psychoanalysis Toby Gelfand, John Kerr, 2013-05-13 The recent upsurge of fresh historical research concerning the early years of psychoanalysis has left many professional readers struggling to keep abreast of the latest findings and more than a little perplexed as to what it all adds up to Freud and the History of Psychoanalysis addresses this state of affairs by providing in a single volume original essays by fourteen leading historians of psychoanalysis and philosophers of science it is the most impressive collection of contemporary Freud scholarship yet to appear in print The contributions span virtually the entirety of Freud's career from his coming of professional age in Charcot's Paris to his clandestine rendezvous in the Harz Mountains with members of The Committee more than 30 years later The collection also encompasses a host of conceptual issues ranging from Freud's theory of dream formation to the impact of his conflicting masculine and feminine identifications on his attitude toward treatment Beyond providing an invaluable overview of Freud's life and times the volume will challenge readers to deeper reflection on a host of critical episodes and issues that have shaped the special character of the psychoanalytic endeavor Indispensable as a reference work Freud and the History of Psychoanalysis constitutes a rewarding and accessible introduction to rigorous historical research It will be prized by all who care deeply about the past and future of psychoanalytic theory An Introduction to Theories of Personality Robert B. Fatherhood Augustine Sedgewick, 2025-05-27 Superbly intelligent a rewarding Sapiens style big history The Times London A bold and original history of fatherhood exploring its invention and transformation from the Bronze Age to the present through a collective portrait of emblematic fathers who have helped to define how the world should be ruled and what it means to be a man Fatherhood is one of the most meaningful aspects of human culture but we know little about when or where fatherhood first emerged or even how or why Despite its enigmatic beginnings fatherhood has for centuries given shape to ideas about the world defined human experiences and provided the foundation of patriarchy The history of fatherhood is not just the story of one of humanity s great values caring for those who cannot care for themselves And it is not merely the story of patriarchy the power of fathers which is arguably the oldest and most widespread form of social hierarchy and political oppression It is the story of how these twin strands of history became so entangled that they are often indistinguishable In Fatherhood celebrated historian Augustine Sedgewick explains how this style of parenting emerged in the first place why it has changed over time and whether it will endure as we know it despite its extraordinary costs Told through the lives of emblematic fathers like Aristotle Saint Augustine Henry VIII Thomas Jefferson Charles Darwin and Sigmund Freud this is an ambitious yet intimate look at how masculinity has evolved and how men have come to hold disproportionate power by expanding and reinforcing the power of fathers in times of crisis Sedgewick acclaimed for his literary gifts and prodigious research The Atlantic takes us from the Bronze Age to the present to revolutionize our understanding of fathers and challenge the fictions that have surrounded them for centuries Fatherhood transforms our understanding of this fundamental idea experience and institution allowing us to better know our past and re envision our common future

Case Studies and the Dissemination of Knowledge Joy Damousi, Birgit Lang, Katie Sutton, 2015-02-11 The case study has proved of enduring interest to all Western societies particularly in relation to questions of subjectivity and the sexed self This volume interrogates how case studies have been used by doctors lawyers

psychoanalysts and writers to communicate their findings both within the specialist circles of their academic disciplines and beyond to wider publics At the same time it questions how case studies have been taken up by a range of audiences to refute and dispute academic knowledge As such this book engages with case studies as sites of interdisciplinary negotiation transnational exchange and influence exploring the effects of forces such as war migration and internationalization Case Studies and the Dissemination of Knowledge challenges the limits of disciplinary based research in the humanities The cases examined serve as a means of passage between disciplines genres and publics from law to psychoanalysis and from autobiography to modernist fiction Its chapters scrutinize the case study in order to sharpen understanding of the genre's dynamic role in the construction and dissemination of knowledge within and across disciplinary temporal and national boundaries In doing so they position the case at the center of cultural and social understandings of the emergence of modern subjectivities

Lacan's Medievalism Erin Felicia Labbie, One of the foundational premises of Jacques Lacan's psychoanalytical project was that the history of philosophy concealed the history of desire and one of the goals of his work was to show how desire is central to philosophical thinking In Lacan's Medievalism Erin Felicia Labbie demonstrates how Lacan's theory of desire is bound to his reading of medieval texts She not only alters the relationship between psychoanalysis and medieval studies but also illuminates the ways that premodern and postmodern epochs and ideologies share a concern with the subject the unconscious and language thus challenging notions of strict epistemological cuts Lacan's psychoanalytic work contributes to the medieval debate about universals by revealing how the unconscious relates to the category of the real By analyzing the systematic adherence to dialectics and the idealization of the hard sciences Lacan's Medievalism asserts that we must take into account the play of language and desire within the unconscious and literature in order to understand the way that we know things in the world and the manner in which order is determined Erin Felicia Labbie is assistant professor of English at Bowling Green State University

Crisis of Authority Nancy Luxon, 2013-09-23 Crisis of Authority analyzes the practices that bind authority trust and truthfulness in contemporary theory and politics Drawing on newly available archival materials Nancy Luxon locates two models for such practices in Sigmund Freud's writings on psychoanalytic technique and Michel Foucault's unpublished lectures on the ancient ethical practices of fearless speech or parrhesia

Phenomenologies of the Stranger Richard Kearney, Kascha Semonovitch, 2011 What is strange Or better who is strange When do we encounter the strange This volume takes the question of hosting the Stranger to the deeper level of embodied imagination and the senses It asks How does the embodied imagination relate to the Stranger in terms of hospitality or hostility given the common root of hostis as both host and enemy How do humans sense the dimension of the strange and alien in different religions arts and cultures How do the five physical senses relate to the spiritual senses especially the famous sixth sense as portals to an encounter with the Other Is there a carnal perception of alterity which would operate at an affective prereflective preconscious level What exactly do embodied imaginaries of hospitality and hostility entail And what finally are the topical implications of these questions for an ethics and practice of tolerance and peace

In the Floyd Archives Sarah Boxer, 2001 Sarah Boxer's charming first book is a series of cartoon case histories an animal tour of all things Freudian The tale begins when Mr Bunnyman runs into Dr Floyd's office to hide from a wolf that is chasing him and Floyd a classic pipe smoking analyst insists that Bunnyman's problem is psychological that he is not actually being chased but is having paranoid fantasies Enter Dr Floyd's next patient Mr Wolfman a swaggering cross dresser with a hysterical female alter ego called Lambskin who soon insists on being treated by Floyd too Ratma am rounds out the Floydian client list she's an obsessive compulsive pack rat who likes giving orders and being spanked Drawn with a whimsical hand and complete with notes about the Freudian sources to which these archives pay affectionate tribute the adventures of these animals reveal both the unintended comedy of Freud's case histories and their psychic depths

Nation & Narration Homi K Bhabha, 2013-04-15 Bhabha in his preface writes Nations like narratives lose their origins in the myths of time and only fully encounter their horizons in the mind's eye From this seemingly impossibly metaphorical beginning this volume confronts the realities of the concept of nationhood as it is lived and the profound ambivalence of language as it is written From Gillian Beer's reading of Virginia Woolf Rachel Bowlby's cultural history of Uncle Tom's Cabin and Francis Mulhern's study of Leavisite's English ethics to Doris Sommer's study of the magical realism of Latin American fiction and Sneja Gunew's analysis of Australian writing Nation and Narration is a celebration of the fact that English is no longer an English national consciousness which is not nationalist but is the only thing that will give us an international dimension

Franz Schubert Lawrence Kramer, 2003-09-18 The first book to examine Schubert's songs as active shaping forces in the culture of their era rather than a mere reflection of it His songs project a kaleidoscopic array of unexpected human types all of whom are eligible for a sympathetic response Kramer shows how Schubert sought to validate these types in his songs

Soundings in Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra, 2016-11-01 In Soundings in Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra continues his attempt to fashion a historiography that is at once critical and self critical a project he initiated in Rethinking Intellectual History Texts Contexts Language 1983 and History and Criticism 1985 both available from Cornell University Press This new collection of essays offers a provocative assessment of the nature of historical understanding and the role of critical theory in historical understanding of the practice of historical writing as a dialogic exchange both with the past and among professional historians and critics and of the problem of how to read texts and documents in relation to processes of contextual understanding A central concern of the volume is the interaction between Marxism psychoanalysis and postmodernism and all of the essays demonstrate the complex ways in which this trio of critical theories continues to affect how historians frame their task LaCapra first provides a general appraisal of the problems and possibilities of criticism as a genre that questions its own limits and examines the roles of Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Jean Fran ois Lyotard and Mikhail Bakhtin in the development of contemporary criticism Subsequent chapters address such issues as the implications of psychoanalysis for the writing of history the debate between Robert Darnton and Roger Chartier concerning the status of the symbolic dimension in history and the problem of how best to read and make use of Marx's work LaCapra concludes by exploring the larger project of forging viable links between history and critical theory and by evaluating the contributions of deconstruction and the new historicism to this project Contemporary cultural and intellectual historians literary theorists and critics philosophers and social scientists will welcome this book Atavistic Tendencies Dana Seitler, 2008 The post Darwinian theory of atavism forecasted obstacles to human progress in the reappearance of throwback physical or cultural traits after several generations of absence In this original and stimulating work Dana Seitler explores the ways in which modernity itself is an atavism shaping a historical and theoretical account of its dramatic rise and impact on Western culture and imagination

Gender Ideology, 2023-03-13 Neurology and Modernity Laura Salisbury, Andrew Shail, 2010-02-10 As people of the modern era were singularly prone to nervous disorders the nervous system became a model for describing political and social organization This volume untangles the mutual dependencies of scientific neurology and the cultural attitudes of the period 1800-1950 exploring how and why modernity was a fundamentally nervous state Moving Beyond Words Gloria Steinem, 2012-05-15 Essays from the New York Times bestselling author who inspired the film The Glorias a woman who has told the truth about her life and ours Los Angeles Times With cool humor and rich intellect Gloria Steinem strips bare our social constructions of gender and race explaining just how limiting these invented cultural identities can be In the first of six sections Steinem imagines how our understanding of human psychology would be different in a witty reversal What if Freud had been a woman who inflicted biological inferiority on men think womb envy In other essays she presents positive examples of people who turn gendered stereotypes on their heads from a female bodybuilder to Mahatma Gandhi whose followers absorbed his wisdom that change starts at the bottom And in some of the most moving pieces Steinem reveals some of her own complicated history as a writer woman and citizen of the world This ebook features an illustrated biography of Gloria Steinem including rare images from the author's personal collection The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parreñas Shimizu, 2023-12-08 In The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parreñas Shimizu examines early twenty-first century cinematic representations of Asian and Asian American children Drawing on psychoanalysis and her own perspective as a mother grieving for a deceased child Shimizu considers how cinema renders Asian American children through sexualized racial difference infantilization and premature adultification She looks at how Asian American childhood is characterized in film through experiences of alienation and trauma and contends that childhood development requires finding freedom and self-sovereignty through agentic attunement In analyzing films that focus on queer Asian American youth such as Spa Night 2016 and Driveways 2019 and those that explore the trauma of being an immigrant like Yellow Rose 2019 and The Half of It 2020 Shimizu demonstrates that films can prompt viewers to evaluate their own childhood development They also allow the opportunity to understand the demands placed upon Asian American children particularly in regard to race and sexuality In this way cinema becomes a vehicle for empowering our inner child and the children all around us Discovering the History of Psychiatry Mark S.
