Universally recognized today as one of the most important and influential Americans of the nineteenth century Frederick Douglass rose to prominence in the national abolitionist movement before and during the Civil War by virtue of the vividness and power with which drawing on his personal experiences of enslavement and freedom he spoke and wrote against American slavery and he continued to propound his vision of an America that would afford freedom equality and opportunity to all long after slavery was formally abolished This edition offers a selection of Douglass s most significant writing and oratory from throughout his long career including the complete texts of Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass an American Slave which has become a classic example of the slave narrative genre and The Heroic Slave Douglass s only published work of fiction together with excerpts from Douglass s other autobiographical writings and key speeches he gave both before and after the Civil War The edition also provides clear and thorough annotations for the assistance of the student reader and a range of contextual materials including responses to Douglass's Narrative and photographs of Douglass. As an introduction to Douglass's life and work that balances breadth and concision, this edition is well suited for a variety of undergraduate courses in American history and literary studies. Term Paper Resource Guide to Nineteenth-Century U.S. History Kathleen W. Commentary by Jean Fagan Yellin and Margaret Fuller. This Modern Library edition combines two of the most important African American slave narratives, crucial works that each illuminate and inform the other. Frederick Douglass's Narrative, first published in 1845, is an enlightening and incendiary text. Born into slavery, Douglass became the preeminent spokesman for his people during his life; his narrative is an unparalleled account of the dehumanizing effects of slavery and Douglass's own triumph over it. Like Douglass, Harriet Jacobs was born into slavery, and in 1861 she published Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, now recognized as the most comprehensive antebellum slave narrative written by a woman. Jacobs's account broke the silence on the exploitation of African American female slaves, and it remains essential reading. Includes a Modern Library Reading Group Guide. Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass Frederick Douglass, 2005-06-07 Frederick Douglass's dramatic autobiographical account of his early life as a slave in America. Born into a life of bondage, Frederick Douglass secretly taught himself to read and write. It was a crime punishable by death, but it resulted in one of the most eloquent indictments of slavery ever recorded. His gripping

Marx for Cats Leigh Claire La Berge, 2023-10-02 At the outset of Marx for Cats, Leigh Claire La Berge declares that all history is the history of cat struggle. Revising the medieval bestiary form to meet Marxist critique, La Berge follows feline footprints through Western economic history to reveal an animality at the heart of Marxism. She draws on a twelve hundred year arc spanning capitalism's feudal prehistory, its colonialist and imperialist ages, the bourgeois revolutions that supported capitalism, and the communist revolutions that opposed it to outline how cats have long been understood as creatures of economic critique and liberatory possibility. By attending to the repeated archival appearance of lions, tigers, wildcats, and sabo tabbies, La Berge argues that felines are central to how Marxists have imagined the economy, and by asking what humans and animals owe each other in a moment of ecological crisis, La Berge joins current debates about the need for and possibility of eco-socialism. In this playful and generously illustrated radical bestiary, La Berge demonstrates that class struggle is ultimately an interspecies collaboration.

Why We Make Movies George Alexander, 2007-12-18 A sparkling collection of interviews with African American directors and producers. Bringing together more than thirty candid conversations with filmmakers and producers such as Spike Lee, Gordon Parks, Julie Dash, Charles Burnett, and Robert Townsend, Why We Make Movies delivers a cultural celebration with the tips of a film school master class. With journalist George Alexander, these revolutionary men and women discuss not only how they got their big breaks but more importantly, they explore the creative process and what making movies means to them. Why We Make Movies also addresses the business of Hollywood and its turning tide in a nation where African Americans comprise a sizable portion of the film-going public and go to the movies more frequently than whites. In addition, Alexander's cast of directors and producers considers the lead roles they now play in everything from documentaries and films for television to broad-based blockbusters. In fact, the highest-grossing film in Miramax history was Scary Movie, directed by Keenen Ivory Wayans. For film buffs and aspiring filmmakers alike, Why We Make Movies puts a long-overdue spotlight on one of the most exciting and cutting-edge segments of today's silver screen.
