Free Trade and Competition in the EEC Helen Papaconstantinou, 2025-12-29 To what extent are Member states of the EEC bound to operate under principles of free trade and undistorted competition How much of a free market really is the EEC Free Trade and Competition in the EEC 1988 examines these issues and the conditions under which a State may operate in the market Free Trade and Competition in the EEC Helen Papaconstantinou, 1988 Competition Law of the EEC Ivo Van Bael, Jean-François Bellis, 1990 European Communities John Paxton, 1992-01-01 The establishment of the European Economic Community in 1958 was one of the most remarkable developments in the history of the post World War II era It aimed for nothing less than a complete economic union so that goods people and capital would be able to pass over national boundaries of member countries as freely as they move within any one country As the Community's target date of 1992 for economic integration draws closer the need for information both current and historical becomes more urgent The aim of this annotated bibliography is to create a critical and descriptive list of books published mainly in English for businessmen and analysts combining older publications with new The literature on the EC is vast and issues The Community itself nearly 3000 publications a year The range of material covered in this volume is distinguished by its great scope Historical sections provide listings on the postwar years of economic recovery the development of the EC and biographies of the leading personalities involved Policy oriented sections encompass such subjects as labor transportation environment energy and education The political ramifications of economic union financial and fiscal affairs relations between the EC and the Third World and foreign relations in general are dealt with in separate sections The volume concludes with a listing of major European Community publications The sheer bulk of published material on the EC much of it duplication has made keeping up with its developments difficult for small and medium in Europe and elsewhere This invaluable sourcebook will provide the business community and the political establishments with better access to EC information as they grapple with the implications of 1992 Health Care and EU Law Johan Willem van de Gronden, Erika Szyszczak, Ulla Neergaard, Markus Krajewski, 2011-05-18 The EU has only limited competence to regulate national health care systems but recent developments have shown that health care is not immune from the effects of EU law As Member States have increasingly experimented with new forms of funding and the delivery of health care and social welfare services health care issues have not escaped scrutiny from the EU internal market and from competition and procurement rules The market oriented EU rules now affect these national experiments as patients and health care providers turn to EU law to assert certain rights The recent debates on the draft Directive on Patients Rights further underline the importance but also the difficulty and controversy of allowing EU law to regulate health care The topicality of the range of issues related to health care and EU law was addressed in October 2009 at a conference held in Nijmegen The Netherlands The present volume contains inter alia the proceedings of this conference and invited essays This volume follows the publication of The Changing Legal Framework for Services of

General Interest in Europe Between Competition and Solidarity Krajewski M et al eds 2009 T M C Asser Press The Hague and launches a new series Legal Issues of Services of General Interest The aim of the series is to sketch the framework for services of general interest in the EU and to explore the issues raised by developments related to these services The book is compulsory reading for everyone who is engaged in issues relating to health care and EU law Johan van de Gronden is Professor of European Law at the Law Faculty of the Radboud University Nijmegen the Netherlands Erika Szyszczak is a Jean Monnet Professor of European Law ad personam and Professor of European Competition and Labour Law at the University of Leicester UK Ulla Neergaard is Professor of EU law at the Law Faculty of the University of Copenhagen Denmark Markus Krajewski is Professor of International Public Law Faculty of Law University of Erlangen Nuremberg Germany

1989 Council of Europe/Conseil de l'Europe, 1991-06-14 The European Yearbook has expanded over the years in keeping with the role played by European institutions compared with national ones It is an indispensable work of reference for anyone dealing with these institutions which have become so numerous and varied that no one can possibly memorise all their acronyms or functions The European Yearbook provides aids for finding one's way through the labyrinth of these organisations which coordinate a variety of activities in over 20 countries One of the aids is an organisation chart at the beginning of the documentary section giving a clear picture of the general situation A perusal of the many contributions in the volume organisation by organisation shows the full diversity of the activities which Europe is gradually taking over from national governments with their consent and financial support Written in both of the Council of Europe's official languages English and French the European Yearbook also contains a general index by subject and name which constitutes a very valuable list of articles and provides direct access to the work's subject matter regardless of the particular organisation concerned offering a kind of cross section of the activities of European organisations Michigan Law Review, 1993

The Antitrust Revolution in Europe Lee McGowan, 2010-01-01 Lee McGowan's authoritative book is a very welcome addition to the literature on developments in European antitrust It focuses primarily on EU supranational cartel policy providing a fascinating critical account of why policy developed as it has and of its effectiveness in detecting punishing and deterring cartellists to the present With its emphasis on institutional structures and decision making processes and its use of examples the book will be an invaluable reference for political scientists and should also attract a wide readership among economists and lawyers Eleanor J Morgan University of Bath UK CAFTA-DR, European Free Trade Agreements and the Industrial Property System in Central America Fabian Böttger, 2025-06-19 This book analyses the impact of CAFTA-DR and European Free Trade Agreements on the industrial property system in Central America While there is ample literature on bilateral and regional FTAs it is often limited to the contractual obligations assumed by the participating countries This book goes a step further and analyses how these obligations are implemented through national legislation institutional changes and legal practice To provide a deeper understanding of the effects of FTAs on national IP systems the book addresses research questions that go beyond general publications on the topic Research questions include Is the combination of market access and IP rules in a bilateral FTA an effective and appropriate trade deal How are the IP requirements under the FTAs implemented into the national statutory framework Do the IP rules of FTAs sufficiently address institutional factors necessary for an effective IP system Do they provide for an appropriate balance between minimum protection and flexibilities and support relevant IP policy objectives The book covers the CAFTA DR member states Costa Rica the Dominican Republic El Salvador Guatemala Honduras and Nicaragua reviewing the implementation of FTA obligations regarding patents plant varieties test data trademarks geographical indications designs genetic resources and traditional knowledge enforcement and other areas By looking at several countries a broad range of IP rights and the practical implementation of FTA obligations this book provides a broad range of information and insights

Rethinking the World Trade Order

Mohammad F. A. Nsour, 2010 Regional Trade Agreements RTAs have proliferated at an unprecedented pace since the creation of the World Trade Organization WTO Although the WTO legally recognizes countries entitlement to form RTAs neither the WTO nor parties to RTAs have an unequivocal understanding of the relationship between the WTO and RTAs In other words the legal controversies the result of uncertainty regarding the application of the WTO GATT laws risk undermining the objectives of the multilateral trade system This research tackles a phenomenon that is widely believed to be heavily economic and political It highlights the economic and political aspects of regionalism but largely concentrates on the legal dimension of regionalism The main argument of the book is that the first step to achieving harmony between multilateralism and regionalism is the identification of the legal uncertainties that regionalism produces when countries form RTAs without taking into account the substantive and procedural aspect of the applicable WTO GATT laws The book calls for the creation of a legal instrument i e agreement on RTAs that combines all of the applicable law on RTAs and simultaneously clarifies the legal language used therein Likewise the WTO should have a proactive role not merely as a coordinator of RTAs but as a watchdog for the multilateral system that has the power to prosecute violating RTAs The author is aware that political concerns are top priorities for governments and policy makers when dealing with the regionalism problematic Hence legal solutions or proposals are not sufficient to create a better international trade system without the good will of the WTO Members who are in fact the players who are striving to craft more regional trade arrangements

Europe's Global Role

Jan Orbie, 2009 First published in 2008 and based on an innovative framework for analyzing the EU's external politics this paperback edition provides a historical overview of and theoretical conclusions about the EU's global role It examines Europe's international role in a range of external policy domains focusing in particular on the soft dimension of Europe's international action

EU Dumping Determinations and WTO Law Henrik Andersen, 2009-01-01 The application of the antidumping instrument by WTO members is often controversial because of the protectionist character of these measures where inefficient industries are protected from foreign competition The legal framework within the WTO has loopholes that leave wide discretion to the investigating authorities to determine that a product is dumped thereby emphasizing the protectionist nature of antidumping The use of antidumping becomes even more controversial when WTO members use the antidumping tool beyond the legal scope of WTO law The questions raised in this book concern the EU dumping determinations and their conformity with WTO law This thought provoking work examines whether European Union legislation on dumping the practices adopted by the European Commission and the Council as well as the decisions by the EC courts are in conformity with WTO law The author s findings are particularly relevant given the frequent use of antidumping measures by EU authorities especially as relates to Asian countries and he carefully documents areas where the EU infringes WTO law

Presumption of Innocence in EU Anti-Cartel Enforcement Aistè Mickonytè, 2018-11-26 In this monograph Aistè Mickonyt examines the compliance of the European anti cartel enforcement procedure with the presumption of innocence under Article 6 2 of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR The author maintains that the pursuit of manifestly severe punishment with insistence of the European Commission on administrative level procedural safeguards is inconsistent with the robust standards of protection under the Convention Arguing that EU anti cartel procedure is criminal within the meaning of the Convention this work considers this procedure in light of the core elements of the presumption of innocence such as the burden of proof and the principle of fault The author zeroes in on the de facto automatic liability of parental companies for offences committed by their subsidiaries

Reforming the Treaty on European Union Alfred E. Kellermann, Bruno de Witte, Deirdre M. Curtin, Jan A. Winter, 2023-07-10 The studies collected in this work are the updated and revised versions of the reports and commentaries presented at an international conference on European Law held in September 1995 The aim of the conference was to stimulate informed reflection and debate on a number of fundamental issues relating to the impending revision of the Treaty on European Union and to discuss the sort of sensible legal options and realistic avenues of thought that could assist those involved with the work of the actual Intergovernmental Council IGC The contributions are grouped around three major themes an exploration of the framework of the revision debate general institutional questions the general architecture of the Union and the scope of the powers of the Community and the Union Questions that are addressed in this work are among others Is it possible in the near future to simplify the procedure for amending the Treaty on European Union Is the objective of the European Union in the long term to become a European superstate a constitutional order of States or merely an advanced type of international organization What are the chances and pitfalls of allowing increased differentiated integration The book concludes with a comprehensive summing up and annexed are the Reflection Group s Report of 5 December 1995 as well as an extensive table of legal provisions and a table of cases
