Free Women Of Spain Anarchism And The Struggle For The Emancipation Of Women:

Free Women of Spain Martha A. Ackelsberg, 2005 With fists upraised Mujeres Libres struggled for their own emancipation and the freedom of all Women and Socialism - Socialism and Women Helmut Gruber, Pamela Graves, contributors, 1999-03-01 Until recently histories of women tended to be segregated from the larger historical context This pioneering volume places the role of women within the history of the interwar years when both the women's and socialist movements became prominent and raises the key question of how power was distributed between the genders in a historical setting The emblematic title of this volume highlights the fundamental conception of this comparative study of eleven West European countries that in the interwar decades two great movements gained in strength converged diverged competed and cooperated Each of these movements is viewed as a complex matrix of organized and unorganized participants However by far the most provocative questions deal with gender relations Central to these are definitions of femininity and masculinity in terms of mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion at the workplace in the home and in the political arena The mystique of the new woman in the 1920s and the 1930s challenged traditional notions of gender identity and relations not the least of which was the redefinition of the role of men The main issue addressed in this volume is not how male socialists dealt with the woman question or how women functioned in or outside left wing parties it rather centers on illustrating the power distribution between the sexes in specific political and cultural contexts This rigorously focused and coherent volume to which some of the best known scholars in the field have contributed will no doubt establish itself as the standard reference work for years to come Spanish Women's Writing 1849-1996 Catherine Davies, 2000-12-01 Traces the tradition of Spanish women's writing from the end of the Romantic period until the present day Professor Davies places the major authors within the changing political cultural and economic context of women's lives over the past century and a half with particular attention to women's accounts of female subjectivity in relation to the Spanish nation state government politics and the women's liberation movement Letterpress Revolution Kathy E. Ferguson, 2023-01-20 While the stock image of the anarchist as a masked bomber or brick thrower prevails in the public eye a more representative figure should be a printer at a printing press In Letterpress Revolution Kathy E. Ferguson explores the importance of printers whose materials galvanized anarchist movements across the United States and Great Britain from the late nineteenth century to the 1940s Ferguson shows how printers whether working at presses in homes offices or community centers arranged text ink images graphic markers and blank space within the architecture of the page Printers extensive correspondence with fellow anarchists and the radical ideas they published created dynamic and entangled networks that brought the decentralized anarchist movements together Printers and presses did more than report on the movement they were constitutive of it and their vitality in anarchist communities helps explain anarchism's remarkable persistence in the face of continuous harassment arrest assault deportation and exile By inquiring into the political material and aesthetic practices of anarchist print culture Ferguson points to possible methods for cultivating contemporary political resistance Gendering Spanish Democracy Mónica Threlfall, Christine Cousins, Celia Valiente Fernández, 2005 Addressing aspects of women's experience such as the public spheres of elective politics public policy making the labour market this book offers an up to date critical assessment of gender in Spain

Anarchafeminism Chiara Bottici, 2021-11-18 How can we be sure the oppressed do not become oppressors in their turn How can we create a feminism that doesn't turn into yet another tool for oppression It has become commonplace to argue that in order to fight the subjugation of women we have to unpack the ways different forms of oppression intersect with one another class race gender sexuality disability and ecology to name only a few By arguing that there is no single factor or arche explaining the oppression of women Chiara Bottici proposes a radical anarchafeminist philosophy inspired by two major claims that there is something specific to the oppression of women and that in order to fight that we need to untangle all other forms of oppression and the anthropocentrism they inhabit Anarchism needs feminism to address the continued subordination of all femina but feminism needs anarchism if it does not want to become the privilege of a few Anarchafeminism calls for a decolonial and deimperial position and for a renewed awareness of the somatic communism connecting all different life forms on the planet In this new revolutionary vision feminism does not mean the liberation of the lucky few but liberation for all living creatures from both capitalist exploitation and an androcentric politics of domination Either all or none of us will be free

Feminism and Motherhood in Western Europe, 1890-1970 A.

Allen,2005-06-30 According to Allen motherhood and citizenship are terms that are closely linked and have been redefined over the past century due to changes in women s status feminist movements and political developments Mother child relationships were greatly affected by political decisions during the early 1900s and the maternal role has been transformed over the years To understand the dilemmas faced by women concerning motherhood and work for example Allen argues that the problem must be examined in terms of its demographic and political development through history Allen highlights the feminist movements in Western Europe primarily Britain France Germany and the Netherlands and explores the implications of the maternal role for women s aspirations to the rights of citizenship Among the topics Allen explores the history of the maternal role psychoanalysis and theories on the mother child relationship changes in family law from 1890 1914 the economic status of mothers and reproductive responsibility

Irish Women's Prison Writing Red Washburn,2022-11-16 This book explores 50 years of Irish women s prison writing 1960s 2010s connecting the work of women leaders and writers in Northern Ireland during the Troubles This volume analyzes political communiqu s petitions news coverage prison files personal letters poetry and short prose and memoirs highlighting the personal correspondence auto biographical narratives and poetry of the following key women Bernadette McAliskey Eileen Hickey Mair ad Farrell S le Darragh Ella O Dwyer Martina Anderson Dolours Price Marian McGlinchey formerly Marian Price ine and Eibhl n Nic Giolla Easpaig Ann and Eileen Gillespie Roseleen Walsh and Margaretta D Arcy This text builds on different fields and discourses to reimagine gender and genre as central to an interdisciplinary and intersectional prison archive Centering Irish women s prison writings in order to challenge canonization in history and literature this volume argues that women s lives and words offer a different view of gender and nation as well as offer a fuller and more inclusive archive of Irish history and literature Additionally this book will point to the ways in which their politics of everyday life and their cultural work is a form of anti colonial civil rights feminism for it speaks truth to power in a world in which compliance and silence are valued Overall this text focuses on rethinking and recasting women s voices and words in order to document and promote the ongoing Irish freedom struggle from an abolitionist feminist perspective

Revolutionary Women

Queen of the Neighbourhood,2010-11-01 A radical feminist history and street art resource for inspired readers This book combines short biographies with striking and usable stencil images of thirty women activists anarchists feminists freedom fighters and visionaries It offers a subversive portrait history which refuses to belittle the military prowess and revolutionary drive of women whose violent resolves often shatter the archetype of woman as nurturer It is also a celebration of some extremely brave women who have spent their lives fighting for what they believe in and rallying supporters in climates where a woman's authority is never taken as seriously as a man's The text also shares some of each woman's ideologies philosophies struggles and quiet humanity with quotes from their writings or speeches The women featured are Harriet Tubman Louise Michel Vera Zasulich Emma Goldman Qiu Jin Nora Connolly O'Brien Lucia Sanchez Saornil Angela Davis Leila Khaled Comandante Ramona Phoolan Devi Ani Pachen Anna Mae Aquash Hannie Schaft Rosa Luxemburg Brigitte Mohnhaupt Lolita Lebron Djamila Bouhired Malalai Joya Vandana Shiva Olive Morris Assata Shakur Sylvia Rivera Hayd e Santamaría Marie Equi Mother Jones Doria Shafik Ondina Peteani Whina Cooper and Lucy Parsons

Memory and Totalitarianism Luisa Passerini, 2017-07-12 Understanding Europe's past became an urgent matter with the events of August 1991 in Moscow in the former Soviet Union The invasion of Moscow's streets by Russian people rejecting an attempted coup d'état was the culmination of a process that had been initiated years before and raised crucial questions To what extent can these events be considered the end of an era stretching from World War I to the 1980s when Europe experienced many forms of dictatorship To what extent can the various forms of dictatorship Europe experienced in the twentieth century be grouped together Can any sort of affinity be established between them The new introduction to the paperback edition of this volume in the Memory and Narrative series Leydesdorff and Crownshaw underline the fundamental importance of the struggle for memory and its meaning Memory and Totalitarianism explores the remembered experiences of individuals living under different totalitarian regimes and examines the construction of memory in the aftermath of those regimes collapse It attempts to situate the findings of oral history in the context of contemporary memory It wrestles with the most painful memories that Europeans have of this century at the end of the Cold War These memories compare with oral history's research into such experiences as racist attitudes against blacks in the South or the cultural and psychological effects of apartheid in South Africa or the Aborigines claim to their own history and to a new idea of history in Australia Totalitarianisms are products of the twentieth century that go far beyond earlier manifestations of absolutism and autocracy in their effort to completely control political social and intellectual life They were made possible by modern industrialism and technology Therefore the theme of the book expands to include many other experiences that relate to totalitarian mentalities
