Mapping European Empire Russell Foster, 2015-06-26 Empire and maps are mutually reliant phenomena and traceable to the dawn of civilisation Furthermore maps retain a supremely authoritative status as unquestioned reflections of reality In today s image saturated world their influence is more powerful now than at any other time in history This book argues that in the 21st century we are seeing an imperial renaissance in the European Union EU a political organisation which defies categorisation but whose power and influence grows by the year It examines the past present and future of the EU to demonstrate that empire is not a category of state but rather a collective imagination which reshapes history and appropriates an artificial past to validate the policies of the present and the ambitions of the future In doing so this book illuminates the imperial discourse that permeates the mass maps of the modern EU This text will be of key interest to students and scholars of political science EU Studies Human Geography European political history cartography and visual methodologies and international relations

Abraham's Altars and Ours Grant C Brown, 2023-03-01 Abraham s Altars and Ours is a great theological treatise and personal devotional and was written for several reasons First Grant Brown believes we need to be reminded that the altars Abraham erected during his lifetime were to commemorate Abraham s many experiences of God and using Abraham s example we should also preserve the remembrance of God s interventions in our own life and the life of our loved ones Secondly as you read this book you will be inspired and encouraged to see how the Lord personally and constantly involves himself in our life in many wonderful ways even when we find ourselves in the midst of trials and tribulations of one kind or another Finally as you continue to read the Lord will help you to choose which altars to build and also will help you tear down any ungodly ones you wish removed from your life
