Presenting America's World Tamar Y. Rothenberg, 2016-12-05 National Geographic magazine is probably the most visible and popular expression of geography in the USA Presenting America's World presents a critical analysis of the world portrayed by National Geographic from its formative years in the nineteenth century through to 1945 It situates the National Geographic Society's development within the context of a new American overseas expansionism interrogates the magazine as America's ubiquitous source of wholesome exotica and erotica examines the ways in which it framed the world for its millions of readers and questions its participation in the cultural work of US global hegemony The book argues that National Geographic successfully employed strategies of innocence a contradictory stance of representation which simultaneously asserts innocence either the innocence of just watching or the innocence of altruistic behaviour while naturalizing Western hegemony Presenting America's World not only considers the world that National Geographic presented to its readers but also examines the magazine's own institutional world of writers, photographers and editors. Particular attention is paid to Gilbert H. Grosvenor, the magazine's editor for over 50 years; Maynard Owen Williams, a writer and photographer who worked on nearly 100 articles from 1919 to 1960; and Harriet Chalmers Adams, a freelancer, explorer and Pan American activist who contributed 21 articles. Book Review Index, 2003 Vols 8-10 of the 1965-1984 master cumulation constitute a title index.
