Harry Seidler:

Harry Seidler Harry Seidler, Stephen Dobney, 1997 This volume records Harry Seidler's unique vital contribution to 20th century architecture art and design BOOK JACKET Houses and Interiors Vol 1 Harry Seidler, Chris Abel, The Images Publishing Group, 2003 No other architect in Australia's history has been as internationally influential or famous as Harry Seidler This work provides an insight into and an analysis of the designs selected by Seidler to be his most important

Harry Seidler, 1955/63 Harry Seidler, 1963 A Singular Vision: Harry Seidler Helen O'Neill, 2016-11-21 Harry Seidler a stylish decisive and highly opinionated man was a key figure in international modern architecture and in the establishment of post war modern design in Australia He emerged as Australia's preeminent architect the man who effectively shaped the look of modern urban Australia While many know his buildings few know his fascinating story Born in Austria to an affluent Jewish family his world fell apart when as a young boy he had to flee the looming Nazi threat Without family and without a word of English he escaped to England Later cruelly he was interned as an enemy alien during the war and sent to Canada During his time in the Canadian camp he virtually taught himself architecture and once the war was over studied in Canada and at Harvard in the United States His parents moved to Australia after the war and in 1948 Harry came to Australia in response to their invitation to design a house for them The house he built for them now known as the Rose Seidler House represented a huge shift in Australian modern domestic architecture It was soon followed by a succession of innovative house designs He followed these with ambitious towering office blocks such as Australia Square and the MLC Centre forever changing the skyline of Australia's cities Without Harry Seidler our cities and homes would look very very different Harry Seidler 1955-1963; Häuser Bauten und Grossprojekte Harry Seidler, 1963 Harry Seidler Kenneth Frampton, Philip Drew, Harry Seidler, 1992 Chronicles the work of the distinguished Australian architect born in Vienna in 1923 Gives a critical overview of Seidler's architectural development and includes a theoretical statement from him entitled Planning and Architecture at the End of Our Century Lavishly illustrated with rough sketches architectural drawings and colour and black and white photographs Harry Seidler, 1955/63: houses, buildings and projects, [French tr Harry Seidler, Frank Alderman, Harry Seidler LifeWork Vladimir Belogolovsky, 2014-04-01 A comprehensive survey of the work of a master of mid to late twentieth century modernist design Over the course of a career spanning more than five decades Australian architect Harry Seidler embarked upon a long series of dramatically innovative and sculptural houses with a rare sensitivity to site space and structure And while these soaring inspiring houses have been the source of Seidler's fame within architectural circles this book gives a complete view of this modern master's body of work for the first time Seidler is now widely acknowledged as a leading member of the postwar generation of modernists and one of the most influential architects of the twentieth century in the southern hemisphere With commissions not only in Australia but also in Austria France Israel Italy Mexico and Hong Kong since establishing his own practice in Sydney in 1948 his work has influenced the course of modernist design into the twenty first century Le Corbusier in the Antipodes Antony Moulis, 2020-12-30 This book considers the architect Le Corbusier's encounters with Australia and New Zealand as a two way exchange showing the impact of his ideas and projects on architects of the region whilst also revealing counterinfluences on Le Corbusier in his post war career that were activated by his contacts Compiled from detailed archival research undertaken at the Fondation Le Corbusier Paris and nationally based archives Le Corbusier in the Antipodes brings together a set of episodes placing them in context with the history of modern art architecture and urbanism in 20th century Australia and New Zealand Key exchanges between Le Corbusier and others never before described are presented and analyzed including Le Corbusier's contact with Australian architect Harry Seidler at Chandigarh Le Corbusier's drawing of the plan of Adelaide in 1950 and his creative collaboration with Jorn Utzon on art for the Sydney Opera House This book also includes analysis of previously unseen Le Corbusier artworks which formed part of the Utzon family collection In reading these personal and contingent moments of encounter the book puts forward new ways of understanding the dissemination and mediation of Le Corbusier's ideas and their effects in post war Australia and New Zealand These antipodean contacts are set against the broader story of Le Corbusier's career questioning received interpretations of his design methods and current assumptions about the influence of his work in national contexts beyond Europe Harry Seidler 1948-1985 Harry Seidler, Philip Drew, 1985* Conservation of Modern Architecture Susan Macdonald, Kyle C. Normandin, Bob Kindred, 2015-12-08 The importance of protecting significant buildings from decay and destruction would seem to be undeniable Yet whilst the majority of buildings of merit constructed before the Second World War have been highlighted as worthy of protection there is much indifference and in some cases hostility towards many important post war buildings These deserve to receive wider formal recognition but in many cases continue to be mistreated or even demolished This book examines many of the philosophical and practical issues surrounding the conservation of modern buildings and also the problems faced by building practitioners in dealing with buildings constructed in a wider range of styles and materials than at any other time Climate change in particular has forced change in the way in which we think about buildings with the pressures to address issues of energy efficiency becoming more urgent and likely to have consequences that may alter the perceived architectural and historic interest of modern and traditional buildings alike Harry Seidler Harry Seidler, 1963 Almost Full Circle Alice Spigelman, 2001 Biography of renowned Australian based architect Harry Seidler 1923 Details the personal political and artistic influences that shaped his life Explores his introduction to architecture as a schoolboy in Vienna and Canada his internment in Canada during the war his studies at Harvard his early work in architecture in New York and Brazil before migrating to Australia in 1948 and his often tendentious relationship with the critics Foreword by former Australian Prime Minister Gough Whitlam Introduction by Edmund Capon Director of the Art Gallery of New South Wales Includes photographs endnotes and index Harry Seidler Helen O'Neill, 2009-07-10 Harry Seidler, 1948-1990 Harry

Seidler, Monash Gallery of Art, Philip Drew, 1990 Dwell, 2008-06 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Douglas Snelling Davina

Jackson, 2016-12-01 Douglas Burrage Snelling 1916 85 was one of Britain s significant emigr architects and designers Born in Kent and educated in New Zealand he became one of Australia s leading mid century architects of luxury residences and commercial buildings and a trend setting designer of furniture interiors and landscapes This is the first comprehensive study of Snelling s pan Pacific life works and trans disciplinary significance It provides a critical examination of this controversial modernist revealing him to be a colourful and talented protagonist who led antipodean interpretations of American especially Wrightian and southern Californian architecture design and lifestyle innovations Harry Seidler and Associates, 200?
