Hastings And Main Stories:

Houses for All Jill Wade, 1994-01-01 Houses for All is the story of the struggle for social housing in Vancouver between 1919 and 1950. It argues that however temporary or limited their achievements, local activists played a significant role in the introduction, implementation, or continuation of many early national housing programs. Ottawa's housing initiatives were not always unilateral actions in the development of the welfare state. The drive for social housing in Vancouver complemented the tradition of housing activism that already existed in the United Kingdom and to a lesser degree in the United States.
