This is a relatively elegant craft that provides. Working with beads is a very rewarding and effective way of adding interest to your knitting, but it does require a little preparation. Before starting to knit, thread beads onto the yarn. To do this, thread a few sewing needles with sewing thread, knot the ends of the thread together and then pass the end of the yarn through this loop. Thread a bead onto the sewing thread and gently slide it along onto knitting yarn. Continue in this way until you have the required number of beads threaded onto the yarn.
