Past to Present William Stevenson, 2012-09-04 William Stevenson may be best known for his friendship with and books about another William Stephenson otherwise known as Intrepid whose spy network and secret diplomacy changed the course of history Originally published in 1976 A Man Called Intrepid sold over 2 million copies and quickly became a New York Times bestseller However readers will be just as fascinated by his life's story and adventures Stevenson chronicles the major events of his life beginning with his daring and dangerous time as a naval pilot during WWII flying a multitude of legendary aircraft Stringbag Tiger Moth Seafire Hellcats and learning various maneuvers in the skies enroute to Russia over England Canada Scotland and the Pacific After the war still yearning for adventure he returns to Canada to write for The Toronto Daily Star where he again meets William Stephenson aka Intrepid on assignment and develops a lifelong friendship Stevenson travels the globe visiting Hong Kong Delhi Kashmir Kenya Kuala Lumpur Moscow Thailand and many other exotic locals where he meets iconic figures such as Ian Fleming Prime Minister Nehru Ho Chi Minh Chiang Kai shek Mao Tse tung Zhou Enlai Tito Khrushchev and the King of Thailand among others Privy to confidential information full of international intrigue Stevenson is a living embodiment of modern history Past to Present with story after amazing story to tell will leave the reader breathless Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young s novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel Redbook ,1945 The American Catholic Who's who Georgina Pell Curtis, Benedict Elder, 1910 Pigot and co.'s national commercial directory for 1828-9, comprising a directory of the merchants, bankers, professional gentleman [&c.] in the counties of Cheshire, Cumberland [&c.]. Pigot James and co, 1828 The London Gazette Great Britain, 1814 CANNON FODDER Dr. Douglas M. Baker, 2014-04-16 CANNON FODDER An English Boy Raised and Blooded in the Cannon s Mouth Like many English couples exhausted and disenchanted after World War One Douglas Baker s mother and father emigrated with their children to South Africa searching for new opportunities to settle the restlessness that the war had engendered in them South Africa itself was a potpourri of races and cultures which offered opportunities that favoured some whilst allowing them to retain their very English culture Douglas himself born in England had to contend with conditions in the foreign land in which his family had chosen to raise him South Africa was a war torn nation where there had been 82 fiercely fought battles against indigenous peoples like the Zulus more recent settlers like the immigrant Boers German colonials and more recently rebellious elements bordering on civil war Added to this furore a mix of contending civilizations was the discovery of gold and diamonds on the Rand and at Kimberly which added to the excitement and competition It was through the English residents and Empire builders like Cecil Rhodes that the curse of Apartheid and its stark regulations were challenged Cannon Fodder is the prequel to War Wine Valour published in 2005 and documents the author's childhood up to his volunteering to fight for king and country during the Second World War Douglas Baker is a remarkable man and has written a remarkable book As an infantryman he rescued a wounded comrade at Gazala while under intensive cross fire In the carnage at Alamein a shell took away most of his right shoulder blade He retrained on Sherman tanks Near Florence an 88mm shell burst on his tank perforating his right lung and almost severing his left arm He absconded from hospital and fought once more at the front Although just one man's experience of the war it is a gift to the historian with its engrossing accounts and accurate detail It is also a fascinating insight into day to day events and personal feelings during this difficult time He is undecorated and receives no military pension from the British Government William Roach MBE Douglas Baker now in his eighty eighth year is a medical doctor academic and public speaker who has spent the past fifty years researching the hidden facets of human nature The second volume of the author's autobiography War Wine and Valour describes in vivid detail the six arduous years he spent in the British Armed forces during World War Two Born in England but raised in South Africa he responded to the threat of Nazism and barely sixteen years old enlisted in the Natal Mounted Rifles His regiment faced Axis forces on five fronts in Kenya Central Abyssinia Cyrenaica and with the British Eighth army he participated in the Battle of El Alamein in which he was dangerously wounded During the Italian Campaign he fought with the United States Fifth Army and again suffered near mortal injuries when his Sherman tank was hit with enemy shell fire Through six years of active service he came to understand the psychology of men at bay when confronted repeatedly with bombardment direct attack and sustained terror The experience of war evoked in him curiosity and discovery which led to the mastery of medicine at Sheffield University Interweaving the narrative are detailed descriptions and maps thoroughly researched of the major battles that the author and his comrades participated in Their first hand experience adds richness to these events This is a remarkable story of a remarkable man
