Hattie Carlton Jackson,1993-04-14 A biography of the life of Hattie the first black ever to win an Oscar and the first black woman to sing on radio Jet ,2001-07-23 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news

Hattie McDaniel Jill Watts,2007-02-06 Hattie McDaniel is best known for her performance as Mammy the sassy foil to Scarlett O Hara in Gone with the Wind Though the role called for yet another wide grinned subservient black domestic McDaniel transformed her character into one who was loyal yet subversive devoted yet bossy Her powerful performance would win her the Oscar for Best Supporting Actress and catapult the hopes of Black Hollywood that the entertainment industry after decades of stereotypical characters was finally ready to write more multidimensional fully realized roles for blacks But racism was so entrenched in Hollywood that despite pleas by organizations such as the NAACP and SAG and the very examples that Black service men were setting as they fought against Hitler in WWII roles for blacks continued to denigrate the African American experience So rather than see her stature increase in Hollywood as did other Oscar winning actresses Hattie McDaniel continued to play servants And rather than see her popularity increase her audience turned against her as an increasingly politicized black community criticized her and her peers for accepting degrading roles I d rather play a maid then be a maid Hattie McDaniel answered her critics but her flip response belied a woman who was herself emotionally conflicted about the roles she accepted but who tried to imbue each Mammy character with dignity and nuance Forgotten African American Firsts Hans Ostrom,J. David Macey Jr.,2023-03-16 Winner of the 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award This book introduces students to African American innovators and their contributions to art entertainment sports politics religion business and popular culture While the achievements of such individuals as Barack Obama Toni Morrison and Thurgood Marshall are well known many accomplished African Americans have been largely forgotten or deliberately erased from the historical record in America This volume introduces students to those African Americans whose successes in entertainment business sports politics and other fields remain poorly understood Dr Charles Drew whose pioneering research on blood transfusions saved thousands of lives during World War II Mae Jemison an engineer who in 1992 became the first African American woman to travel in outer space and Ethel Waters the first African American to star in her own television show are among those chronicled in Forgotten African American Firsts With nearly 150 entries across 17 categories this book has been carefully curated to showcase the inspiring stories of African Americans whose hard work courage and talent have led the course of history in the United States and around the world Every Step a Struggle Frank Manchel,2007 This book pays tribute to the sacrifices and achievements of seven individuals who made difficult and controversial choices to insure that black Americans shared in the evolution of the nation s cultural heritage Transcriptions and analyses of never before published uncensored conversations with Lorenzo Tucker Lillian Gish King Vidor Clarence Muse Woody Strode Charles Gordone and Frederick Douglass O Neal reveal many of the reasons and rationalizations behind a racist screen imagery in the first three quarters of the twentieth century This primary source replete with pictures documentation and extensive annotations recounts through the words of important participants what happened to many film pioneers when a new generation of African Americans rebelled against the nation's stereotyped film imagery A unique historical resource this book is a fitting tribute to these artists reminding us of their courage integrity and perseverance to succeed against great odds The thorough meticulous annotations make it an indispensable addition to collections in film studies and African American studies Denise Youngblood Professor of History University of Vermont The author has taken a unique approach and may have even created a new genre of writing the interview embellished with scholarly commentary It is a fascinating experiment This book belongs in every research library and in all public libraries from mid size to large cities It fills in lacunae between existing studies Peter C Rollins Editor in Chief of Film History

Dancing on the White Page Kwakiutl L. Dreher, 2008-01-10 Investigates the literary voices of six Black women entertainers and how they negotiated the tensions between the entertainment industries and the Black community The Coveted Westside Jennifer Mandel, 2022-03-29 From the middle of the nineteenth century as Euro Americans moved westward they carried with them long held prejudices against people of color By the time they reached the West Coast their new settlements included African Americans and recent Asian immigrants as well as the indigenous inhabitants and descendants of earlier Spanish and Mexican settlers The Coveted Westside deals with the settlement and development of Los Angeles in the context of its multiracial multiethnic population especially African Americans Mandel exposes the enduring struggle between Whites determined to establish their hegemony and create residential heterogeneity in the growing city and people of color equally determined to obtain full access to the city and the opportunities including residential that it offered Not only does this book document the Black homeowners fight against housing discrimination it shares personal accounts of Blacks efforts to settle in the highly desirable Westside of Los Angeles Mandel explores the White derived social and legal mechanisms that created this segregated city and the African American led movement that challenged efforts to block access to fair housing The Othering of Women in Silent Film Barbara Tapa Lupack, 2023-11-06 In The Othering of Women in Silent Film Cultural Historical and Literary Contexts Barbara Tapa Lupack explores the rampant racial and gender stereotyping depicted in early cinema demonstrating how those stereotypes helped shape American attitudes and practices Using social cultural literary and cinema history as a focus this book offers insights into issues of Othering including discrimination exclusion and sexism that are as timely today as they were a century ago Lupack not only examines the ways that dominant cinema of the era imprinted indelible and pejorative images of women including African Americans Native Americans Asians Hispanics and New Women Suffragists but also reveals the ways in which a number of pioneering early filmmakers and performers attempted to counter those depictions by challenging the imagery interrogating the stereotypes and re politicizing the familiar narratives Scholars of film gender history and race studies will find this book of particular
