Haunted Land Facing Europes Ghosts After Communism:

The Haunted Land Tina Rosenberg, 2010-11-24 The Pulitzer Prize winning look at the collapse of Communism in Eastern Europe

The Haunted Land Tina Rosenberg, 1997-05-20 In four newly democratic countries in Eastern Europe communism's former victims and jailers are struggling to make sense of their history and sometimes rewrite it In this groundbreaking stylishly reported book a journalist travels across the battlefields of memory and asks Who is guilty How should they be punished And who is qualified to judge them in states where almost every citizen was an accomplice In East Germany Tina Rosenberg follows the trial of the border guards charged with the last shooting at the Berlin Wall In the Czech Republic she meets a heroic dissident who has now been ostracized for having once cooperated with the old regime In Poland she speaks with General Wojciech Jaruzelski the one time architect of martial law who now presents himself as his country's savior Out of these stories of conscience and complicity courage and optimism The Haunted Land delivers the final chapter of the greatest moral drama of our time

The Guilt of Nations Elazar Barkan, 2001-10-09 The author takes a sweeping look at the idea of restitution and its impact on the concept of human rights and the practice of politics She confronts the difficulties of determining victims and assigning blame

Transitional Justice in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union Lavinia Stan, 2009-01-13 This book examines transitional justice in Eastern Europe and the former USSR exploring their attempts to come to terms with the gross human abuses which characterized their communist past It considers transitional justice in all its aspects explaining why different countries adopted different models and how successful they have been

Agrarianism as Modernity in 20th-Century Europe Alex Toshkov, 2019-09-05 Whilst Soviet communism and its relationship with modernity has been widely studied to date the agrarian experiment in Eastern Europe has been relegated to the margins of historical analysis In this comparative study Alex Toshkov uncovers the history of agrarianism after the First World War and explores its place as an alternative modernity to liberal democracy and capitalism Drawing on a wealth of archival material this book explores the transnational connections between the paradigmatic cases of Bulgaria Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia as well as the International Agrarian Bureau in Prague teasing out contradictions hidden records and silenced interpretations of agrarianism In addition it uses a microhistorical approach to present an innovative theoretical framework which adds to our understanding of nationalism political corruption and alterity and the subaltern This fascinating study restores interwar agrarianism to its rightful place as one of the most original and significant political currents in 20th century Europe

Perpetrators, Accomplices and Victims in Twentieth-Century Politics Anatoly M. Khazanov, Stanley Payne, 2013-09-13 These studies examine the ways in which succeeding democratic regimes have dealt with or have ignored and in several cases sugar coated an authoritarian or totalitarian past from 1943 to the present They treat the relationship with democratization and the different ways in which collective memory is formed and dealt with or ignored and suppressed Previous books have examined only restricted sets of countries such as western or eastern Europe or

Latin America The present volume treats a broader range of cases than any preceding account and also a much broader time span investigating diverse historical and cultural contexts and the role of national identity and nationalism studying the aftermath of both fascist and communist regimes in both Europe and Asia in an interdisciplinary framework while the conclusion provides a more complete comparative perspective than will be found in any other work The book will be of interest to historians and political scientists and to those interested in fascism communism legacies of war democratization collective memory and transitional justice This book was previously published as a special issue of Totalitarian Movements and Political Religions

The Romanian Revolution of December 1989 Peter Siani-Davies, 2007 The Romanian Revolution of 1989 was the most spectacularly violent and remains today the most controversial of all the East European upheavals of that year Despite or perhaps because of the media attention the revolution received it remains shrouded in mystery How did the seemingly impregnable Ceausescu regime come to be toppled so swiftly and how did Ion Iliescu and the National Salvation Front come to power Was it by coup d'état Who were the mysterious terrorists who wreaked such havoc on the streets of Bucharest and the other major cities of Romania Were they members of the notorious securitate What was the role of the Soviet Union Blending narrative with analysis Peter Siani Davies seeks to answer these and other questions while placing the events and their immediate aftermath within a wider context Based on fieldwork conducted in Romania and drawing heavily on Romanian sources including television and radio transcripts official documents newspaper reports and interviews this book is the most thorough study of the Romanian Revolution that has appeared in English or any other major European language Recognizing that a definitive history of these events may be impossible Siani Davies focuses on the ways in which participants interpreted the events according to particular scripts and myths of revolution rooted in the Romanian historical experience In the process the author sheds light on the ways in which history and the conflicting retellings of the 1989 events are put to political use in the transitional societies of Eastern Europe

Health and Social Change in Russia and Eastern Europe William C. Cockerham, 2002-05-03 Examines the social causes of the decline in life expectancy in Russia and Eastern Europe Countries discussed include Russia Poland Hungary Romania Bulgaria the Czech Republic and East Germany

Focus: Music, Nationalism, and the Making of the New Europe Philip V. Bohlman, 2010-09-13 Two decades after the fall of communism in Eastern Europe and one decade into the twenty first century European music remains one of the most powerful forces for shaping nationalism Using intensive fieldwork throughout Europe from participation in alpine foot pilgrimages to studies of the grandest music spectacle anywhere in the world the Eurovision Song Contest Philip V Bohlman reveals the ways in which music and nationalism intersect in the shaping of the New Europe Focus Music Nationalism and the Making of the New Europe begins with the emergence of the European nation state in the Middle Ages and extends across long periods during which Europe's nations used music to compete for land and language and to expand the colonial reach of Europe to the entire world Bohlman contrasts the national and the nationalist in music examining the ways in which their impact on society can be positive and negative beneficial for European cultural policy and dangerous in times when many European borders are more fragile than ever The New Europe of the twenty first century is more varied more complex and more politically volatile than ever and its music resonates fully with these transformations 1989 M. E.

Sarotte,2009-10-04 1989 explores the momentous events following the fall of the Berlin Wall and the effects they have had on our world ever since Based on documents interviews and television broadcasts from Washington London Paris Bonn Berlin Warsaw Moscow and a dozen other locations 1989 describes how Germany unified NATO expansion began and Russia got left on the periphery of the new Europe This updated edition contains a new afterword with the most recent evidence on the 1990 origins of NATO s post Cold War expansion From Old Times to New Europe Agata Fijalkowski,2016-04-22 From Old Times to New Europe considers the post totalitarian legal framework in today s Europe arguing that the study of totalitarianism and post totalitarianism continues to be significant as ever Drawing mainly on the Polish experience this analysis focuses on the significant part played by history in the development of the region s identity and preferences concerning the role of the state in public and private life It examines the political socio economic and legal aspects of key events and draws comparisons with other CEE states whilst implementing key socio legal theories to explain trends and strains in this post Communist and post totalitarian period With the benefit of access to archival sources in Poland and Russia this book will be of interest to students and researchers of European law law and society and international criminal justice

The Political Economy of Transition in Central and Eastern Europe Jens Bastian,2019-06-04 First published in 1998 this volume contributes to the debate after the fall of the Soviet Union on the transition of Eastern European former Soviet countries to a market economy The transition was an enterprise as daring in practice and historically unprecedented as it is an analytical laboratory subject to constant reflection The first two chapters address foreign direct investment in Central and Eastern European countries The rebuilding of social insurance systems is then addressed with a focus on state pension schemes The subsequent two chapters examine the political and demographic features of transition countries highlighting media reform as a key aspect for the consolidation of a democratic law based market economy and society Focus then turns to Poland the country which is considered to display the most progress in the political economy of transition Finally the controversial issue of the electoral successes of former Communist parties in Central and Eastern Europe is discussed

Legal Symbolism Jiří Přibáň,2016-04-22 Jir Prib n s book contributes to the field of systems theory of law in the context of European legal and political integration and constitution making It puts recent European legislative efforts and policies especially the EU enlargement process in the context of legal theory and philosophy Furthermore the author shows that the system of positive law has a symbolic meaning reflecting how it also contributes to the semantics of political identity democratic power and moral values as well as the complex relations between law politics and morality Human Rights in

authoritative overview of the place of human rights in international politics in an age of terrorism The book focuses on four central themes the resilience of human rights norms the importance of soft law the key role of non governmental organizations and the changing nature of state sovereignty Human rights standards are examined according to global regional and national levels of analysis with a separate chapter dedicated to transnational corporations This second edition has been updated to reflect recent events notably the creation of the ICC and events in Iraq and Guantanamo Bay and new sections have been added on subjects such as the correlation between world conditions and the fate of universal human rights Containing chapter by chapter guides to further reading and discussion questions this book will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students of human rights and their teachers David Forsythe received the Distinguished Scholar Award for 2007 from the Human Rights Section of the American Political Science Association     The Chancellor Kati Marton,2022-10-11 A biography of German Chancellor Angela Merkel detailing the rise and political brilliance of the most powerful and elusive woman in the world The book is at once a political biography and an intimate human story of a complete outsider a research chemist and pastor s daughter raised in Soviet controlled East Germany who rose to become the unofficial leader of the West Biographer Kati Marton set out to pierce the mystery of how Angela Merkel achieved all this and she found the answer in Merkel s political genius     Altering States Daphne Berdahl,Matti Bunzl,Martha Lampland,2000 Analyzes the social and cultural aspects of transition     Justice Framed Marcos Zunino,2019-03-14 Why are certain responses to past human rights violations considered instances of transitional justice while others are disregarded This study interrogates the history of the discourse and practice of the field to answer that question Zunino argues that a number of characteristics inherited as transitional justice emerged as a discourse in the 1980s and 1990s have shaped which practices of the present and the past are now regarded as valid responses to past human rights violations He traces these influential characteristics from Argentina s transition to democracy in 1983 the end of communism in Eastern Europe the development of international criminal justice and the South African truth commission of 1995 Through an analysis of the post World War II period the decolonisation process and the Cold War Zunino identifies a series of episodes and mechanisms omitted from the history of transitional justice because they did not conform to its accepted characteristics     A Miracle, A Universe Lawrence Weschler,1998-07 I A MIRACLE A UNIVERSE     Stay the Hand of Vengeance Gary Jonathan Bass,2002-01-15 Stay The Hand Of Vengeance is a systematic and comparative account of the politics of international war crimes tribunals     Democracy and Democratization John D Nagle,Alison Mahr,1999-05-28 This wide ranging overview of the processes of democratization in post Communist Europe places the transitions in East Central Europe within a broad European and global context The authors begin with a introduction to the concept and theories of democracy and then examine the emerging politics of the new democracies to set the post Communist transitions in longer term comparative perspective with earlier and existing processes of democratization in Southern Europe Latin America and East and Southeast Asia Finally the politics of EU accession are introduced to place the transitions within the wider context of European integration Concluding with a summary of recent critiques of modern democ
