Hausa Readings Selections From Edgars Tatsuniyoyi

Glenda Abramson, Hilary Kilpatrick

Hausa Readings Selections From Edgars Tatsuniyoyi:

Hausa Readings Frank Edgar, 1968 Selections from the author's work Litafi na Tatsuniyoyi na Hausa originally published in three volumes between 1910 and 1913

Hausa Philip J. Jaggar, 2001-12-19 Hausa is a major world language spoken as a mother tongue by more than 30 million people in northern Nigeria and southern parts of Niger in addition to diaspora communities of traders Muslim scholars and immigrants in urban areas of West Africa e.g. southern Nigeria Ghana and Togo and the Blue Nile province of the Sudan It is also widely spoken as a second language and has expanded rapidly as a lingua franca Hausa is a member of the Chadic language family which together with Semitic Cushitic Omotic Berber and Ancient Egyptian is a coordinate branch of the Afroasiatic phylum This comprehensive reference grammar consists of sixteen chapters which together provide a detailed and up to date description of the core structural properties of the language in theory neutral terms thus guaranteeing its ongoing accessibility to researchers in linguistic typology and universals

The Languages of West Africa Diedrich Westermann, M. A. Bryan, 2017-09-22 This volume originally published in 1970 presents a survey of the languages spoken in an area extending from the Atlantic coast at the Sengal River eastward to the Lake Chad region The area covered by this volume is mainly a geographical one so it follows that not all the languages included are related to one another though a certain degree of homogeneity appears

Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Jewish Literatures Glenda Abramson, Hilary Kilpatrick, 2006 This book brings together fascinating discussions of the way in which Muslim and Jewish beliefs and practices are represented in modern literary texts of poetry fiction and drama The chapters collected here consider elements of the expression of Judaism and Islam in modern literature Key topics such as religious ideas and teachings aspects of mysticism the tenets of religion uses made of sacred texts religion and popular culture and reflections of religious controversies are covered While there is an embodied comparative element to the chapters the essays are not confined by comparisons and cover a wide range of the literary expression of religious issues With contributions from a group of international scholars all of whom are experts in the field and each of whom has brought a particular perspective to the topic this book is a significant contribution to and will stimulate further research on the various literatures treated reflection on comparative work on these two cultural traditions and new interest in literary expressions of religion and religiousness in general

Writing through the Visual and Virtual Renée Larrier, Ousseina Alidou, 2015-11-12 Writing Through the Visual and Virtual Inscribing Language Literature and Culture in Francophone Africa and the Caribbean interrogates conventional notions of writing The contributors whose disciplines include anthropology art history education film history linguistics literature performance studies philosophy sociology translation and visual arts examine the complex interplay between language literature arts and the visual and virtual domains of expressive culture The twenty five essays explore various patterns of writing practices arising from contemporary and historical forces that have impacted the literatures and cultures of Benin Cameroon Cote d'Ivoire Egypt Guadeloupe Haiti Martinique Morocco Niger

Reunion Island and Senegal Special attention is paid to how scripts though appearing to be merely decorative in function are often used by artists and performers in the production of material and non material culture to tell stories of great significance co mingling words and images in a way that leads to a creative synthesis that links the local and the global the classical and the popular in new ways

Telling Stories, Making Histories Mary Wren Bivins,2007-03-30 Through reconstruction of oral testimony folk stories and poetry the true history of Hausa women and their reception of Islam s vision of Muslim in Western Africa have been uncovered Mary Wren Bivins is the first author to locate and examine the oral texts of the 19th century Hausa women and challenge the written documentation of the Sokoto Caliphate The personal narratives and folk stories reveal the importance of illiterate non elite women to the history of jihad and the assimilation of normative Islam in rural Hausaland The captivating lives of the Hausa are captured shedding light on their ordinary existence as wives mothers and providers for their family on the eve of European colonial conquest

Engaging Modernity Ousseina D. Alidou,2005-11-14 Engaging Modernity is Ousseina Alidou s rich and compelling portrait of Muslim women in Niger as they confront the challenges and opportunities of the twentieth century Contrary to Western stereotypes of passive subordination these women are taking control of their own lives and resisting domination from indigenous traditions westernization and Islam alike Based on thorough scholarly research and extensive fieldwork including a wealth of interviews Alidou s work offers insights into the meaning of modernity for Muslim women in Niger Mixing biography with sociological data social theory and linguistic analysis this is a multilayered vision of political Islam education popular culture and war and its aftermath A gripping look at one of the Muslim world s most powerful untold stories Runner up for the Aidoo Snyder Book Prize Women s Caucus of the African Studies Association

The Arts and Crafts of Literacy Andrea Brigaglia, Mauro Nobili,2017-09-25 During the last two decades the re discovery of thousands of manuscripts in different regions of sub Saharan Africa has questioned the long standing approach of Africa as a continent only characterized by orality and legitimately assigned to the continent the status of a civilization of written literacy However most of the existing studies mainly aim at serving literary and historical purposes and focus only on the textual dimension of the manuscripts This book advances on the contrary a holistic approach to the study of these manuscripts and gather contributions on the different dimensions of the manuscript i e the materials the technologies the practices and the communities involved in the production commercialization circulation preservation and consumption The originality of this book is found in its methodological approach as well as its comparative geographic focus presenting studies on a continental scale including regions formerly neglected by existing scholarship provides a unique opportunity to expand our still scanty knowledge of the different manuscript cultures that the African continent has developed and that often can still be considered as living traditions

Black Africa V. Klima, K.F. Ruzicka, P. Zima, 2012-12-06 In October 1972 our Czech written book Literatury eerne Afriky Literatures of Black Africa was published in Prague presenting a survey of an extensive field The publication which was signed at that time by all three authors differed from most contemporary introductions to the study of African literatures in a threefold way a The authors attempted to cover various literacy and literary efforts in the area roughly delimited by Senegal in the west Kenya in the east Lake Chad in the north and the Cape in the south We were well aware even at that time that neither technically nor linguistically would it be possible to cover all literary efforts within that area We did try however to include in our survey both the literacies and literatures written in the Indo European languages English French Portuguese and in at least several of the major African languages of the area We did not attempt an exhaustive description but wished rather to show the mutual relationships which emerge if the literatures of this area written either in the major languages or in the African languages are studied not as isolated phenomena but as mutually complementary features b As two of us were linguists and one was a literary historian we did not limit our analysis of the developing literacies and literatures to the purely cultural and literary aspects Our intention was to deal where and if it was relevant not only with the process of African literary development but also with the simultaneous complementary
