Having It All? Veronica Chambers,2007-12-18 A behind the scenes look into the lives of successful middle and upper middle class African American women the groundbreaking HAVING IT ALL is sure to spark discussions from cocktail parties to boardrooms In a single generation black women have made extraordinary strides academically professionally and financially They ve entered the workplace at a far greater rate than white women increased their enrollment in law schools and graduate programs by 120 percent and many are now running top companies or in some cases the country Isn t that enough Not necessarily With sharp insight award winning journalist Veronica Chambers explores the challenges and stereotypes she and other African American women continue to endure and answers the question most often posed to her What does success mean for black women Twenty first century black women draw their inspiration from a wide range of sources Claire Huxtable to Audrey Hepburn snowboarding to basketball Gloria Steinem to bell hooks They choose what they like Yet they are misunderstood by mainstream America and lack an accurate portrayal in the media of their lives HAVING IT ALL interweaves the thoughts and reflections of more than fifty women who occupy this territory The voices range from Thelma Golden chief curator of The Studio Museum in Harlem to a Silicon Valley executive to medical and legal professionals and stay at home mocha moms Successful black women today want it all marriage motherhood engaging work and prosperity The difference is that they come to the table with the strength courage and wisdom of black women ancestors who did it all even when they didn't have it all What has gone so undocumented by the media is that modern black women are coming up with creative satisfying answers to the juggling act that all women face Veronica Chambers chronicles this topic for the first time in her absorbing riveting and groundbreaking book HAVING IT ALL Having It All Corinne Low, PhD, 2025-09-23 You're not imagining it Women aren't getting a good deal at home or at work We have the evidence to prove it This book gives you the power to change it For women in America today the promise of having it all is an ever elusive carrot Faced with unsustainable demands in every sphere we are certainly doing it all but at a steep cost Research shows that biologically culturally and economically we are on uneven playing ground and one that drains us of our happiness But that same data can empower us to make choices that will reclaim our time our energy and even our joy In Having It All Wharton professor and economist Dr Corinne Low unpacks the hidden factors that influence women's decision making and how the unintended consequences of these choices alter the course of our lives From when and whether to get married and or have children to what type of career to pursue whether to obtain an advanced degree to where to live Dr Low explores questions such as What if there is no optimal time to have a family but rather a slew of different considerations at different life stages What if we approached decisions around marriage and partnership as rigorously as we would an employment opportunity What if we valued our time in dollars and cents and structured our lives around choices that give us the greatest return on our investments For too long women have been expected to accept labor intensive solutions to systemic problems optimize lean in work harder But Dr Low isn't suggesting women need to do more In the tradition of bestselling books like Eve Rodsky's Fair Play and Emily Oster's Cribsheet Having It All blends personal experience research and analysis to illuminate the complex decisions women face and offers an evidence based framework for creating a better happier life Consider it the essential economics textbook for life as a woman but hopefully a little more fun HAVING IT ALL Roz Denny Fox, 2011-07-15 FAMILY MAN Love family success Can you really have it all Garrett Lock wants it all He's a single father with a child he adores He had a successful career And now he wants a second chance at marriage another shot at love with Sherry Campbell Despite her desire for a family Sherry doesn't believe that love and independence are compatible But when Garrett becomes her boss and her neighbor she starts to question her assumptions falling first for his eight year old son and then for him She and Garrett both find there's more than one way to get what you want With a little bit of compromise and a lot of trust you can have it all Having It All Sarah Jane Butfield,2022-09-14 Having it all but at what cost for a career nurse and devoted mother When one of my early mentors suggested that my nursing qualification as a Registered General Nurse would be my ticket to Having It All I could not envisage what that would mean for me As a nurse and a woman who intended to have a family I did not think too far ahead and any thoughts on how it would manifest itself in relation to my nursing career were limited to family friendly options However this phrase became embedded in my subconscious and would end up influencing my goals dreams and aspirations both personally and professionally For me having it all was not based on greed or a materialistic wish list instead it described the tight rope walk that was my life a finely balanced juggling act between my career and my family The truth was that I had survived a period in my life that physically and emotionally pushed me to the edge and I was literally saved by the deep seated love for my children Now as I looked forward there was a ray of light beckoning and telling me it was time to start over Might this be my happy ever after at last
