Harriet Jacobs Harriet A. Jacobs, 1994-04-01 Essay on Harriet Jacobs autobiography „Incidents of a Slave girl“. How was Linda's family affected by slavery? , 2016-04-11 Essay from the year 2010 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 2 University of Frankfurt Main language English abstract This essay on Harriet Jacobs autobiography Incidents of a Slave girl looks at how Linda Brent s family who is the protagonist in the story is affected by her life as a slave Harriet Jacobs uses the pseudonym Linda Brent for herself in her autobiography written in 1861 Pseudonyms are also used throughout the narrative to describe the other characters in the book Linda s mistress the daughter of her grandmothers mistress was nourished from Aunt Martha s grandmother s breast as well as Linda s mother The young mistress was the foster sister of Linda they spend their childhood together and played together as if they were normal siblings By the age of six from the talk around her Linda learns as a child that she is a slave So when Linda gets older she has to serve her foster sister and the relationship changes Linda in some cases at first grew up very privileged compared to other slaves By her mistress she is taught to read and to write For those reasons Linda mentions that she tries not to be angry at her mistress when she dies and still leaves Linda in the status as a slave

Life of a Slave Girl Harriet Jacobs, 2016-05-08 Reader be assured this narrative is no fiction I am aware that some of my adventures may seem incredible but they are nevertheless strictly true I have not exaggerated the wrongs inflicted by Slavery on the contrary my descriptions fall far short of the facts I have concealed the names of places and given persons fictitious names I had no motive for secrecy on my own account but I deemed it kind and considerate towards others to pursue this course I wish I were more competent to the task I have undertaken But I trust my readers will excuse deficiencies in consideration of circumstances I was born and reared in Slavery and I remained in a Slave State twenty seven years Since I have been at the North it has been necessary for me to work diligently for my own support and the education of my children This has not left me much leisure to make up for the loss of early opportunities to improve myself and it has compelled me to write these pages at irregular intervals whenever I could snatch an hour from household duties When I first arrived in Philadelphia Bishop Paine advised me to publish a sketch of my life but I told him I was altogether incompetent to such an undertaking Though I have improved my mind somewhat since that time I still remain of the same opinion but I trust my motives will excuse what might otherwise seem presumptuous I have not written my experiences in order to attract attention to myself on the contrary it would have been more pleasant to me to have been silent about my own history Neither do I care to excite sympathy for my own sufferings But I do earnestly desire to arouse the women of the North to a realizing sense of the condition of two millions of women at the South still in bondage suffering what I suffered and most of them far worse I want to add my testimony to that of abler pens to convince the people of the Free States what Slavery really is Only by experience can any one realize how deep and dark and foul is that pit of abominations May the blessing of God rest on this imperfect effort in behalf of my persecuted people Linda Brent AKA Harriet Jacobs

my mother died and then for the first time I learned by the talk around me that I was a slave My mother s mistress was the daughter of my grandmother s mistress She was the foster sister of my mother they were both nourished at my grandmother s breast In fact my mother had been weaned at three months old that the babe of the mistress might obtain sufficient food They played together as children and when they became women my mother was a most faithful servant to her whiter foster sister On her death bed her mistress promised that her children should never suffer for any thing and during her lifetime she kept her word They all spoke kindly of my dead mother who had been a slave merely in name but in nature was noble and womanly Reader my story ends with freedom not in the usual way with marriage I and my children are now free We are as free from the power of slaveholders as are the white people of the north and though that according to my ideas is not saying a great deal it is a vast improvement in my condition The dream of my life is not yet realized I do not sit with my children in a home of my own I still long for a hearthstone of my own however humble I wish it for my children s sake far more than for my own But God so orders circumstances as to keep me with my friend Mrs Bruce Love duty gratitude also bind me to her side It is a privilege to serve her who pities my oppressed people and who has bestowed the inestimable boon of freedom on me and my children It has been painful to me in many ways to recall the dreary years I passed in bondage I would gladly forget them if I could Yet the retrospection is not altogether without solace for with those gloomy recollections come tender memories of my good old grandmother like light fleecy clouds floating over a dark and troubled sea
