George Lillie Craik, Charles MacFarlane

Harrow A Pictorial History:

Harrow Dennis F. Edwards,1993-01-01 A Pictorial History of the Brillharts of America John A. Brillhart,1926

The Pictorial History of England: The British and Roman period, from B.C. 55 to A.D. 449. The period from the arrival of the Saxons to the arrival of the Normans, A.D. 449 George Lillie Craik,Charles MacFarlane,1846 The Pageant of America, a Pictorial History of the United States ,1929 The pictorial history of Scotland, A.D.79-1746. 6 vols. [in 3]. James Taylor,1887 The Pictorial History of England George Lillie Craik,Charles MacFarlane,1838 The Pictorial History of England: Being a History of the People, as Well as a History of the Kingdom (to the Accession of George III). Illustrated with Many Hundred Wood-cuts, Etc. [By C. MacFarlane and Others. Edited by G. L. Craik.] George Lillie Craik,1838 Edgware Through Time Joshua Thomas,2023-11-15 This fascinating set of photographs shows how Edgware has changed and developed over the last century Jack Robertson and Syd Brown: More Than Just The Warm-Up Act Chris Overson,2013-05-01 North London cricket followers turned to their morning newspapers for eleven summers in 1939 and from 1946 to 1955 to see how Robertson J D and Brown S M had fared as the Middlesex opening batsmen They were not often disappointed The pair opened the batting 366 times and their partnerships put on 14 116 runs reaching 100 runs or more on 35 occasions As memories of their endeavours fade cricket enthusiasts nowadays have perhaps typecast them as the warm up act to the prodigious talents of Bill Edrich and Denis Compton But they were more than that Even that curmudgeonly old critic E M Wellings thought Jack a beautifully fluent stroke maker and Syd a splendid county batsman He thought selectors looked too hard for flaws in Jack s top class batting technique thus restricting him to 11 test matches and he reckoned Syd to be among the finest fielders in the deep Using material from a wide range of sources Chris Overson here writes on their early influences their almost simultaneous start at Lord s in 1934 their inevitable cricketing ups and downs often in those days before crowds of 10 000 or more and their lives after they had left the field of play Lost Elysium? Richard Piper,2005 Lost Elysium quotes extensively from contemporary sources and is illustrated in colour with images from the beginnings of Metro land s development and new photographs of Middlesex today In addition following in the footsteps of Nikolaus Pevsner Richard Piper has trodden the streets and footpaths of six Metro land villages Wembley Harrow Pinner Eastcote Ruislip and Ickenham recording what he saw there and giving his impressions and opinions Piper s conclusions give insight into the long term results of urban and suburban planning policy There are many lessons to be learned here as pressure to provide housing increases especially in the south east of England BOOK JACKET The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1876 Researching London's Houses Colin Thom,2005 New Arrivals in American Local History and Genealogy, Quarterly List Sutro Library,1995 Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright,2025-10-27 This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre Modern Islamic world These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins vessels and books to major constructions including mosques tombs castles dams and canal systems The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record Object based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period To demonstrate these points each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned made used adapted and exchanged The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects employing perspectives from the fields of art history archaeology numismatics ethnography and epigraphy Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction an extensive glossary a timeline and guide for further reading the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political economic social cultural religious and intellectual histories of the Islamic world International Sport: A Bibliography, 1995-1999 Richard William Cox,2004-04-22

There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new The Old English Manor Charles McLean Andrews,1892 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000 The Journal of Education ,1914 John Betjeman Greg Morse,2012 John Betjeman was undoubtedly the most popular Poet Laureate since Tennyson But beneath the thoroughly modern window on Britain that he opened during his lifetime lay the influence of his nineteenth century forbears This book explores his identity through such Victorianism via the verse of that period but also its architecture religious faith and more importantly religious doubt It was nevertheless a process which took time In the 1930s Betjeman s work was tinted with modernism and traditionalism He found Victorian buildings funny and wrote much in praise of the Bauhaus style even though his early poetry was peppered with Victorian references This leaning was incorporated into a greater sense of purpose during World War 2 when he transformed himself from precious humorist into propagandist The resulting sense of cohesion grew when the dangers of post war urban redevelopment heightened the need to critique the present via the poetics of the past a mood which continued up to and beyond his gaining the Laureateship in 1972 This duty proved to be a millstone so the official poems are thus explored by the author more fully than hitherto The conclusion of looks back to Betjeman s 1960 verse autobiography Summoned by Bells which is seen as the apogee of his achievement and a snapshot of his identity Included here is the first critical appreciation of the lyrics embodied within the text which are taken as a map of the young poet's literary growth Larkin's 1959 question 'What exactly is Betjeman' then leads to a final appraisal of his originality as evidenced by his glances towards postmodernism feminism and post colonialism The fact is that Betjeman never quite fits in anywhere He is always a square peg in a round hole or a round peg in a square hole often for the sheer enjoyment of so being In a sense his desire to be as non conformist as a Quaker meeting house makes him a radical rather than the reactionary that his interests imply He was a champion of beauty and the British Isles and clearly did much to make us see the worth of our Victorian forebears Greg Morse's book highlights this important facet of his work American Agriculturist ,1865
