Harry Eine Abrechnung:

A Companion to Twentieth-Century German Literature Raymond Furness, Malcolm Humble, 2003-09-02 Containing entries on over four hundred authors of fiction poetry and drama from Germany Austria and Switzerland this invaluable work of reference presents material of a range and depth that no other book on the subject in English attains For the second edition the entries have been updated to include the most recent works of German literature A number of new entries have been added dealing in particular with the East German literary scene and the changing literary landscape after reunification In addition to basic biographical facts the Companion offers summaries information on involvement in literary groups and political developments schools and movements critical terms and aspects of the other arts including film

Classical Music in Weimar Germany Brendan Fay, 2019-10-03 From Hitler's notorious fondness for Wagner's operas to classical music's role in fuelling German chauvinism in the era of the world wars many observers have pointed to a distinct relationship between German culture and reactionary politics In Classical Music in Weimar Germany Brendan Fay challenges this paradigm by reassessing the relationship between conservative musical culture and German politics Drawing upon a range of archival sources concert reviews and satirical cartoons Fay maps the complex path of classical music culture from Weimar to Nazi Germany a trajectory that was more crooked uneven or broken than straight Through an examination of topics as varied as radio and race to nationalism this book demonstrates the diversity of competing aesthetic philosophical and political ideals held by German music critics that were a hallmark of Weimar Germany Rather than seeing the cultural conservatism of this period as a natural prelude for the violence and destruction later unleashed by Nazism this fascinating book sheds new light on traditional culture and its relationship to the rise of Nazism in 20th century Germany

One Who Loves Knowledge Betsy Bryan, Christina DiCerbo, Marina Escolano-Poveda, Mark Smith, Jill S. Waller, 2022-12-01 The thirty nine articles in this volume One Who Loves Knowledge have been contributed by colleagues students friends and family in honor of Richard Jasnow professor of Egyptology at Johns Hopkins University Despite his claiming to be just a demoticist Richard Jasnow's research interests and specialties are broad spanning religious and historical topics along with new editions of demotic texts including most particularly the Book of Thoth A number of the authors demonstrate their appreciation for Jasnow's contributions to the understanding of this difficult text The volume also includes other studies on literature Ptolemaic history and even the god Thoth himself and features detailed images and abundant hieroglyphic hieratic demotic Coptic and Greek texts

Modern Austrian Prose Paul F. Dvorak, 2001 The sixteen articles compiled here are devoted to individual prose works published after 1970 that reflect the Austrian tradition within the field of German literature The works treated include those of the popular and widely recognisable names of world renowned writers such as Peter Handke Thomas Bernhard Ingeborg Bachmann and Nobel Prize winner Elias Canetti as well as of less well known figures Collectively these authors display a distinctly Austrian point of view they are the literary voice of modern day Austria a country whose cultural and artistic achievements are often too casually subsumed under the more general German rubric The authors and their works clearly demonstrate that Austria has made and continues to make a unique contribution to modern German language literature and to world literature that is greatly disproportionate to its modest size and population The essays in this volume have been written by experts in the field of Austrian cultural and literary studies With but one exception the works they present are readily available in English translation The essays reveal a variety of interpretative perspectives but all share the common goal of explicating a single literary text for a diverse readership interested in the modern literary scene WIR:

Writings on Media, Propaganda, and Political Communication Siegfried Kracauer, 2022-05-17 Siegfried Kracauer stands out as one of the most significant theorists and critics of the twentieth century acclaimed for his analyses of film and popular culture However his writing on propaganda and politics has been overshadowed by the works of his contemporaries and colleagues associated with the Frankfurt School This book brings together a broad selection of Kracauer's work on media and political communication much of it previously unavailable in English It features writings spanning more than two decades from studies of totalitarian propaganda written in the 1930s to wartime work on Nazi newsreels and anti-Semitism through to examinations of American and Soviet political messaging in the early Cold War period These varied texts illuminate the interplay among politics mass culture and the media and they encompass Kracauer's core concerns the individual and the masses the conditions of cultural production and the critique of modernity The introduction and afterword explore the significance of Kracauer's contributions to critical theory film and media studies and the analysis of political communication both in his era and the present day At a time when demagoguery and bigotry loom over world politics Kracauer's inquiries into topics such as the widespread appeal of fascist propaganda and the relationship of new media forms and technologies to authoritarianism are strikingly relevant Theatre Under the Nazis John London, 2000 Were those who worked in the theatres of the Third Reich willing participants in the Nazi propaganda machine or artists independent of official ideology To what extent did composers such as Richard Strauss and Carl Orff follow Nazi dogma How did famous directors such as Gustaf Grdgens and Jürgen Fehling react to the new regime Why were Shakespeare and George Bernard Shaw among the most performed dramatists of the time And why did the Nazis sanction Jewish theatre This is the first book in English about theater in the entire Nazi period The book is based on contemporary press reports research in German archives and interviews with surviving playwrights actors and musicians The Arts in Nazi Germany Jonathan

Huener, Francis R. Nicosia, 2007-09 Culture and the arts played a central role in the ideology and propaganda of National Socialism from the early years of the movement until the last months of the Third Reich in 1945 This volume s essays explore these and other aspects of the arts and cultural life under National Socialism Cover Die besten Western aller Zeiten
