including workers at the Salar de Uyuni the world's largest salt flat the state lithium company in La Paz Latin America's first electric vehicle company and energy entrepreneurs in Bolivia the United States and Germany He points to a fundamental contradiction a so called green energy transition dependent on the ever greater extraction of yet another nonrenewable resource But without access to Bolivia's lithium and at megaindustrial scales that far outstrip current production there won't be sufficient lithium supply to make the batteries needed for a truly global EV revolution Extracting the Future shows how the lithium economy is deeply embedded in a global capitalist system that continues to rely on resource extraction unsustainable economic growth and geopolitical violence

Children's Literacy Practices and Preferences Jane Sunderland, Steven Dempster, Joanne Thistlethwaite, 2016-03-31 Over the past few decades there have been intense debates in education surrounding children's literacy achievement and ways to promote reading particularly that of boys The Harry Potter book series has been received enthusiastically by very many children boys and girls alike but has also been constructed in popular and media discourses as a children's particularly a boys literacy saviour Children's Literacy Practices and Preferences Harry Potter and Beyond provides empirical evidence of young people's reported literacy practices and views on reading and of how they see how the Harry Potter series as having impacted their own literacy The volume explores and debunks some of the myths surrounding Harry Potter and literacy and contextualizes these within children's wider reading
