book an effective training tool in the nursing facility setting      The Culture of Long Term Care J Neil Henderson, Maria D. Vesperi, 1995-08-30 This is the only collection of its kind to offer an inside view of life and work in contemporary nursing homes with the purpose of developing a theory of the culture of long term care The anthropological research in nursing homes presented here produces a seldom seen native view of patients staff and the day to day workings of American nursing homes The use of ethnographic methods penetrates the reality barriers found in industry descriptions muck raking discourse and general societal aversion toward nursing homes The tensions found between and within staff culture and patient culture are explored in terms of adaptations to institutional life in the context of current policy and the larger American ageist culture

Caring for Our Elders Patricia J. Kolb, 2003 Leah Pigatti Families in Society      Cumulated Index Medicus , 1988

Qualitative Research in Nursing Helen Streubert Speziale, Helen J. Streubert, Dona Rinaldi Carpenter, 2011 Qualitative Research in Nursing is a user friendly text that systematically provides a sound foundation for understanding a wide range of qualitative research methodologies including triangulation It approaches nursing education administration and practice and gives step by step details to instruct students on how to implement each approach Features include emphasis on ethical considerations and methodological triangulation instrument development and software usage critiquing guidelines and questions to ask when evaluating aspects of published research and tables of published research that offer resources for further reading Provided by publisher      Elder Care Catastrophe Jason Ulsperger, J. David Knottnerus, 2015-12-03

Portraying people who have lived and worked in long term nursing home facilities Elder Care Catastrophe reveals how organizational dynamics and everyday rituals have unintentionally led to resident neglect and abuse Backed up by research and grounded in sociological theory this book offers alternative models for lessening the maltreatment of people living in nursing homes It provides critical information for family members struggling with nursing home issues nursing home employees policy makers students and researchers concerned with elder care issues      Care Home Stories Sally

Chivers, Ulla Kriebnerneegg, 2018-03-15 Institutional care for seniors offers a cultural repository for fears and hopes about an aging population Although enormous changes have occurred in how institutional care is structured the legacies of the poorhouse still persist creating panicked views of the nursing home as a dreaded fate The paradoxical nature of a space meant to be both hospital and home offers up critical tensions for examination by age studies scholars The essays in this book challenge stereotypes of institutional care for older adults illustrate the changes that have occurred over time and illuminate the continuities in the stories we tell about nursing homes      Caring Peta Bowden, 2008-01-28 In Caring Peta Bowden extends and challenges recent debates on feminist ethics She takes issue with accounts of the ethics of care that focus on alleged principles of caring rather than analysing caring in practice Caring Bowden argues must be understood by working through examples Following this approach Bowden explores four main caring practices mothering friendship nursing and citizenship Her analysis of the differences and similarities in these practices their varying degrees of intimacy and reciprocity formality and informality vulnerability and choice reveals the practical complexity of the ethics of care Caring recognizes that ethical practices constantly outrun the theories that attempt to explain them and Bowden's unique approach provides major new insights into the nature of care without resorting to indiscriminate unitary models It will be essential reading for all those interested in ethics gender studies nursing and the caring professions Making Gray Gold Timothy

Diamond, 2009-06-12 This first hand report on the work of nurses and other caregivers in a nursing home is set powerfully in the context of wider political economic and cultural forces that shape and constrain the quality of care for America's elderly Diamond demonstrates in a compelling way the price that business as usual policies extract from the elderly as well as those whose work it is to care for them In a society in which some two million people live in 16 000 nursing homes with their numbers escalating daily this thought provoking work demands immediate and widespread attention An unnerving portrait of what it's like to work and live in a nursing home By giving voice to so many unheard residents and workers Diamond has performed an important service for us all Diane Cole New York Newsday With Making Gray Gold Timothy Diamond describes the commodification of long term care in the most vivid representation in a decade of round the clock institutional life A personal addition to the troublingly impersonal national debate over healthcare reform Madonna Harrington Meyer

Contemporary Sociology Art and Aesthetics in Nursing Peggy L. Chinn, Jean Watson, 1994 This book presents a new potential for health care in scholarship education and practice Does the aesthetic environment affect the quality of care Can art be a significant force in healing Celebrated contributors demonstrate the deep connections between aesthetic awareness and caring based practice Music narrative painting and more are featured as viable therapeutic modalities essential for reclaiming nursing as a human art and science Taking Care of Aging Family Members, Rev. Ed. Wendy

Lustbader, Nancy Hooyman, 1994 Offers advice on handling the physical mental emotional and financial needs of the aged and includes sections on spirituality ethnicity self neglect and other issues Violation: Collected Essays Sallie

Tisdale, 2016-04-18 Most Anticipated Too The Great 2016 Nonfiction Book Preview The Millions GROUNDBREAKING A career defining book The New Yorker Sallie Tisdale is the author of seven books on such varied subjects as medical technology her pioneer ancestors and Buddhist women teachers Her many essays have appeared in Harper's Conjunctions The New Yorker Antioch Review Threepenny Review and many other journals This first collection of work spans thirty years and includes an introduction and brief epilogues to each essay Tisdale's questing curiosity pursues subjects from the biology of flies to the experience of working in an abortion clinic why it is so difficult to play sports with men and whether it's possible for writers to tell the truth She restlessly returns to themes of the body the family and how we try to explain ourselves to each other She is unwilling to settle for easy answers and finds the ambiguity and wonder underneath ordinary events The collection includes a recent essay never before published about the mystery of how we present ourselves to each other and whether it is possible to know even our own inner lives The Not-so-golden Years Laura Katz Olson, 2003 Table
