Harvest Of The Palm Ecological Change In Eastern Indonesia:

Harvest of the Palm James J. Fox, 1977 The Making of Middle Indonesia Gerry van Klinken, 2014-01-30 What holds Indonesia together A strong leader is the answer most often given This book looks instead at a middle level of society Middle classes in provincial towns around the vast archipelago mediate between the state and society and help to constitute state power Middle Indonesia is a social zone connecting extremes The Making of Middle Indonesia examines the rise of an indigenous middle class in one provincial town far removed from the capital city Spanning the late colonial to early New Order periods it develops an unusual associational notion of political power Soft modalities of power included non elite provincial people in the emerging Indonesian state At the same time growing inequalities produced class tensions that exploded in violence in 1965 1966 Sea Hunters of Indonesia Robert Harrison Barnes, 1996 Sea Hunters of Indonesia is a comprehensive study of the coastal community of Lamalera whose traditional ways of life make it unique One is an unusual kind of sea fishing the hunting of whales porpoises and giant manta rays The other is the production by the women of the community of remarkable fine dyed textiles Recently these traditions have come under intense pressure from external economic influences and the people of Lamalera are starting to move into modern occupations The community famous for the beauty of its setting as well as for its crafts is now a major tourist attraction and it may now survive only as part of the tourist industry At this crucial point in the history of the region R H Barnes offers a richly detailed and beautifully illustrated picture of the culture and economy of Lamalera the fruit of many years study He records all aspects of life in Lamalera and places it in the broader context of the past present and future of Indonesia as a whole Between People and Statistics Francien Van Anrooij, 2012-12-06 Perhaps Piet Creutzberg is and essentially always has been an artisan and an admirer of the best in craftsmanship The emphasis on the practical side of things seems to pervade whatever he undertook during half a century Anyway it is as a trader of the historical craft wielding a Chinese abacus or an electronic computing device that from about 1965 onwards an increasing number of younger students of Indonesian social economic and political history have met him in the depot of the 20th century colonial archives in The Hague or at the Royal Tropical Institute in Amsterdam Of the scores of Dutch Indonesian British Scandinavian German American Australian and Japanese historians he inspired and advised some were writing a master's thesis others had already made part of their academic career in Indonesian history or related topics but most of them were in the critical phases of collecting published or archival materials with a view to their incorporation in doctoral dissertations Southeast Asian Exports since the 14th Century David Bulbeck, Anthony Reid, Lay Cheng Tan, Yiqi Wu, 2023-08-14 Southeast Asia has often been seen as economically static and self sufficient until the arrival of late 19th century capitalism for no better reason than lack of evidence to the contrary This volume seeks to lay a basis for more solid analysis of the precolonial record through accumulating one type of data exports for which the record is long and continuous By compiling data series for each of the Southeast Asian products which dominated long term exports cloves pepper coffee and sugar it reveals a dynamic pattern of rises and falls in the economic record of a region Co published with ISEAS Rethinking Histories of Indonesia Sadiya Boonstra, Bronwyn Anne Beech Jones, Katharine McGregor, Ken M.P. Setiawan, Abdul Wahid, 2025-08-21 Rethinking Histories of Indonesia Experiencing Resisting and Renegotiating Coloniality provides a critical evaluation of histories of Indonesia from the formal period of colonisation to the present day The volume approaches Indonesian history through the lens of coloniality or the structures of power and control that underpin colonisation and which persist into the present Bringing together seventeen authors from across the world the volume offers an alternative conceptualisation of Indonesian history and lays bare the enduring legacies of and processes that reproduce coloniality This is a significant and exciting volume in terms of its scale the range of disciplines approaches and topics included and ultimately for its contribution to the field of Indonesian history and historiography and Indonesian studies and decolonial studies more broadly The contributors to this book do a great service to students of Indonesian history its cultures society and politics offering new sources voices approaches and perspectives Overall they provide a fresh and vital critique of not only Indonesia's colonial history but its continuing lived influences on present day Indonesia and beyond Jemma Purdey Australia Indonesia Centre Monash University The Pearl Frontier Julia T. Martínez, Adrian Vickers, Clem Guthro, 2015-05-31 Remarkable for its meticulous archival research and moving life stories The Pearl Frontier offers a new way of imagining Australian historical connections with Indonesia This compelling view from below of maritime mobility demonstrates how in the colonial quest for the valuable pearl shell Australians came to rely on the skill and labor of Indonesian islanders drawing them into their northern pearling trade empire From the 1860s onward the pearl shell industry developed alongside British colonial conquests across Australia's northern coast and prompted the Dutch to consolidate their hold over the Netherlands East Indies Inspired by tales of pirates and priceless pearls the pearl frontier witnessed the maritime equivalent of a gold rush with traders entrepreneurs and willing workers coming from across the globe But like so many other frontier zones it soon became notorious for its reliance on slave like conditions for Indigenous and Indonesian workers These allegations prompted the imposition of a strict regime of indentured labor migration that was to last for almost a century before giving way to international criticism in the era of decolonization The Pearl Frontier invites the reader to step outside the narrow confines of national boundaries to see seafaring peoples as a continuous population moving and in communication in spite of the obstacles of politics warfare and language Instead of the mythologies of racial purity propagated by settler colonies and European empires this book dissects the social and economic life of the port cities around the Australian Indonesian maritime zone and lays open the complex cosmopolitan relationships which shaped their histories and their present situations Julia Martínez and Adrian Vickers bring together their expertise on Australian and Indonesian history to challenge the isolationist view of Australia's past This book explores how Asian migration and the struggle against the restrictive White Australia policy left a rich legacy of mixed Asian Indigenous heritage that lives on along Australia's northern coastline This book is an important contribution to studies of the coastal or Pasisir culture of Southeast Asia that situates the local cultures in a regional context and demonstrates how Indonesian maritime peoples became part of global migration flows as indentured laborers It offers a hitherto untold story of Indonesian diaspora in Australia and reveals a degree of Indian Pacific interconnectedness that forces us to rethink the construction of regional boundaries and national borders

The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor King, William D. Wilder, 2020-09-10 This is a comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural anthropology of South East Asia It provides an overview of the major theoretical issues and themes which have emerged from the engagement of anthropologists with South East Asian communities a succinct historical survey and analysis of the peoples and cultures of the region Most importantly the volume reveals the vitally important role which the study of the area has occupied in the development of the concepts and methods of anthropology from the perspectives of Edmund Leach to Clifford Geertz Maurice Freedman to Claude Levi Strauss Lauriston Sharp to Melford Spiro

Paths of Origin, Gates of Life A. McWilliam, 2021-10-25 Drawing on extensive ethnographic fieldwork this work explores the historical and cultural dimensions of an indigenous Timorese domain in the southern central highlands of West Timor Informing the study of Timorese social and cultural practice is an interpretative framework based on the concept of precedence and the rich repertoire of indigenous metaphor and binary categories by which Timorese articulate and classify social relations Ideas of place and precedence are central to an understanding of local status differences within and between hamlet settlements They also inform the historical patterns of present day settlements and help explain aspects of the broader historical expansion and migration of meto populations across much of West Timor For the little known region of Timor this volume will be of interest to regional specialists development planners and students of anthropology seeking a more detailed understanding of indigenous history and sociality in this corner of the Lesser Sunda Islands of eastern Indonesia

Southeast Asia Transformed Chia Lin Sien, 2003 Southeast Asia with a total population of 520 million remains a region characterized by fragmentation diversity and considerable internal conflict despite the unifying influence of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN formed some thirty five years ago In the new millennium it has lost the distinction of being one of the world's faster growing group of economies since the 1997 financial crisis While it has benefited from the winds of globalization it has now to cope with the painful adjustments to problems that stem from the inadequacies of good governance and structural changes This volume brings together the combined insights of specialists who have worked and lived in the region The theme of the book is change and transformation The authors identify the trends and forces that propel the region along and then bring in discussions on key issues In some cases they offer their views on the future of the region and recommendations for solutions The intention of the book is to offer a scholarly review of the region's development over the past half century and to provide a firm basis for forecasting its further evolution in the new millennium

Case Studies in Biocultural Diversity from Southeast Asia F. Merlin Franco, Magne Knudsen, Noor Hasharina

Hassan,2022-07-27 This open access book demonstrates the linkages between local languages traditional knowledge and biodiversity at the landscape level in Asia providing a fresh approach to discussions on Asia s biocultural diversity The book carries forward earlier analyses but importantly focuses on traditional ecological calendars folk medicine and folk names in the context of the vital importance of maintaining biological cultural and linguistic diversity It does this by addressing a range of cases and issues in relation to Southeast Asia Brunei Darussalam Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines and North East India The several chapters demonstrate the ways in which the various forms of knowledge of the environment and its categorizations are important in areas such as landscape and resource management and conservation They also demonstrate that environmental knowledge and the practical skills which accompany it are not necessarily widely shared This book sends important messages to those who care about the sustainability of our environment the maintenance of its biocultural diversity or at least the maintenance of what remains of it because much has changed This interdisciplinary collection draws from a wide range of disciplines and is of appeal to students and scholars in anthropology environmental studies geography biodiversity and linguistics

Soul of the Tiger Jeffrey A. McNeely,Paul Spencer Sochaczewski,1995-04-01 Anecdotes facts and observations on the role animals play in the daily life of Southeast Asian villages

An Introduction to Cultural Ecology Mark Q. Sutton,E. N. Anderson,2020-08-26 This contemporary introduction to the principles and research base of cultural ecology is the ideal textbook for advanced undergraduate and beginning graduate courses that deal with the intersection of humans and the environment in traditional societies After introducing the basic principles of cultural anthropology environmental studies and human biological adaptations to the environment the book provides a thorough discussion of the history of and theoretical basis behind cultural ecology The bulk of the book outlines the broad economic strategies used by traditional cultures hunting gathering horticulture pastoralism and agriculture Fully explicated with cases illustrations and charts on topics as diverse as salmon ceremonies among Northwest Indians contemporary Maya agriculture and the sacred groves in southern China this book gives a global view of these strategies An important emphasis in this text is on the nature of contemporary ecological issues how peoples worldwide adapt to them and what the Western world can learn from their experiences A perfect text for courses in anthropology environmental studies and sociology

East Timor at the Crossroads Peter Carey,G. Carter Bentley,1995-09-01 In a rapidly changing post Cost War world where many age old conflicts and injustices are at last being put to rights East Timor stands out as a still unresolved tragedy In the past twenty years 1975 95 this former Portuguese colony has been under Indonesian military occupation an occupation responsible for the death of over 200 000 of its inhabitants a third of its pre 1975 population and the destruction of much of its indigenous society Yet despite enormous odds the people of East Timor continue to fight for the independence which was denied them in the mid 1970s Twenty years on there is now a very real chance for a new beginning in East Timor This book which brings together contributions by both East Timorese and Western specialists of East Timor provides a compelling account of the process by which a once isolated and traditional society has been forged into a nation with a deep sense of its own identity rooted in its unique religious cultural linguistic and historical heritage Indonesia is at last beginning to realize the cost of Third World colonialism and its Western allies are becoming less tolerant of its security state methods The last section of this book considers the new diplomatic initiatives which are currently in train under the auspices of the UN to bring about a resolution to the Timor problem without jeopardizing the integrity of the Indonesian Republic An extensive bibliography of titles on East Timor published between 1970 and 1994 will prove especially useful for scholars

Indigenous Spirits and Global Aspirations in a Southeast Asian Borderland Michael Rose, 2025-10-01 Over the past 40 years life in Timor Leste has changed radically Before 1975 most of the population lived in highland villages spoke local languages and rarely used money Today many have moved to peri urban lowland settlements and even those whose lives remain dominated by customary ways understand that those of their children will not For the Atoni Pah Meto of Timor Leste's remote Oecussi Enclave the world was neatly divided into two distinct categories the meto indigenous and the kase foreign Now matters are less clear the good things of the globalised world are pursued not through rejecting the meto ways of the village or collapsing them into the kase but through continual crossing between them In this way the people of Oecussi are able to identify in the struggles of lowland life the comforting and often decisive presence of familiar highland spirits

Transforming the Indonesian Uplands Tania Li, 2005-06-27 Drawing upon current theoretical debates in social anthropology development studies and political ecology and presenting original research from across the Archipelago this book addresses the changing histories and identities of upland people as they relate in new ways to the natural resource base to markets and to the state It is an engaged study which fills important analytical gaps and addresses real world concerns exploring the uplands as components of national and global systems of meaning power and production It offers a significant reassessment of concepts processes histories relationships and discourses many of which are not unique to either the uplands or Indonesia making the book essential and compelling reading for both scholars and practitioners

The Common Ground in the Kei Islands Paschalis Maria Laksono, 2002 Bunga Angin Portugis Di Nusantara Paramita Rahayu Abdurachman, 2008-01-01 History of Portuguese in Indonesia and its influence in Indonesian culture

The Poetic Power of Place James J. Fox, 2006-09-01 This collection of papers is the fourth in a series of volumes on the work of the Comparative Austronesian Project Each paper describes a specific Austronesian locality and offers an ethnographic account of the way in which social knowledge is vested maintained and transformed in a particular landscape The intention of the volume is to consider common patterns in the representation of place among Austronesian speaking populations
