The skyline features a large, metallic, dome-shaped structure, a tall building with a cat-like face, and several other skyscrapers. The scene is set against a blue sky with white clouds. A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE FUTURE

Has History A Future

Stephen M. Gardiner

Has History A Future:

Facing the Future Nuel Belnap, Michael Perloff, Ming Xu, 2001-08-02 Here is an important new theory of human action a theory that assumes actions are founded on choices made by agents who face an open future It is a theory that makes indeterminism not only intelligible but illuminating Tools from philosophy of language and philosophical logic help generate a full scale account of agents seeing to it that The authors then proceed to clarify a variety of action related topics such as determinism vs indeterminism imperatives promises strategies joint agency could have done otherwise deontic constructions and assertions about a not yet settled future Sociology of the Future Wendell Bell, James Wau, 1971-10-12 Concerns itself with the future of sociology and of all social science The thirteen authors among them Wendell Bell Kai T Erikson Scott Greer Robert Boguslaw James Mau and Ivar Oxaal are oriented toward a redefinition of the role of the social scientist as advisor to policymakers and administrators in all major areas of social concern for the purpose of studying and shaping the future This book contains research strategies for such futurologistic study theories on its merits and dangers as well as an annotated bibliography of social science studies of the future Fides and Secularity Emilio Di Somma, 2018-11-15 This book wishes to talk about two main topics the Canadian political philosopher Charles Taylor and faith Taylor in his philosophical arguments on religion and secularity has adopted what I call the great prejudice on religion and secularity the two belong to utterly different spheres of human mind and sociality In this prejudice faith is used as a synonym of religion or belief and is understood as something that does not belong to the sphere of secularity My argument contradicts precisely this common belief Is faith more of an anthropological attitude towards reality than a religious one Can we criticize Taylor's philosophy on these grounds To develop my argument I will attempt to develop a dialogue between continental and Anglo American philosophers and theologians in the hope of convincing the readers that we should change radically the way we discuss faith religion and secularism A Hope for Philosophy I Ye Xiushan, 2022-10-20 As the final work by Ye Xiushan one of the most famous philosophers and philosophy scholars in China this two volume title scrutinizes the historical development of both Chinese and Western philosophies aiming to explore the convergence between the two philosophical traditions Combining the historical examination and argumentation based on philosophical problematics the two volume set expounds the key figures and schools and critical thoughts in both Western and Chinese philosophical histories In this first volume the author investigates the intellectual heritage of ancient Greece and Thales of Miletus as the cradle of European philosophy freedom in Greek philosophy reason and negation in classical German philosophy and the relationship between epistemology and ontology in the philosophical history thereby illuminating the core spirit of Western philosophy and theoretical quandary facing the contemporary European philosophy This title will appeal to scholars students and general readers interested in philosophical history comparative philosophy Chinese philosophy and Western philosophy ranging over Greek philosophy German classic philosophy and contemporary continental philosophy Knowing Future Time In and Through Greek

Historiography Alexandra Lianeri, 2016-03-07 From the early modern period Greek historiography has been studied in the context of Cicero's notion historia magistra vitae and considered to exclude conceptions of the future as different from the present and past Comparisons with the Roman Judeo-Christian and modern historiography have sought to justify this perspective by drawing on a category of the future as a temporal mode that breaks with the present In this volume distinguished classicists and historians challenge this contention by raising the question of what the future was and meant in antiquity by offering fresh considerations of prognostic and anticipatory voices in Greek historiography from Herodotus to Appian and by tracing the roots of established views on historical time in the opposition between antiquity and modernity They look both at contemporary scholarly argument and the writings of Greek historians in order to explore the relation of time especially the future to an idea of the historical that is formulated in the plural and is always in motion By reflecting on the prognostic of historical time the volume will be of interest not only to classical scholars but to all who are interested in the history and theory of historical time

Visions of the Future in Comics Francesco-Alessio Ursini, Adnan Mahmutovic, Frank Bramlett, 2017-10-18 Across generations and genres comics have imagined different views of the future from unattainable utopias to worrisome dystopias These presaging narratives can be read as reflections of their authors and readers' hopes, fears, and beliefs about the present This collection of new essays explores the creative processes in comics production that bring plausible futures to the page The contributors investigate portrayals in different stylistic traditions: manga, bande dessinée, from a variety of theoretical perspectives The picture that emerges documents the elaborate storylines and complex universes comics creators have been crafting for decades

Uncertain Futures Senia Pašeta, 2016 Marking Roy Foster's retirement from the Carroll Professorship of Irish history at the University of Oxford and recognising his extraordinary career as a historian, literary critic, and public intellectual, this essay collection charts Foster's career while reflecting on developments in the field of Irish history writing, teaching, and research

Crisis Cultures Nicholas Manganas, 2024-10-08 In Crisis Cultures: Narratives of Western Modernity in the Digital Age, Nicholas Manganas argues that crisis should be understood not as a series of isolated events but as a constitutive state intrinsic to modern Western societies He explores how this perpetual state of crisis intensifies underlying societal tensions and reshapes cultural and political dynamics Drawing on a diverse range of case studies including the Capitol Hill riots in the United States and analyses from countries such as Spain and Greece, Manganas explores how both digital and traditional media perpetuate crisis narratives that significantly influence contemporary cultural identities and shape political discourses His analysis also engages with the emotional and temporal aspects of crises, particularly focusing on how digital environments through their ambient influence shape and sustain these states of crisis By reinterpreting the concept of crisis through an interdisciplinary lens that includes historical, political, and cultural analysis, the author offers a compelling analysis of its role in shaping the present and future contours of Western societies

The Rationalism of Georg Lukács J. Kelemen, 2013-11-15 The Rationalism of Georg Lukács is a collection of essays and engaging scholarship which uncovers new dimensions of the philosopher s work The relevance of Lukács s ideas should be seen in the light of a sharp decline in critical thought as well the continued need to rehabilitate a thinker that was representative of a rational radical perspective

On Post-Colonial Futures Bill Ashcroft, 2001-09-01 In this groundbreaking work Bill Ashcroft extends the arguments posed in The Empire Writes Back to investigate the transformative effects of postcolonial resistance and the continuing relevance of colonial struggle He demonstrates the remarkable capacity for change and adaptation emanating from postcolonial cultures both in everyday life and in the intellectual spheres of literature history and philosophy The transformations of postcolonial literary study have not been limited to a simple rewriting of the canon but have also affected the ways in which all literature can be read and have led to a more profound understanding of the network of cultural practices that influence creative writing

Spreading Indra's Net D. T. Suzuki, 2025-08-26 D T Suzuki s 1950s lectures at Columbia University were foundational for the postwar Zen boom Speaking softly in a bookcase lined room Suzuki then in his eighties introduced East Asian Buddhism to a rapt audience of the general public scholars and students He offered a distinctive interpretation of Zen weaving together his understanding of classical Buddhist texts especially the Flower Garland Sutra with Christian mysticism psychology and twentieth century European and American philosophy The freewheeling lectures captivated listeners drawn from the New York intelligentsia and art world including Carolyn Brown John Cage Arthur Danto Sari Dienes Erich Fromm Phillip Guston Ibram Lassaw and Dorothy Norman and catalyzed public interest in Buddhism

Spreading Indra s Net presents Suzuki s 1952 1953 lectures in full giving a vivid look at how one of the most important global Buddhist figures of the twentieth century interpreted Zen for an American audience Drawing on archival research in Japan and the United States editor Richard M Jaffe provides an extensive introduction that traces Suzuki s path to Columbia analyzes the content of the lectures and surveys their reception Among the most accessible works of a major figure and a record of a crucial moment in New York history this book displays Suzuki s gifts as a teacher scholar writer and thinker

The Oxford Handbook of Intergenerational Ethics Stephen M.

Gardiner,2025 This volume of new essays focuses on the increasing relevance of intergenerational ethics to key challenges of the 21st century such as climate change rapid technological change the expanding human population and threats of extinction It features philosophers and political theorists of international standing providing a cutting edge perspective on these issues The Journey of Modern Theology Roger E. Olson,2013-11-01 In this major revision and expansion of the classic 20th Century Theology 1992 coauthored with Stanley J Grenz Roger Olson tells the full story of modern theology from Descartes to Caputo from the Kantian revolution to postmodernism now recast in terms of how theologians have accommodated or rejected modernity Preservation and Protest Ryan Patrick McLaughlin,2014-11-01 Preservation and Protest proposes a novel taxonomy of four paradigms of nonhuman theological ethics by exploring the intersection of tensions between value terms and teleological terms McLaughlin systematically develops the paradigm of cosmocentric transfiguration arguing that the entire cosmos shares in the eschatological hope of a harmonious participation in God s triune life With this paradigm McLaughlin offers an alternative to anthropocentric and conservationist paradigms within the Christian tradition an alternative that affirms both scientific claims about natural history and the theological hope for eschatological redemption The American Historical Review John Franklin Jameson, Henry Eldridge Bourne, Robert Livingston Schuyler,1923 American Historical Review is the oldest scholarly journal of history in the United States and the largest in the world Published by the American Historical Association it covers all areas of historical research Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE-100 CE Richard Teverson,2024-09-03 This is the first book length exploration of the ways art from the edges of the Roman Empire represented the future examining visual representations of time and the role of artwork in Roman imperial systems This book focuses on four kingdoms from across the empire Cottius s Alpine kingdom in the north King Juba II s Mauretania in the south west Herodian Judea in the east and Kommagene to the north east Art from the imperial frontier is rarely considered through the lens of the aesthetics of time and Roman provincial art and the monuments of allied rulers are typically interpreted as evidence of the interaction between Roman and local identities In this interdisciplinary study which explores statues wall paintings coins monuments and inscriptions readers learn that these artworks served as something more they were created to represent the futures that allied rulers and their people foresaw The pressure of Roman imperialism drove patrons and artists on the empire s borders to imbue their creations with increasingly sophisticated ideas about the future as they wrestled with consequential decisions made under periods of intense political pressure Comprehensively illustrated and providing an important new approach to Roman material culture at the edge of empire Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE 100 CE is suitable for students and scholars working on Rome and its frontiers as well as Roman material culture more broadly and those studying the aesthetics of time in art and art history The Coming of God Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl,2004-07-27 Winner of Grawemeyer Award In this remarkable and timely work in many ways the culmination of his systematic theology world renowned theologian Jurgen Moltmann stands Christian eschatology on its head Moltmann rejects the traditional approach which focuses on the End an apocalyptic finale as a kind of Christian search for the final solution He centers instead on hope and God s promise of new creation for all things Christian eschatology he says is the remembered hope of the raising of the crucified Christ so it talks about beginning afresh in the deadly end Yet Moltmann s novel framework deeply informed by Jewish and messianic thought also fosters rich and creative insights into the perennially nettling questions of eschatology Are there eternal life and personal identity after death How is one to think of heaven hell and purgatory What are the historical and cosmological dimensions of Christian hope What are its social and political implications In a heartbreakingly fragile and fragment world Moltmann s comprehensive eschatology surveys the Christian vista bravely envisioning our horizons of expectation for personal social even cosmic transformation in God

Life and Learning of Korean Artists and Craftsmen Dae Joong Kang, 2015-04-17 This book brings out the need for lifelong learning theory and explores how it is possible from a postmodern perspective The book uses life history that has gained its popularity in social science research to overcome the dichotomy between individual and society or between agency and structure Life history also reflects the postmodern or late modern conditions of social life In this book the author uses a collection of published oral history narratives of famous Korean artists and craftsmen The author maps out life and learning of five such artists and craftsmen with figurations of escaping creating controlling and formalizing These figurations are images of Rhizoactivity that the author proposes as a new conceptual tool to navigate lifelong learning from a postmodern perspective This book signalises a new way of theory building in the field of adult and lifelong education The Life and Learning of Korean Artists and Craftsmen Rhizoactivity conceptualises Adult learning in terms of postmodern and lifelong learning conditions Life histories as a method of researching lifelong learning The four facets of artistic journeys escaping creating controlling and formalizing This book will interest researchers focusing on lifelong and adult education Its use of social theories in its study of lifelong learning amongst Korean artists will also interest sociologists and educators concerned with the sociology of education
