Hate Aus Papier:

The Logic of Hatred Jacob Rogozinski, 2024-02-06 This book works to uncover the logic of hatred to understand how this affect manifests itself historically in persecution and terror apparatuses More than a historical genealogy of persecution The Logic of Hatred shows what phenomenology can offer to historical understanding Focusing on the witch hunts waged in the fifteenth through seventeenth centuries the first part of the book analyzes the techniques instigators used to designate and annihilate their targets the search for diabolical stigma the confession of truth extracted by torture the constitution of an absolute Enemy through the suggestion of conspiracy of a world turned upside down or the figure of Satan Rogozinski locates one of the origins of the witch hunt in the anguish that popular uprisings arouse in dominant classes The second part of the book extends the investigation to related phenomena such as the extermination of lepers in the Middle Ages and the Reign of Terror during the French Revolution By studying these historical experiences and marking their differences and similarities this book shows the passage from exclusion to persecution and how revolts of the oppressed can let themselves be transformed and captured by persecutory politics The analyses presented thus shed light on conspiracy theory and the terror apparatuses of our time

Breining, Lake Superior's windswept rock clear water and wooded shores create some of the most stunning landscapes in Minnesota Wisconsin Michigan and Ontario Over two years sportsman writer and world traveler Greg Breining set out to circle this great lake by kayak a means of travel that allowed him to visit the lake's places of rare beauty and solitude experience its wildly varied moods and see its remote historic sites and isolated communities Wild Shore is a tale of outdoor adventure odd characters humorous stories and quiet reflection "Die" Neue Zeit, 1890 Wochenblatt für Papierfabrikation, 1920 Verhandlungen der Verfassungegebenden deutschen Nationalversammlung Germany. Reichstag, 1918 Walking to Australia David Robbins, 2018-04-26 David Robbins published his first short story at 19 and his first book 25 years later In 1986 for The 29th Parallel he was awarded South Africa's prestigious CNA Literary Award after having been shortlisted with Christopher Hope and J M Coetzee Since then he has published extensively on southern African themes becoming established as a writer of extraordinary perception in the literary travel and short fiction genres In 1995 he published the first of two travel books covering 22 countries on the African continent which enjoyed international success and in 2010 he received a Lifetime Achievement Literary Award from the South African Ministry of Arts and Culture A year before receiving this acknowledgement of his contribution to local literature he had already embarked on the major project currently under discussion Several visits to Australia had ignited his interest in the Out of Africa hypothesis of modern humanity's peopling of the world Walking to Australia has been the result of extensive travel in the countries occupying the northern shores of the Indian Ocean and of seven years of intermittent researching and writing The book describes a 21st century journey following the direction taken by anatomically modern humans who left the African nursery around 80000 years ago and reached Australia 20000 years later Along the way they laid the genetic foundations for humanity's oldest civilizations and ultimately inhabited every corner of the globe The result of these travels is not a scientific treatise Although the science is not ignored the centre lies elsewhere The author undertakes this west to east endeavor in the imagined company of his autistic grandson who serves both as confidant and as a human archetype This allows the book to verge upon a unique blend of factual travel writing and an almost magical internalised interpretation What the two travellers find together is a tangle of new experiences and responses from which the linkages between primeval past and complex present gradually emerge Here is a work of literary travel writing that describes an enchanted journey through some of the ancient places of the world and into the currently deeply troubled heart of the human adventure The evidence encountered on the journey suggests that a fundamental universality of humanity's place in the cosmos lies beneath all regional differences and is characterised as much by humility and co operation as it is by the imperative to survive and or the will to power The book does not set out to prove a point however but to celebrate the complexity of human responses It is more a creative work than it is a dissertation with an unambiguous conclusion Nevertheless the bibliography gives an indication of some of the sources used which includes the work of historians archaeologists political scientists biographers and
