True Irish Ghost Stories Anonymous,2020-09-28 Of all species of ghostly phenomena that commonly known as haunted houses appeals most to the ordinary person There is something very eerie in being shut up within the four walls of a house with a ghost The poor human being is placed at such a disadvantage If we know that a gateway or road or field has the reputation of being haunted we can in nearly every case make a detour and so avoid the unpleasant locality But the presence of a ghost in a house creates a very different state of affairs It appears and disappears at its own sweet will with a total disregard for our feelings it seems to be as much part and parcel of the domicile as the staircase or the hall door and consequently nothing short of leaving the house or of pulling it down both of these solutions are not always practicable will free us absolutely from the unwelcome presence There is also something so natural and at the same time so unnatural in seeing a door open when we know that no human hand rests on the knob or in hearing the sound of footsteps light or heavy and feeling that it cannot be attributed to the feet of mortal man or woman Or perhaps a form appears in a room standing sitting or walking in fact situated in its three dimensions apparently as an ordinary being of flesh and blood until it proves its unearthly nature by vanishing before our astonished eyes Or perhaps we are asleep in bed The room is shrouded in darkness and our recumbent attitude together with the weight of bed clothes hampers our movements and probably makes us more cowardly A man will meet pain or danger boldly if he be standing upright occupying that erect position which is his as Lord of Creation but his courage does not well so high if he be supine We are awakened suddenly by the feel that some superhuman Presence is in the room We are transfixed with terror we cannot find either the bell rope or the matches while we dare not leap out of bed and make a rush for the door lest we should encounter we know not what In an agony of fear we feel it moving towards us it approaches closer and yet closer to the bed and for what may or may not then happen we must refer our readers to the pages of this book
